

State High Society

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 31

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, DEC. 28, 1906

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

Our patrons will please accept our thanks for their very liberal patronage during the past season.

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

THIS MEANS YOU!

Those owing me book accounts will confer a favor by calling in soon and settling same by January 1st. Do not wait for further notice, but attend to this at once, and oblige,

MRS. THEO. HILL

W. W. Seid returned from Neck, Mo., Tuesday.

Prof. Gibney is spending the holidays at his home at Elkhorn, Nebr.

Buy your coal of Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co. Two carloads just in.

Our merchants all had a fine holiday trade—better than they expected.

Miss Marie Scott of Stella spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Zook.

Just received, two car loads of fine soft coal. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Miss Lulu Fankell of Stella was the guest of Miss Grace Peabody Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Sadie Scott came in from Pawnee county Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Brown.

All parties owing me are requested to call and settle their accounts before Jan 1, as I need the money. W. H. BARKER.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens of Johnson came in to Nemaha Saturday and visited with J. E. Crother and Chas. C. Clark and families until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts went to Kansas City Monday to spend Christmas with Clyde.

Mrs. J. C. Broady and her sister, Miss Ada McGraw, went to Lincoln Saturday to visit their parents.

Miss Rosa Munn, who has been visiting John I. Dressler's family, went back to Shenandoah, Iowa, Wednesday.

Miss Rosa Munn of Shenandoah, Ia, is visiting John I. Dressler and family. She arrived Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Clark went to Belvidere, Neb., Monday to spend Christmas with Mrs. Clark's parents.

Will Cochran, living near Auburn, gave this office a social call Wednesday in company with his friend, Ole Roberts.

Miss Maude Burns, teacher of the Boatman school, (and a good teacher too) is spending her two weeks' vacation at home.

Miss Lulu Cooper, who is teaching a successful school near Peru, is spending the holidays with her parents in Nemaha.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Glenn went to Table Rock Monday night to visit relatives. They expect to be away about a week.

Miss Jessie Smith, teacher of the Maple Grove school, went to her home at Dorchester, Neb., last Saturday, to spend the holidays.

We had a fine holiday trade, for which we wish to thank our patrons, but find we have a few boxes of

Fine Stationery

on hand, which we will close out at

REDUCED PRICES.

Also handsome bonbon boxes

Postoffice Bookstore

W. C. Fick of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Sunday to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fick.

Protracted meetings will begin at the Methodist church Sunday night. Evangelist Prescott of Lincoln will assist Rev. G. W. Ayers.

Ed L. Culver and family of Omaha are visiting Mrs. Culver's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling, this week. They came Monday.

Ira Corey, who has been visiting his cousin, Emery C. Howe, for nearly two weeks, returned to his home at Sutton, Nebr., last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kindig came in from Bruno, Nebr., Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Peabody.

Sunflower school—Dist. 35—taught by Miss Ada McGraw—gave a Christmas entertainment and tree last Friday night. A good time was enjoyed by all.

NOTICE

We wish to thank our customers and friends for their patronage during the past ten months, and hope to merit the continuance of their patronage during the coming year.

Wishing all a prosperous and happy New Year, I am,
Yours respectfully,

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Harry Hoover bought a fine piano for his wife a few days ago. He got it of the Auburn Music and Jewelry Co. Ben Parker made the sale.

Miss Matilda Vice came up from St. Deroin last Friday and visited her cousin, Miss Eliza Farson until the next day, when she went to Elk Creek to visit another cousin.

Ed Sanders of London precinct, who is attending the Peru normal school, visited his grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Sanders, and his uncles, W. W. and Carl E. Sanders, Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. W. Ritchey went out to see his brother-in-law, David Kite, living near Howe, last Sunday. Mr. Kite is very sick with stomach trouble and is not able to sit up any. His condition is dangerous.

Mrs. C. P. Barker started for Kansas last Friday to visit her sister, at Garnett, and a brother at Colony. They held a family reunion and Mrs. Barker had the pleasure of visiting a brother she had not seen for 22 years.

Champion Sunday school gave a public Christmas tree and entertainment Saturday night. The room was crowded, a large number of presents—some of them quite valuable—were received, and a general good time was had.

Estray Notice

Taken up at my home in Nemaha, Nebr., Monday, Dec. 24, 1906, two black shoats, weighing about 50 pounds apiece. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for advertising.
MRS. ELLEN HOWE.

John E. Crother got a bad fall Christmas Day. He stepped from the sidewalk to the platform of Earle Gilbert's scales, when his foot slipped on the frosty iron and he was thrown on the platform. As he fell he threw out his left hand and it was badly sprained. It has been swollen and quite painful since.

DRESSLER-CLARK

Frank E. Dressler and Miss Dora May Clark were united in marriage on Christmas day, at 6 o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, in Nemaha, Nebr. Rev. J. W. Sapp pronounced the ceremony that made them husband and wife.

Only the immediate relatives of the young people were present. After the ceremony and congratulations a fine supper was partaken of.

Few young people have as many friends in this community as have the bride and groom. Both were born and have always lived in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Dressler will be "at home" to their friends after Feb. 1, going to housekeeping on the Dressler farm, four miles southwest of Nemaha.

May they live long and happy lives together and be useful members of society.

Will and James Clark of Smith county, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Monday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark and attend the wedding of their sister. Jim has a good farm of 280 acres and follows mixed farming and stock raising. He is doing well. Will is also prospering finely. All the Nemaha county boys in Smith county and vicinity are prosperous.

Mrs. Wilber Whitten went to Fortesque, Mo., Monday, being called there by the sickness of her sister, Mrs. Hicks, and child, who have the measles. She expects to be gone about a week. In the meantime Wilbur is looking mighty lonesome and forsaken.

Ferry at St. Deroin

The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.

HENRY LEMON, Prop.

William H. Palmer of Howe and Miss Susie B. Burns of Shubert were married one day last week at Howe.

Merry Xmas and Happy New Year

STOVES

Here is a Bargain in Stoves

As we are overstocked on stoves, and to keep from carrying them over until next season, we will sell all

Heating Stoves at Cost for the next 30 Days

We carry at all times a complete stock of

Hardware, Furniture, Harness

Mr. Steuteville is going to leave about the first of January, so all parties having an account with us will please call before that date and look over their accounts.

Let us figure your lumber bills. We will treat you right.

EDWARDS & BRADFORD LUMBER CO.
GEO. HARTWIG, Mgr.