Curtis L. Brown and Miss Grace Mumford, who have been visiting at Summerfield, Kansas, returned home Wednesday morning.

Miss Grace Peabody—angel No 2—returned from Auburn last Saturday. The Advertiser and postoffice forces were especially glad to see her.

Mrs. Dr. Matthews writes that the doctor has his office now ready for business at 303 Neville block, Omaha. She is stopping at the Drexel hotel.

We have some post cards containing fine views of the court house, Hon. Church Howe's home at Auburn, and the Peru coal mine, at the postoffice bookstore.

Joe Bunger has bought what is known as the old Starry house, this side of Brownville, and will move it to Peru and transform it into a rooming house for students.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen went to Auburn Wednesday to attend the funeral of Joel Culwell, a cousin of Mr. Allen's. They returned home Thursday afternoon.

The Auburn Telephone Co. completed their line from Nemaha to Shubert Saturday night and the company has now made a rate of five cents between these two places.

Thunder Storm

There was considerable thunder and lightning last Friday night during the rain storm. This is something rather unusual here in winter time.

Mr. Glenn Harger and Miss Wavie Thorn, both of Aspinwall precinct, were married Wednesday, Jan. 23, 1907, at Auburn. We extend hearty congratulations to the young people.

Ferry at St. Deroin

The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.

HENRY LEMON, Prop.

John I. Dressler is building a wareroom fourteen feet square in the rear of the store room occupied by Jno. W. Ritchey. This will be some relief to the congestion of goods in the main room.

Rev. W. H. Prescott, the evangelist holding meetings at the Methodist church, went to Lincoln, Tuesday, going on the early morning freight, and returning to Nemaha on the freight Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Pryor, mother of Marshall and Walter Pryor, died at her home in Brownville Saturday evening and was buried Monday. She was an old citizen and highly respected by all her friends and acquaintances.

The weather had all the appearance of a coming blizzard or a bad storm Saturday afternoon. It turned colder, the wind blew from the northwest and some snow fell, but it quieted down without any storm after all.

SATURDAY SPECIAL IN RIBBONS

We have gathered up all the short lengths of Ribbons and are going to give you some Ribbon Values that you don't often see. There are a great variety of colors and lengths.

Mrs. M. H. Taylor of Shubert was in Nemaha a few hours Tuesday afternoon, coming in on the afternoon train from Auburn, where she had been visiting her brother-in-law, J. W. Taylor, and going home on the freight.

Mrs. Jesse Ellis, living near Brownville, underwent a severe surgical operation last week, at Auburn. The operation was successful and the patient is getting along nicely. She is a daughter of A. G. Warren of Nemaha.

Rev. J. W. Sapp closed the meeting at Brownville Saturday night. Although the attendance was good and considerable interest manifested, there was only one addition to the church. The meetings continued about three weeks.

G. N. Titus, Dan Maxwell, A. B. Paris, and a number of other farmers in that vicinity have been burning coal from the Peru mine this winter. The quality is good and gives satisfactory service. They pay $3.50 per ton at the mine.

Mrs. C. T. Minick and Masters Elliott and Hubert came in from Dewitt last Friday and visited Mrs. Minick's mother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Minick and Mrs. E. E. Allen, and other relatives in this vicinity until Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Hill, who were married at Lincoln Tuesday of last week, visited Mr. and Mrs. Elon E. Hill of Nemaha from Friday until Monday. The bride is a daughter of W. H. Hill, former deputy sheriff of this county, now living at Lincoln.

Still More Coal

According to correspondence from Brownville, Wm. Gillespie has developed a coal mine on his place, a mile and a half southeast of that place. It is stated the new mine has as equally flattering prospects as the Honey Creek mine had at its beginning.—Auburn Herald.

We have received from our friend T. A. Clark of St. Paul, Nebr., a postcard picture of the U. P. motor car—speed limit sixty miles per hour. Standing in the door in the front end of the car is Clarence M. Beard, son of John M. Beard, and nephew of Mrs. Ellen Howe.

J. W. Wolfe has bought another forty acres of good farm land, and now owns two hundred acres of fine land. Last week he completed the deal by which he becomes owner of forty acres of the Sperry farm, just across the road east of where Mr. Wolfe is living. He paid $3,000 for it.

Mrs. Knapp Gets a Bad Fall

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. M. W. Knapp got a fall from which she is still suffering. Mr. and Mrs. Knapp drove down to J. H. Seid's and visited a few hours. As they were leaving Mrs. Knapp stepped into the back end of the sleigh. The horse just then stepped forward and Mrs. Knapp was thrown backward on the frozen ground. She was considerably bruised and jarred and was confined to her bed for a day or two. It is hoped there were no permanent injuries sustained.

J. H. Vanderslice Sells Store

Tuesday night a deal was completed whereby J. H. Vanderslice sold his stock of general merchandise to Harrington & Sons of Crab Orchard. H. W. and R. E. Harrington, the two younger men of the firm, came in Tuesday afternoon and the trade was soon completed. It was affected through the agency of Frank Titus. R. E. Harrington will move to Nemaha and have charge of the stock. This firm has a large stock of general merchandise at Crab Orchard. They are rustlers, good business men, and will be a benefit to the community.

Mr. Vanderslice has not yet decided where he will go. He sells out on account of the health of himself and family, which has been poor for some time.

The Messrs. Harrington returned to Crab Orchard Wednesday. Mr. Vanderslice will be in charge of the store until next Monday.

FAREWELL

Having sold my stock of General Merchandise to Messrs. Harrington & Sons, I desire to return my sincere thanks to the people of Nemaha and vicinity for the patronage and kind treatment given me during the four years I have been in business here and to ask a continuance of the same to my successors.

All persons holding checks will please present at the store for redemption as soon as convenient.

Parties owing me will please call and settle at once.

Respectfully,

J. H. Vanderslice
