J. H. Vanderslice

Cool nights.
The mornings feel rather frosty.

"A Happy Pair" at the opera house Saturday night.

The county fair has been in progress at Auburn this week.

J. W. Smith, who is working at Peru, spent Sunday at home.

J. H. Vanderslice is closing out his entire stock of millinery.
See his ad.

John W. Ritchey went to St.
Joe Monday night to select his fall and winter stock of goods.

Rock salt and barrel salt for sale by Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

A large number of our citizens drove up to Brownville Sunday to attend the funeral of Chet Sedoras' baby.

Charley Woodward and wife of Kansas City, Mo., are visiting Charley's parents, F. L. Woodward and wife, this week.

Make wash day a pleasure by using the one minute washing machine, for sale by Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Next week is the live stock show in South Auburn. It will undoubtedly be good. Arrange to go to it. It will be Wednesday and Thursday.

Wm. Russell brought us some fine sweet potatoes Saturday.
One of the Bermudas weighed three pounds. He has raised some fine ones this year.

Mrs. Emma Bartlett of Freeport, Ill., is visiting her uncle, W. W. Liebhart. She came down from Gretna Friday evening with Mr. Liebhart. They were attending the funeral of a relative.

Lester Peabody is having considerable alterations made in his residence on the farm northeast of Nemaha. He is having the roof taken off and a second story built on, and will have a large porch built on. C. F. Zook and John White are doing the carpenter work.

It pays to advertise. Judge Stull of Auburn advertised for a cow and at the same time the editor of The Advertiser advertised a cow for sale. The judge bought the cow, so both advertisements were answered. J. W.
Webber drove in from Auburn Monday morning and took the cow out.

The plan of services at the Methodist church has been changed, and until further notice the following is the order: Next Sunday there will be preaching at Howe in the morning and Nemaha in the evening.
The following Sunday there will be preaching at Nemaha in the morning and Howe in the evening, and so on. Thus each church will have one service every Sunday, but they will alternate in the morning and evening services. Last Sunday the morning service was at Nemaha and the evening service at Howe.
The evening service now begins at 7:30. Epworth League service every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Kimmel Company will be at the opera house Saturday night.

Born—Friday, Sept. 21, 1906, to Boyd Wood and wife, a daughter.

The blind man with the hand organ was in Nemaha Wednesday evening.

Born—To Marion Seid and wife, Friday, Sept. 21, 1906, a fine daughter.

Marion Seid is now brakeman on the C. B. & Q., with headquarters at Norfolk.

Miss Kate Thompson, who has been in Nemaha for some time, returned to Lincoln Saturday.

Elmer E. Allen is having some cement walk laid in his yard.
Ned Crother is doing the work.

Reserved seats for the Kimmel Co. Saturday night are on sale at Keeling's store. 25 and 35 cents.

Geo. E. Kimmel and wife of Auburn visited the former's brother, Harry Kimmel and wife, over Sunday.

An ice cream social will be held at Champion school house Saturday evening, Sept 29, to which everybody is invited.

The school had a vacation Wednesday to enable the pupils and teachers to attend the county fair that day being children's day.

Frank Tiuis and Ed Knapp started for Minnesota Tuesday afternoon to sell apples for G. N.
Titus. Two cars of apples followed them.

Mrs. Ann Maxwell went to western Kansas last week, to visit her son John. Her granddaughter, Miss Maggie Hacker, went with her.

Geo. E. Codington, proprietor of the Auburn bus and transfer line, went to Chicago last week to buy an automobile to add to his line of vehicles. George is bound to be in the front.

Pocket maps of Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and other states on sale at the postoffice bookstore.

Passenger trains from the north are beginning to arrive on time again. For several weeks they were very late on account of delay caused by loading fruit.

Elmer E. Allen took a lot of kodak pictures while he was on his trip east, and has had Mrs.
Florence Jarvis develop them since coming back. He has some fine views of Niagara Falls, the canals in New York state, and other places.

F. E. Hoover now has string beans raised from seed grown this year. This is doing pretty well for a northern state—to raise two crops of beans in one season. But we have got so we are not much surprised at anything in Nebraska.

C. H. Kindig, who has been visiting Alberta, Canada, returned to Nemaha Wednesday. See his letter on an inside page. He brought home some samples of wheat, oats and barley, and a piece of the soil and subsoil of country where he has land.
