

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 42

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1907

W. W. SANDERS, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in advance

Ladies' Skirts

New Spring Styles are being shown at

The New Store

Prices from $2 up

Also Muslin Underwear cheaper than you can afford to make

EARLE CILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

PHONE 29

Muddy roads.
Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.
Candies and nuts at the post-office bookstore.
The annual spring moving is about over with.
C. H. Kindig went to Nebraska City Wednesday.
Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.
The rural carriers are certainly earning their money.
Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.
Richard Knapp went over to Stella Friday to visit relatives.
Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So. Auburn.
Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.
C. E. Waddle has moved on the Jim Linn farm, where Albert Sampson has been living.

The roads are in very bad condition now.
For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Wm. Culp of Shubert was in Nemaha Saturday. He thinks of moving here.
Rev. G. W. Ayers expects to begin a protracted meeting at Howe Sunday night.
Mrs. M. H. Taylor and Mrs. Dr. Shook of Shubert visited Nemaha friends Tuesday.
Dan Bennett has moved in the Stillwell house, where Charley Scovill has been living.
Rev. E. D. Gideon of Brock will preach at the Methodist church Sunday evening, March 24.
Curt Brown went to Long Island, Kansas, the first of the week, going through with E. L. Paris.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright of Filley, Nebr., returned home Monday after a few days' visit with their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Hill.

Miss Marie Reed went to Shenandoah, Iowa, Tuesday to help take care of sick relatives.

Paul W. Karr of Fulton, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Wednesday afternoon on a visit to friends.

S. C. Shuck of Red Cloud, Nebr., visited Nemaha friends Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday.

V. D. (Doc) Lawrence has moved on the Nace farm, where A. B. Paris has lived for several years.

Geo. Seid started for Scotts' Bluff, Nebr., Thursday morning, to visit John W. Knight and family.

Ralph Ritchey went to Auburn Tuesday to have some dental work done, returning the next afternoon.

Miss Maud Miller came down from Nebraska City Saturday and visited Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh until Monday.

Jesse Scott, who has been spending his month's furlough at home, returned to Leavenworth, Kansas, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sherwood went to Shubert Tuesday evening to visit friends. From there they go to Stella and Verdon.

Holton Colerick and Sam Gillespie started for Alliance, Neb., Thursday. They expect to go to work for the Burlington road.

We now have a complete line of white Queensware. Come and see.

Harrington & Sons

To those that have good dogs, keep them at home, for it is my intention to shoot all dogs prowling around my sheep.

G. F. RIDER.

See the beautiful white enamel ware in our windows. Positively no more to be had at the same price, when this is sold. Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Mrs. E. L. Paris and children took the south bound "flyer" Wednesday evening for their new home near Long Island, Kansas. The family will be greatly missed here.

Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh and Mrs. H. Denny, who have been at Runnells, Iowa, helping care for a sick sister, returned home Wednesday. They left their sister a little better.

Shubert continues to draw business men from Nemaha. They have taken away H. E. Williams, M. H. Taylor, Joe Harper, and M. T. Hill, and now Wm. Snelling is going.

Eureka Seed Potatoes and White Plymouth Rock Cockrells for sale reasonable, as I will move soon and wish to sell before moving.

W. W. LIEBHART.

A. B. Paris and E. L. Paris started with their cars for their new homes Monday evening. Art goes to Atwood, Colorado, where he will raise sugar beets. Ed goes to Long Island, Kansas, where he will raise alfalfa, corn, hogs, cattle, etc. May success crown their efforts.

Paying the Right Prices

Means that you secure a greater quantity of goods—means better results for you. Buying at this store insures you a selection of what is best known—items that are most used. The reasonable prices enable you to secure better results—those ahead of the ordinary. That is why the careful buyer should always come here first—to take advantage of such conditions.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Phone 20

NEMAHA, NEBR.

A car load of Missouri mules were recently sold in St. Louis for a little more than $300 each average for the entire lot. They were taken to Pittsburg.

Miss Geneva West of Brownville came down to Nemaha Saturday evening, returning Sunday afternoon. She was the guest of Miss Mae Kerker.

For Sale or Trade

Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece, both blacks, coming 8 years old.

JOHN T. WEBBER.

Prayer meeting will be held at the Christian church every Friday evening. Everyone invited to attend and help study the subject that will be announced each week.

Miss Eunice Lindsey, who has been visiting her grandmother and uncles here for several months, started for her home at Guyandotte, West Virginia, Monday evening.

A county Sunday school convention will be held at Peru Saturday evening and Sunday, March 23 and 24. The program prepared is full of interest to Sunday school workers.

C. H. Kindig returned to Nemaha Monday evening. Mr. Kindig has been suffering from a lame back for some time but is about over it now. He was laid up for several days.

Mrs. A. B. Harrington and Mrs. H. W. Harrington of Crab Orchard, mother and sister-in-law of Ralph E. Harrington, are visiting in Nemaha. They came in Wednesday afternoon.

Mid-week prayer meeting at the Christian church. Subject: "The Study of Moses." Ex 3 4-14; Duet 31 1-13; Matt 17 1-5.

Leader, BELLE BARKER.

The heaviest snow storm of the season came last Saturday. The snow fell a good part of the day and late at night. Probably six or seven inches fell. It was very wet and clung to trees, poles, telephone wires, bushes, etc. By Monday evening, however, it was about all gone.

F. L. Woodward advertised a cow last week and sold her promptly for $10 more than he had previously asked for her. Again we would remark that it pays to advertise.

Ferry at St. Deroin

The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.

HENRY LEMON, Prop.

Ed Knapp carries the mail on horseback some of the time, as it is almost impossible for him to make the trip with buggy or mail wagon. But he never fails to get over the route in some way.

C. W. Boberts went to Peru a few days ago and bought a fine Chester White hog of Frank Majors. Mr. Boberts has been raising thoroughbred hogs of this breed for several years and has some fine ones.

Miss Pearle Roberts, who has been in Kansas City for several weeks in a wholesale millinery establishment, went to Blue Rapids, Kansas, last Saturday, where she has a position as trimmer in a millinery store.

Wm. Snelling has decided to leave Nemaha and go to Shubert—not that he has anything against Nemaha or the trade he has been getting, so he says, but because he can't get a good store building here. He has rented a building in Shubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lukens and C. M. Woodward came up from Kansas City last Saturday. Charley returned Monday. Mr. Mrs. Lukens will remain for some time probably. Mr. Lukens is in very poor health and it is hoped the change will be beneficial. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodward.

A few days ago Archie Rowen broke a lamp chimney that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alf Rowen, had used for almost twelve years. Nellie got a lamp the day she was ten years, May 25, 1895, and has used the lamp and chimney ever since. It is not probable she will use another lamp chimney that long.

Produce

We offer you for produce

SATURDAY and MONDAY

Hens, 10c
Young Roosters, 6½c
Old Roosters, 2½c
Eggs, 15c
Butter, 21c

Ducks, 9c
Geese, 6c
Turkeys, Hens, 10c
Gobblers, 9c

The above prices are in trade for anything in General Merchandise.

Yours truly,

Harrington & Sons