

Special Sale

OF

Caps, Sweaters, Underwear

While they last we will sell any of these articles at one-third off. That means a big saving to all who can find their sizes.

Highest market prices paid for produce

EARLE GILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Grip seems to be the prevailing disease now.

Candies and nuts at the post-office bookstore.

Horse blankets at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

Bicycle supplies at Keeling's. Bicycles repaired.

Earle Gilbert has a well developed case of grip.

For harness goods go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

1847 Rogers Bros. silverware for sale by W. F. Keeling.

There are numerous cases of grip in Nemaha and vicinity.

Mrs. O. F. Scovill returned to Hiawatha, Kansas, Monday.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.

Mrs. Sarah Roach returned to Nebraska City Thursday of last week.

Buy your coal of Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co. Two carloads just in.

We sell sewing machines, get our prices. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

White Lily washing machines run easy. For sale only by Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.

No town has a kinder hearted or more charitable class of people than Nemaha. They always respond to a call for aid.

Dr. Dillon came in from Auburn Sunday to see Willie Yates.

M. H. Taylor and Col. Joe Spickler of Shubert were Nemaha visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen went to Auburn Thursday to see Elmer's new neice.

J. W. Wolfe is sick with typhoid fever. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Just received, two car loads of fine soft coal. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kite, living near Bracken, on Saturday, Feb. 2, a nine pound boy.

We notice by the Granger that Charles Whitlow and Miss Mabel Bennett were married Sunday, at Auburn.

C. P. Barker carried the mail on rural route No. 1 Monday and Tuesday, as Carl E. Sanders had the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sherwood, who have been visiting in Iowa for several weeks, returned home Wednesday.

Leslie W. Woodward came up from Kansas City Thursday of last week and visited his parents until Saturday.

A series of gospel meetings will be held at the Christian church beginning Feb. 11 at 7:30 p. m., to which all are cordially invited.

Miss Nellie Pascoe of Fremont arrived in Nemaha Thursday of last week on a visit to her friend, Mrs. Emily McCandless.

Mrs. G. W. Ayers expects to start for Ulysses, Nebr., today to visit her parents for a week. Rev. Ayers will go Monday.

Dr. W. W. Keeling has been quite sick for several days with the grip, but is taking his own medicine and is getting better.

Frank Hawxby, who has been farming near Waco., Nebr., moved back to his father's farm, three miles west of Nemaha, this week.

Wm. Snelling visited friends in Missouri last week but says he didn't go to look up another location, as he is not thinking of moving.

Will S. Jay, the genial representative of the Lincoln News, was in Nemaha Tuesday and Wednesday in the interest of that paper.

On account of the quarterly meeting at Howe there will be no preaching service at the Methodist church at Nemaha next Sunday.

John T. Webber killed a hog a few days ago that weighed 700 pounds. Most of it was rendered up into lard, and it made a good many gallons.

Clarence Aynes writes that when they got to Mystic, S. D., the thermometes stood at 20 degrees below zero, with snow eighteen inches thick.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paris started for Woodruff, Kansas, Tuesday, to look for a new home. They find it pretty cold weather to be pushed out from home.

Duroc-Jersey Sows for Sale
I have for sale a few fine Duroc-Jersey sows, bred, for sale. Call and see them.
E. J. MAXWELL.

To those that have good dogs, keep them at home, for it is my intention to shoot all dogs prowling around my sheep.
G. F. RIDER.

We have some post cards containing fine views of the court house, Hon. Church Howe's home at Auburn, and the Peru coal mine, at the postoffice bookstore.

The sale by Will Hacker Monday was a success in spite of the cold weather. The stock, farm machinery, etc., brought good prices. The sale footed up almost $1,400.

Ned Maxwell, who is a legislative committee clerk, came down from Lincoln Friday, returning Monday. The legislature had been in session twenty days when he left.

Ferry at St. Deroix
The Missouri river is open at St. Deroix and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good asfe ferry.
HENRY LEMON, Prop.

We have certainly been having some winter weather this week. It snowed nearly all day Sunday and by spells Monday and Monday night. The thermometer dropped several degrees below zero.

Pre-Inventory Sale

Our large bills are out with prices we are making on all kinds of goods.

Read them carefully and see the bargains we are offering.

Our brands of Flour:

Golden Sheaf high patent

Nebraska City high patent

Nebraska City Leader, patent

Try a sack—nothing better

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

Mrs. J. S. Colerick received word last week, that her father, living at Council Bluffs, Iowa, was very sick. A letter received this week, written by her father, says he is much better.

J. F. Barker, a younger brother of C. P. and W. H. Barker of Nemaha, has been visiting them for a few days. He lives near Randolph, Nebr. He gave us a pleasant call and paid for the Advertiser a year.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert was making arrangements to go to Oklahoma, as her father has been very sick, but received word a few days ago that he was better and will not go now, as neither she, the children nor Earle are well.

The second quarterly meeting of the Nemaha and Howe circuit of the Methodist church will be held at Howe next Sunday. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. by Presiding Elder Wright Quarterly conference at 10:30 a. m. Monday.

Mrs. R. E. Harrington came in from Crab Orchard Monday to see how her husband was behaving himself. She has been assisting in the store of Harrington & Sons this week, and incidentally keeping an eye on Ralph.

The many friends of Miss Edna Lytle, now of Broken Arrow, Indian Territory, will regret that she has been confined to her bed since Nov. 24, from typhoid fever. She was getting better when she suffered a relapse and is not yet able to be up.

Thirty years ago this week, according to the Lincoln News, the farmers of Nemaha county were sowing their spring wheat. We haven't noticed any farmers even plowing this week—except to plow through the snow.

The ciphering match Friday night of last week between the Nemaha and Champion schools resulted in a victory for the Champion scholars. But the Nemaha contestants claim it wasn't fair, as Champion got help from Howe. "Just wait until the next time."

Jimmy Stephenson attended lodge at Falls City one night last week and since then has been about sick. He complains of headache and says his hair pulls—a very bad symptom for a man that has been away from home. But he won't tell what he had at the banquet, if they had one.

The condition of Willie Yates is not so favorable as his friends would like. He is growing weaker and is now helpless, so he has to be turned in bed. His suffering is severe. His parents feel very thankful for the kindness and help of friends who are assisting in taking care of him.

The following subscribers have been added to our list recently: H. Denny, F. E. Dressler, Dan Bennett, Wm. E. Wolfe, Wm. E. Smiley, J. S. Colerick, T. J. Rumbaugh, Frank Rider, S. C. Thorn and Harrington & Sons, all of Nemaha, and C. E. Barker of Randolph, Nebr., and Delbert Webb, at Mystic, S. D.

We Want Your Produce

We quote you the following prices for Produce, in trade:

Hens, 10c	Ducks, 7c
Springs, 9c	Geese, 6c
Stags, 7c	Hen Turkeys, 13c
Old Roosters 3c	Gobblers 10c
Eggs, 25c	Butter, 20c
Potatoes, good, 60c per bu.

HARRINGTON & SONS

Valentines

A fine assortment at the Postoffice Bookstore

from 1 cent up