Special prices for Poultry for Saturday and Monday.
Harrington & Sons.

Bring your butter, eggs, chickens and produce to Nemaha, where you can get the very highest market price.

The condition of Willie Yates is about the same as a week ago except that he is weaker. He suffers a great deal.

Col. Joe Harper, the South Auburn liveryman, was a welcome caller at these headquarters Thursday afternoon.

Brownville is to have a change in rural route carriers, W. M. Smith having resigned. Examination will be held at Auburn Saturday of next week.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward went to Kansas City Saturday to visit her two sons, Charley and Leslie. Mrs. Weisenreder, who has been visiting at Falls City, went with her.

We have some post cards containing fine views of the court house, Hon. Church Howe's home at Auburn, and the Peru coal mine, at the postoffice bookstore.

Ed Knapp was presented with some fresh pork last Friday by Mrs. M. A. Lewis and with some more on Monday by Mrs. John C. Boyd. It's a fine thing to be a rural carrier.

The new Presbyterian church at Auburn is almost completed, and the dedication services will be held on Sunday, March 10. It is certainly a fine church, costing about $20,000.

The Nemaha items in the Auburn Republican says "probation" meetings are being held at the Christian church. We didn't know the Christian church believed in probation.

P. G. and W. M. Swan bought an old house at Brownville recently, which they tore down and will ship out to Dundy county to be used in building houses on their homesteads.

For the benefit of the doubters we again tell of the new passenger train, and this time give the date when it will make its first regular trip, which will be on Monday, March 4, 1907.

R. M. Gillan, secretary of the Southeastern Nebraska Building and Loan Association of Auburn, came down from Nebraska City on the freight Tuesday evening, going on to Auburn the next forenoon.

J. D. Drumm had some letter heads, envelopes and cards printed at this office this week. Mr. Drumm is a market gardener, making a specialty of seed potatoes. He also raises fine White Plymouth Rock chickens.

Mrs. Stephen Colerick, who went to Council Bluffs Wednesday of last week to see her father, who is very sick, returned home Wednesday evening. Her father is no better but Mrs. Colerick's health is poor and she had to return.

A number of Masons from Nemaha attended the funeral services of J. W. Taylor at the Prairie Union cemetery last Friday. The services at the grave were in charge of Hope lodge No. 29, of Nemaha, of which the deceased was a member.

A. L. Barber, who has for a number of years been the manager of the Edwards & Bradford lumber yard and hardware store at Brownville, has accepted a more lucrative position at Duluth, Minn., with another lumber company.

Chas. Blake, son-in-law of John C. Boyd, met with an accident Friday that left him with a game leg. He was helping catch a hog when the hog ran against him and threw him, hurting one leg and probably breaking a small bone near the ankle.

We have received the program of a play entitled "Gail," which was given at Guthrie, Oklahoma, Feb. 12. Dr. Elizabeth Melvin, daughter of Dr. J. L. Melvin, and who has a host of friends in Nemaha and vicinity, is the author of the play. Miss May Melvin was in the cast.

We are glad to learn that our friend J. W. Wolfe, who has been very sick with typhoid fever, is much better. He now has a good appetite, and the main trouble now is to keep him from exerting himself too much. A trained nurse has been taking care of him for some time.

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. C. W. Fick gave them a pleasant surprise Wednesday. About twenty-five gathered at their home. The surprise was complete, as neither of them had any suspicion of the gathering. Mrs. and Mrs. Fick expect to move to Liberty in a short time.

The protracted meeting at the Christian church is accomplishing much good. Up to the time of going to press on Thursday thirteen have expressed a desire to lead a new life. Five were baptized Monday night. Others will be baptized this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the church. The church is well filled every night.

We do not know just how the believers in signs reconcile things this year. According to the groundhog we are to have an early spring. We suppose if spring comes late they will say "I told you so, the groundhog always hits it." If there is an early spring they will claim that an early Easter always means an early spring.

Miss Edna Lytle, after a long illness with typhoid fever at her home near Broken Arrow, I. T., has been able to be up the past two weeks. She was teaching at a nearby town, Fry, when taken sick, and her sister Madge has been teaching in her place. Miss Blanche Lytle is teacher of the third grade in Broken Arrow.—Stella Press.

