Wm. E. Smiley has been transferred to Falls City by the Burlington, to care for the engine on the new train which goes on next Monday, and will leave for that place Monday.

Albinas Kelso, who lived in Nemaha when a boy, seventeen years ago, has been helping Mr. Robinson of Peru plaster the house of C. W. Roberts this week. Albinas now lives at Peru.

THAT NEW TRAIN GOES ON.

Makes First Trip Next Monday.

As the Advertiser foretold last week, the new passenger train from Falls City to Lincoln goes on next week. It comes from Falls City in the morning, due at Nemaha at 6:40, and returning is due here at 7:05 p. m. We understand the same crew that has been running the freight from Nebraska City to Falls City will be in charge of the new passenger train. The new time card has been issued. We understand the train will arrive at Lincoln about 11 o'clock, leaving at 2, giving about three hours at the capital city.

Later—Agent Glenn is authority for the statement that the train has been annulled for Monday, and will make its first trip on Tuesday, March 5th. The numbers of the trains will be 127 and 128.

R. M. Brooks, father of Mrs. Earle Gilbert, died at his home at Maramec, Oklahoma, Monday morning, after long and severe suffering from heart disease. The body was brought to Douglas, Nebr., and buried there Thursday.

J. W. Shiveley arrived in Nemaha Thursday morning from Odessa, Mo., with his car of household goods and farming implements, which he is moving to the farm he recently purchased from E. L. Paris. His family will remain in Missouri for a short time.

The Shubert Citizen said that with the passage of the two cent a mile railroad bill the hopes of the new passenger train went glimmering. But it goes on just the same, though it will be a mixed train for Shubert, and will run so early in the morning that few of the Shubertites will be awake to see it. Come up and spend the day with us, Bro. Dalby.

There has been some great deals made in horses recently. Wednesday Elmer E. Rumbaugh traded a churn valued at $1.50 to Will Swan for a horse, and the same day traded the horse to Niel Piersol for another horse. Elmer and Neil both claim they made $20 by the trade and Will Swan says he feels he is considerably ahead above the value of the churn.

When the Advertiser told that the new passenger train would be started March 4 there was a very general doubt expressed. Even the railroad men did not believe it. Tuesday morning of this week several of them said they had no idea it would be put on any ways soon. Some of our citizens said they would have to see it before they would believe. But they will be "showed" Monday.

Kathryn Millicent Crother, aged 2 years, said to her mama, "I want to talk over the telephone to Ethel Maxwell." Her mama said, "You may if you wish." She climbed up into her high chair and rang central up. He said, "hello," she said, "hello, I want Ethel Maxwell." Central answered her call. Will Maxwell came to the phone, said "hello, who is this?" She said "Kathryn Crother, I want Ethel." Will said "Won't Annie do." "Yes," she said. Annie said "What do you want, Kathryn?" She said "I want Ethel to sing 'Bless me Lord and make me a blessing today,'" a song this little two year old wanted to learn. Her little calls were answered all around as Ethel came down that night and sang the song for her.

On Wednesday a farewell surprise dinner was given Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Maxwell and family, who leave in a few days for Jewell county, Kansas. A large number of friends gathered with baskets loaded with good things to eat, and proceeded to take possession of the house.

We notice that the doctor, editor and preacher are invited to these gatherings. Those getting them up want to be prepared for all emergencies.

One of those pleasant surprise gatherings which make the recipients feel that all the world is full of friends and that they haven't an enemy on earth, occurred last Saturday. Some of the neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paris decided to give them a call before they started for their new home in western Kansas. Afterward a change was made and a dinner was arranged as a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Hacker and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. M. Swan. About seventy-five friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paris. It was a total surprise to them, as they did not suspect anything until the people began coming.

The occasion was one of the most pleasant we have ever attended, and at the same time a feeling of sadness pervaded the gathering at the thought that these good people were so soon to leave us. May their brightest hopes be realized in the new homes to which they go.
