MRS. THEO. HILL

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn came down from Peru Wednesday evening.

P. G. Swan shipped his household goods, farm implements, stock, etc., Wednesday morning, and that evening with his wife and daughter, Miss Anna, started for their new home near Haigler, Nebr. Mr. Swan paid for The Advertiser for a year, as he wants to hear each week from Nemaha. We trust he will prosper in his new home.

County Commissioner Cummings of Howe gave us a pleasant call Wednesday afternoon. He has been looking after bridges in this section. Mr. Cummings says the farmers around Nemaha for several miles keep the roads in better condition by the use of the drag than any other part of the country. But we have the best class of farmers, so we are not surprised at his praise.

The superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school asked the children and members of the Sunday school to bring in eggs on Easter Sunday, as the Methodist hospital had sent in a request that they send a case of eggs. Sunday morning one case was soon filled and enough more brought in to fill a second case lacking eleven eggs, and two dozen more were brought in Monday morning. The superintendent shipped the two cases that afternoon. One empty case had been sent by the hospital and J. W. Ritchey donated the other case. The same morning the Sunday school voted to pay $5 more to the parsonage. They pay as they go, and had this much surplus. They gave $5 to the parsonage fund last fall.

Rev. G. W. Ayers closed his meeting at Howe Sunday night. There were several additions to the church and much good was accomplished.

Married—Wednesday evening, April 3, 1907, by W. W. Sanders, justice of the peace, at his home in Nemaha, Mr. Charles W. Teten and Miss Lena J. Davis. The young couple live in the western part of Nemaha precinct, working for Joe Umland.

May the wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. Teten be a happy and prosperous one.

This was the first marriage ceremony performed by Squire Sanders, although he has been a justice of the peace for over three years.
