Wm. E. Smiley now has charge of the C. B. & Q. coal sheds at Nemaha, taking the place of R. E. Bucher.

Rev. G. W. Ayers preaches at Nemaha next Sunday morning and at Howe at night. Rev. J.
W. Sapp preaches at Nemaha morning and night.

Lew Griffith and family of Stella and Misses Lala and Edith and Clyde and Bertie Hill of Shubert, were the guests of Mrs.
Theo. Hill last Sunday.

J. W. Ritchey and wife drove out near Howe Sunday to the home of Mr. Ritchey's sister, Mrs. Dave Kite, to see her father, who is quite sick.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving and surely the people of Nemaha have great cause for thankfulness this year. Prosperity abounds in every way. Let us all give thanks.

We have been trying to clean up the office a little in the past week and have shipped off a lot of old type and will get new in its place. So we expect to be in better shape all around soon.

One Good Investment worth a lifetime of labor. Get a farm in the famous Alberta country, good soil, good grass, good water, good markets, fine climate. $400 makes the first payment on 160 acres of land, one crop pays for the land. Go now. Buy now. Free sleeper, cheap rates, stopovers on return. We go every Monday.

Write us. Farms of all kinds and sizes in Nemaha county and in all parts of Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Missouri, Iowa, and Dakotas. We have just what you want, see us.
