

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

is my baby girl, now two weeks old," writes Mrs. J. Priest, of Webster City, Iowa. "She is a fine healthy babe and we are both doing nicely. I am still taking Cardui, and would not be without it in the house."

The Johnson News says that unless something turns up, it will support Quackebush for the legislature. If that something turns up we'd like to be in on it.—Brook Bulletin.

The Lincoln News recently gave the Council Bluffs Nonpartisan credit for having been the first newspaper in this part of the country to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. The Advertiser was fifty years old in June, and has been continuously published all that time.

The Nebraska City News argues that Congressman Pollard is not really a farmer and fruit grower because he does not get out and work in the field and orchard. The same line of argument would bar any man from being classed with manufacturers unless he actually did the mechanical work.

Sunday was three degrees warmer than Monday according to the government thermometer at the Burlington station. Ninety-six was registered yesterday and ninety-three today. Sunday therefore was one of the hottest days of the year, equalling a top notch record of a day last month.—Neb. City Tribune.

During the state fair at Lincoln it is said that a U. P. train of nine coaches hauled 1,100 passengers into Lincoln. Some one questioned this and Conductor Joe Smalley says that nine coaches on the Burlington brought in over 1,100 passengers into Shenandoah, Ia., during the fair at that place recently. In both cases the passengers were packed into the cars like sardines.

The state fair closed last Friday. In point of attendance the fair was the greatest we have ever held. The total attendance reached over one hundred thousand Wednesday was the big day, the attendance on that day reaching over 42,000. The management expect to have $25,000 or $30,000 left after all expenses are paid.

Nemaha county won fourth place in the county exhibits, getting a price of $181.73. The counties ahead of her were Saline, Washington and Kearney. Richardson county was fifth.

Mrs. George Howell, an aged resident of Howe, had a narrow escape from being bitten by a rattlesnake Wednesday of last week. She was at work in her yard, when she encountered the huge reptile lazily sunning itself in some loose earth. Mrs. Howell grasped a hoe and commenced a battle with the rattlesnake, which she says was nearly six foot long. The snake dodged the blows aimed at it and coiling itself made an angry lunge at Mrs. Howell, who turned and fled into the house and shut the door just as the enraged snake had gained the threshold. Mrs. Howell's narrow escape and exciting encounter prostrated her but her condition is not considered serious.—Auburn Republican.

The Advertiser is a republican paper and the editor is a republican because he believes in the principles of the party. We do not believe they have adopted all the good principles, neither do we believe that it is the only party having good principles and good men. But we do believe that it has largest number of good principles calculated to make the "common people" prosperous and happy. And we also believe that as the party is "shown" it will adopt new principles of advancement. But because we are a republican we do not intend to support a rascal for office, nor will we denounce every man who believes differently from us as acoundrel. We believe there are good men and bad men in all parties.

Never before in the history of Nebraska has politics been of such vital interest to the masses as the contests now being waged in the state. The people are entitled to know the whole truth about all the men who are seeking office and about the principles that are being advocated. A paper having some personal or private interest in the outcome of such contests can rarely be relied upon to print the news from an absolutely unbiased standpoint. Has the thought occurred to you that The State Journal is the only newspaper of Nebraska whose proprietor is not an office holder or office seeker? This may be some explanation why The Journal is so especially interesting these days. Its attitude upon all absorbing topics of public interest is in behalf of the people and not for office-getting.

After January 1, 1907, any editor or newspaper man who wants to ride on the railroad must pay his fare as the railroad cannot make any new advertising contracts. The information comes from the headquarters of the railroad companies in Chicago and Omaha.

All interchange of business between newspapers and railroads must be on a strictly cash basis, and no complimentary of any kind can be given or received.

Newspapers that have contracts good until the first of the year can fulfill their agreement until that time but the contracts cannot be renewed, nor can any contract for advertising be made from now until that time.—Omaha News.

A special from Nebraska says: Congressman Pollard estimates that the apple crop from Pollard & Son's orchard will amount to 50,000 bushels. They have a small army of men at work picking, sorting, barreling and loading on cars. They are large manufacturers of cider, but find that they will not be able to manufacture all their own crop of apples will make, so they are enlarging their facilities and in a short time will be able to increase the output to 3,000 gallons per day. They expect to make 125,000 gallons of cider from this year's apple crop. They have closed a contract for all the cider they can make and will soon be shipping a car per day. They are firm believers in spraying their orchards and have sprayed three to four times a season for several years. The result is that they have fine, perfect apples, when their neighbors have none that are merchantable.

Men are queer. Wouldn't there be a row when they went home to their meals if they had to climb up on a high stool in front of a table on which there was no cloth and eat their meals in that fashion? Yet a majority of men, when they go to a restaurant to eat, will pick out the high stool and the feed board with no cloth on it, in preference to a comfortable chair and a cloth-covered table. A man will borrow a chew of tobacco and most of them will set their teeth into the plug right over where some other man gnawed out a chew. Offer him a piece of pie that his wife or one of the children had taken a bite of and he would holler his head off. At home he would not drink out of a glass or cup from which one of the family had been drinking. Call him into the back stall of a livery barn, pull out a bottle, and he will stick the neck of the bottle half way down his throat in order to get a swig, after a half dozen other fellows have had the neck of the bottle in their mouths. A man is a queer duck.—Exchange.

STELLA, Neb., Sept. 9—Alex Brisby, a young farm hand twenty-six years of age, was frightfully mangled beneath the cars at the Missouri Pacific station here today. He was conscious for fifteen minutes after the accident and died four hours later. Both legs and both arms were mangled and amputation of all four limbs was necessary.

Mr. Brisby came to town from the farm where he had been working to take the passenger train to Auburn. He missed that train. A through freight came along. He stepped across the track opposite the depot and attempted to get on the train. He grabbed at a car about the center of the train and was dragged under the wheels. Four cars ran over him.

The surgeons amputated both legs, one at the knee and the other near the hip, and one arm near the shoulder and the other near the wrist. He could not survive the shock.

The through freight was running rapidly and did not stop here. The train men knew nothing of the accident.

Brisby's parents live in Omaha. He had been working near here for some time.

Some people have called and expressed their surprise that Nemaha county should have such a stock of Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, Jewelry, Music and other lines, as ours. We are trying to please by selling what the people want at such a low price that it is not necessary to look farther.

Have you come in yet.

America's Greatest Weekly

THE Toledo Blade

TOLEDO, OHIO

The best known newspaper in the U. S.

Circulation 185,000
 POPULAR IN EVERY STATE

In many respects the Toledo Blade is the most remarkable weekly newspaper published in the United States. It is the only newspaper especially edited for National circulation. It has had the largest circulation for more years than any newspaper printed in America. Furthermore it is the cheapest newspaper in the world, as will be explained to any person who will write us for terms. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 185,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the U. S. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year.