W. M. Swan, wife and children went to Corning, Mo., Thursday evening to visit relatives. They first drove to St. Deroin, expecting to cross the river there, but the ice was running so thick that the boat could not cross, so they drove back in time to catch the afternoon passenger train, but would not have made it if the train had not been late.

J. C. Pageler, the good looking representative of the Bell Telephone Co., says we never mention him in The Advertiser, so we will say that he was in Nemaha last week and went away Saturday. There seems to be a strong attraction in Nemaha for Mr. Pageler, and he never neglects looking after the interests of the company when it calls him here. He returned here Tuesday.

H. J. F. Wert of Auburn was in Nemaha Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon, coming down to score some chickens for some of our chicken cranks. He scored Plymouth Rocks for W. W. Liebhart, Buff Cochins for C. F. Zook and Rhode Island Reds for Frank Titus. All scored well and Hank says all have good birds. He is coming down again soon to do some more work in that line.

Grandpa Lester came down from Brownville last Saturday, Wednesday. While he was here he sang a solo—one of the old-time hymns—at each service at the revival meetings being held at the Christian church. He was 84 years old Wednesday but his voice is still quite clear and strong. His songs were helpful, and pastor and people regret that he could not stay with us longer.

Elmer E. Allen has caught the chicken craze. For some time his wife has been raising thoroughbred Partridge Cochins. Elmer concluded he would get a different breed and see which was the best, so he recently ordered a trio of Golden Wyandottes from a breeder in Mound City, Mo., paying $10 for them. They arrived Tuesday. Now Elmer is right at the front when chicken talk is going on.

E. E. Moore attended two big Duroc Jersey hog sales at Lincoln last week. The first one was held on Tuesday by John Morrison, who formerly lived just west of Brownville. His hogs brought an average price of $233. The other one by Kirkpatrick and Wilson, a combined sale, was held Wednesday. The average price of this sale was $112. Ed bought a gilt at the last sale, paying $55 for her. One hog sold by Mr. Morrison brought $1025. Mr. Wilson was urged to put up a male hog, and was told by one man he would start the bid at $1,000 for a half interest, but he refused to part with him.

A fine half section of irrigated land near the sugar factory at Julesburg at $25 per acre.

Fine farms in the Prairie Dog Valley, no crop failures now. Alfalfa is King. Go and see.

A Runaway

Harvey Smith had a team run away Thursday of last week, while returning from Auburn with his wife and little child. He had been to Auburn and was returning. A pile of stone along the new macademized road this side of Auburn frightened the horses and they started to run. The buggy was upset, throwing Harve out on one side and his wife and child on the other. The buggy pole was broken. Harve held on to the lines and after being dragged a short distance stopped the horses. No one was hurt aside from the jar, and the only damage done was the broken buggy pole.

Program for Y. P. S. C. E. Sunday evening, Feb. 24.

Isa 42 10-13—Alice Peabody.
What is the real origin of Missions—Nora Aynes.

What has been the result of the primitive worship upon men—Belle Barker.

Show clearly the one contrast between Christianity and all other religions. They all emphasize vengeance, while Christianity emphasizes mercy—Bro. Sapp.

J. I. DRESSLER, Leader.

To stop a cold with "Preventics" is safer than to let it run and cure it afterwards. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will head off all colds and Gripp, and perhaps save you from Pneumonia or Bronchitis. Preventics are little toothsome candy cold cure tablets selling in 5 cent and 25 cent boxes. If you are chilly, if you begin to sneeze, try Preventics. They will surely check the cold, and please you. Sold by all dealers.

Lax-ets is a Candy Novel Laxative.

Carl Glenn is now helping his brother, C. V. Glenn, the agent, and learning the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harper came in from Auburn on the afternoon passenger train Thursday, going to Shubert on the freight.

It is expected that the meetings at the Christian church will continue all of next week at least. Services will be held next Sunday, morning and evening.

Miss Daisy Clark went to Auburn Thursday to have her eyes treated. They have been very weak since she had the measles and she has been unable to attend school on this account.

It now appears that the railroad fare will be reduced to 2 cents a mile. Probably this is done for the especial benefit of the editors, to enable them to go to the next town occasionally.

Wm. E. Smiley has bought the residence property of W. G. Maxwell, where the latter is living, in northeast Nemaha. We understand Mr. Smiley will move in when Mr. Maxwell moves on the farm.

Croup can positively be stopped in 2 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet pleasant and safe syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by all dr. crs.
