

Nebraska Advertiser.

VOL. LI NO. 46

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1907

W. F. KEELING, Publisher
Subscription, $1 a year in ad

At the New Store

May be seen the very newest styles in Collars, Belts, Handbags, Gloves, Parasols, Laces, Embroideries, Trimmings, and the thousand and one dainty accessories dear to the feminine heart. Also a fine line of Shoes—new styles in Patent Leather, Oxfords and High Cuts.

EARLE GILBERT
NEMAHA, NEBRASKA BOTH PHONES

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Franklin ice cream at Houtz's.
Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.
Elmer E. Allen visited Auburn Tuesday.
Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.
For harness go to Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.
Post card views of Nemaha at postoffice bookstore.
Mrs. Earle Gilbert visited Auburn friends Tuesday.
The majority of the fruit men say fruit is all right yet.
We will certainly appreciate some warm weather now.
For Sale—A good work mule. Inquire of Chas. Richards.
Insurance, old line or mutual, written by W. W. Sanders.
Get our prices on furniture. Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.
If you want to buy Nemaha property, see W. W. Sanders.
Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.
Mrs. J. B. Stiers went to Auburn last Saturday to visit friends.
Best line of harness in Nemaha county at Edwards & Bradford Lbr Co.
The frequent frosts and occasional freezes are bad on early gardens.
Dort Stokes drove over from Howe Tuesday to visit with Nemaha friends.
Ice cream soda, sundae, lemonade, phosphate, cider, pop and milkshake at Houtz's.
Mrs. Claude Scott and Miss Marie Scott returned to Stella Saturday after several days' visit in Nemaha.
Potatoes for Sale
Eureka and Early Ohio. Good ones. F. L. WOODWARD.

Only $2.80 for The Advertiser and the Lincoln Daily News both one year. See big ad.
We had a good rain Saturday. It was needed, especially by the small grain and pastures.
Our ice cream sodas are delicious. Try them. O. E. HOUTZ.
We had another freeze Monday night. Ice formed on standing water as thick as window glass.
Miss Stoner, preceptress of the Normal dormitory at Peru, visited Nemaha friends last Friday.
Dr. W. W. Frazier reports the birth of a big boy Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Wade Scott.
Mrs. E. A. Minick went to Auburn last Saturday to visit her son, Oscar L. Minick, for a week or two.
Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover, who has been in New York City for several months, returned to Nemaha Wednesday.
Mrs. D. T. Smiley went to Falls City Saturday evening and visited her son, Wm. E. Smiley, returning Monday morning.
Geo. Clendenin of Nebraska City was in Nemaha Wednesday looking after the interests of the Nebraska Telephone Co.
Mrs. F. E. Hill and Miss Cora Hill of Shubert, mother and sister of E. E. Hill, visited the latter Saturday, returning to Shubert on the evening train.
Early Ohio seed potatoes for sale—northern grown—South Dakota. 75 cents per bushel. J. A. ANDERSON. Brownville, Nebr.
Special Offer
To any subscriber of The Advertiser who wishes to send a copy or copies to friends, we will make a special price of only 75 cents per year for additional copies. Take advantage of this offer and send The Advertiser to friends.

Mrs. Rufus Rowen and Mrs. Alf Rowen went to Auburn last Saturday and visited relatives until Monday afternoon.
J. F. Ebnother has been sick with strong symptoms of appendicitis, but is able to be out again though not fully recovered.
Geo. Rhineshardt has joined the crippled brigade. He has a game leg on account of cutting a gash in his shin a few days ago.
Dr. W. W. Frazier went to Franklin, Nebr., Tuesday, to visit his friend, Dr. H. C. Smith, and assist in some surgical operations.
Miss Ruth Baker of Brownville came down to Nemaha Tuesday evening, returning the next day. She was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Frazier.
Fuller Burns went to Syracuse Saturday on the early train to visit his daughter, Mrs. Frank Burgess. He returned Monday evening.

The sale of the late S. T. Argabright's household goods was postponed last Saturday on account of the rain, and will be held Saturday of this week.
For Sale or Trade
Two mares weighing about 1000 pounds apiece, both blacks, coming 8 years old. JOHN T. WEBBER.
Mrs. Neal of Peru visited her daughter, Miss Lillian D. Neal, last Friday. Miss Neal went home with her mother in the afternoon, returning the next day.

If you are warm or thirsty, drop in to O. E. Houtz's Restaurant and get cool.
ICE CREAM SODAS
and soft drinks are now ready.

Mrs. J. I. Dressler went to Auburn last Friday and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Anderson, until Sunday, when Mr. Dressler drove out and brought her home.
W. S. Argabright had a collision with a hog a few days ago and says if the hog feels as bad over the accident as he does it won't be ready for another scrap for some time.
Uncle Billy Rossell's faithful horse died Tuesday, and now he has to borrow a horse, or go on foot. But he will probably get another one, as he is never long without a horse.
Rev. G. W. Ayers has been doing some good work this week in cleaning up the yard to the Methodist church and parsonage, trimming up the trees, burning brush and rubbish, etc.

The editor is now ready to perform all marriage ceremonies with neatness and dispatch. A year's subscription to this great family journal will be given to every couple married by the editor. Who will be the first?

Spring

We have on hand now a complete line of goods for spring buying.
We have the latest patterns in spring dress goods.
Come in and let us show you our line, and be convinced that we can give you better values than are to be found elsewhere.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones NEMAHA, NEB.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY

You are cordially invited to call and inspect our new styles

MRS. THEO. HILL

Ralph E. Harrington appears to have turned the store over to J. H. Vanderslice and Will Cummings, as he hasn't been here for nearly three weeks. He is at his old home at Crab Orchard.
Miss Inez Dillon of Peru and Miss Elizabeth Hilt of Nemaha county, Kansas, were guests of Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn from Saturday evening until Monday morning. Both young ladies are attending the Peru Normal.
Mrs. Chas. Duerfeldt, of Nemaha, presented her niece, Mrs. Roy Rogers, and nephew, Chas. Duerfeldt, each with one of Lord's family surreys, the other day. Certainly this is a present that any one would appreciate.—Shubert Citizen.
Miss Nellie Dorsey of Marquette, Nebr., and Misses Rose and Marguerite Dunlap, of Ulysses, Nebr., were guests of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ayers from Friday evening until Monday morning. They are attending the normal school at Peru.
Misses Myra and Nellie Davison of Stella and Telva Dressler of Howe drove over from Howe Sunday afternoon and visited their cousins, Misses Alice and Grace Peabody, until the next morning, when they went to Peru where they are attending school.
The Farmers and Merchants telephone lines were badly mixed up for a few days, but are all right again. John Bauman, the lineman, was changing the wires to higher poles and the high winds that prevailed tangled the wires up in great shape while this work was going on.

Two weeks ago we mentioned that Lester Peabody had found a $5 bill in a pocketbook he had lost last fall in the corn field, and that Elmer E. Allen had sent the dilapidated bill to the U. S. treasury at Washington for redemption. A few days ago Mr. Allen received a new $5 bill in place of the old one sent in.
At a meeting of the trustees and building committee of the Methodist church and parsonage Monday afternoon reports were given showing that there was an indebtedness on the parsonage unprovided for of about $75, and that it will take about $25 to finish painting and buy screens. It is hoped this will be met soon, and the help of all is asked.

Sherwin-Williams
Paint
Fleck's Stock Food
Little Chick Feed
Cracked Corn
Bran & Shorts
Wall Paper
W. F. Keeling