

State Historical Society

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 30

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, DEC. 21, 1906

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

SANTA CLAUS

Is now located at

THE NEW STORE

He has a nod and a smile for every one.

Come in and See Him

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

Christmas Ribbons

I have more Ribbons than I want. Come and get them at way down prices. They are going fast

AT COST AND UNDER
MRS. THEO. HILL

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co. have just received a complete line of

- Ranges,
- Cook Stoves,
- Base Burners,
- Coal Stoves,
- Wood Stoves,

and everything in the way of toves.

Those boxes of stationery for sale at the postoffice bookstore are the handsomest ever brought to Nemaha. Go in and see them.

All parties owing me are requested to call and settle their accounts before Jan 1, as I need the money. W. H. BARKER.

HOLIDAY GOODS

We will not attempt to enumerate the variety of beautiful articles we have from which you can select appropriate gifts for every member of the family. No better present can be made than some of the celebrated

1847 Rogers Bros. Silverware

There are also toilet cases, glove and handkerchief boxes, perfumery, books dolls, toys, clocks, stationery, jewelry, albums, celluloid novelties, etc.

Handsome Presents at Low Prices

You are invited to call and see our stock and get prices

W. F. KEELING

Candies and nuts at the postoffice bookstore.

Jacob West of Brownville was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday.

Some handsome bonbon boxes on sale at the postoffice bookstore.

Miss Maud White came down from Peru Friday, returning the next day.

Dr. Frazier returned from Goodman, Mo., Friday morning of last week.

John M. Clark shipped two car loads of cattle and one of hogs to Kansas City Monday night.

Dr. Frazier reports the birth to Harrison Dreury and wife, on Saturday morning, Dec. 14, 1906, of a fine girl.

Miss Lillian Neal went to her home in Peru Friday to get the benefit of home doctoring, returning Monday.

Mrs. Theo. Hill is having a walk laid in front of her residence property where J. W. Ritchey is now living.

Mrs. L. H. Roach (formerly Miss Sarah Colerick) of Nebraska City, visited her parents from Monday until Wednesday of this week.

Ed Parriott of Peru, deputy for the A. O. U. W., was in Nemaha Tuesday in the interest of that order, and attended the meeting that night.

FOR Christmas Presents
See those handsome boxes of Stationery, Books, Bibles, Bonhon Boxes, etc., etc., at the Postoffice Bookstore

Diphtheria and scarlet fever are in several families in Howe and vicinity, and on that account the Sunday school will not have Christmas exercises.

The Advertiser received a lot more new type Monday and now have new body type for all reading matter, as well as some new job and display type.

Work has been commenced on the new telephone line, the Farmers and Merchants Mutual. The poles, brackets and some other material has been received.

W. W. Liebhart Frank Titus, J. D. Drumm, Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, and Mrs. Geo. Yackly had chickens on exhibition at the Poultry show at Auburn this week.

Mrs. Mattie Suter and daughter, Miss Wilda, came down from Omaha last Saturday and are visiting their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark.

Mrs. Ethel Stone, who visited her uncle, F. L. Woodward, last week, started for Spokane, Wash., last Friday, where she will join her husband. They expect to make their home in that city.

Only Two More Days

to do your shopping before Christmas

DON'T FORGET

that while our line is not as large as at first, it is still well assorted

Be sure and see our line before buying

We wish our customers and all a Merry Christmas

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Kenneth Earle Sanders is the name of a very young gentleman that has taken up his abode with Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sanders. He arrived at 5:30 a. m. Tuesday, Dec. 18, 1906, and weighed nine pounds. Of course all concerned think he is about the only boy.

Dr. A. Matthews has decided to open a dental office in Lincoln or Omaha. The doctor is a good dentist and has been having a large practice throughout the country in smaller towns, stopping a few weeks at a time, but now prefers to locate permanently in some larger place.

Miss Minnie May returned home Monday after a week's visit with Shubert friends. She says the meetings conducted by Rev. J. W. Sapp are doing much good. There have been a number of additions to the church. The meetings are expected to close next Sunday night.

He Likes Wyoming

Perry Rowen certainly likes Wyoming, as a recent letter to his brother, Alf Rowen, says he has hired out to the man he has been working for until next fall. He is taking care of sheep and gets $40 per month and board, and as he is a long ways from any town he doesn't have much chance to spend it.

Some Good Corn

J. L. Curtwright brought in to the postoffice a stalk of corn which had grown three good sized ears of corn. It was raised on the farm of I. J. Jarvis. The man helping Mr. Curtwright did not notice that the stalk had three ears on it until he was breaking the last one off.

Christmas Exercises

Both Sunday schools will hold Christmas exercises next Monday night. At the Christian church a Christmas tree will be held. At the Methodist church there will be no tree but at the conclusion of the exercises the members of the Sunday school will be given a treat of candy, nuts and oranges.

Poultry Exhibitors

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen and Mrs. Geo. Yackly went to Auburn Wednesday to attend the Poultry show. Both have chickens on exhibition—Partridge Cochins. Elmer Allen went along to take care of the premiums if they should get any—and of course they expect to get all the premiums offered on the kind of chickens they show.

A Finely Decorated Store

Earle Gilbert has a finely decorated window. What takes the eye of the children is a fireplace and old Santa, with moving head and eyes. A small table set with diminutive dishes adds to the beauty of the window display, and at one end is a handsomely decorated Christmas tree hung full of presents. The store room is also beautifully decorated with bells, etc.

Our Popular Liveryman Hurt

One day last week M. W. Knapp was taking a traveling man to Peru, and when between Peru and Brownville one wheel struck a stump and the buggy pole was broken, throwing Mr. Knapp out over the dashboard. He was considerably hurt in the breast and side but worked around until the second day afterward, when he had to quit and hasn't been able to do much since.

Christmas Greeting

We trust all our patrons will enjoy a merry Christmas, not only by trying to get as much happiness as possible for themselves but by endeavoring to make others happy. We would get more true happiness out of life if we were less selfish, and tried harder to make others happy. Relieve the poor, minister to the sick and distressed, speak words of cheer and hope to those who are downcast and disheartened, and in every way try to make the world better and happier.

Scholars desiring to give presents to their Sunday school teachers can find just what they want at the postoffice bookstore.