

Another fine rain Thursday morning.

The Thaw trial is about over for which let us all give thanks.

We will have no more political conventions. What will the poor politicians do?

W. H. Lukens of Jasper, Mo., is visiting his brother, C. F. Lukens. He came Wednesday afternoon.

Earle Gilbert now has the agency for the Valley Lilly flour. Fastidious cooks pronounce it the best made.

Do not allow your live stock to run loose in town or lariat them on the streets. It is against the laws of the town.

Geo. E. Codington, manager of the Auburn Telephone Co., was in Nemaha Wednesday night and Thursday morning.

A. F. Walsh of McCook, Neb., is visiting Nemaha friends, coming in Wednesday afternoon. He is the guest of F. L. Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vansickle of Craig, Mo., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday evening on a visit to Mr. Vansickle's sister, Mrs. Wm. Snelling.

Mrs. I. N. Cooper, who has been at Kansas City, Mo. for five weeks, being treated for a cancer on her face, returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Send your friends a postcard view of the Nemaha park, the Methodist church and parsonage, or the street scene. On sale at the postoffice bookstore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sherwood started for Oregon Thursday forenoon. They will be greatly missed, especially by their daughters, Mrs. O. E. Houtz and Miss Ethel Sherwood.

Rev. J. W. Sapp came up from Shubert Tuesday to make garden, returning Wednesday evening feeling stiff and sore but well pleased with the thoughts of the good garden he would have when he moved up here.

Reports from Auburn say Judge Stull, who was operated upon in an Omaha hospital three weeks ago, for gall stones, it is expected will be well enough to come home the last of this week. He is fast recovering from the results of the operation.

Carl Glenn, who has been helping his brother, C. V. Glenn, Burlington agent at this place, for a few weeks, is now at Sterling, Nebr., as helper. He went to Table Rock Saturday night to visit his parents, and from there went to Sterling and began work Monday.

The Lincoln daily News—the 2 o'clock edition—now gets to Nemaha the same day it is printed, on the evening passenger. This gives the very latest news for our local readers. We can send it and The Advertiser both one year for only $2.80 if subscription is handed in at once.

Frank Woodward was actually working Monday afternoon. He had his white mules hitched to a drag and was driving them up and down the streets, cracking his whip over their backs and acting like an old timer at the business. Frank Titus got a kodak picture of the scene, which he will have enlarged and present to the city to be hanged in the city hall. Elmer Allen tried to get one but Frank was too busy to stop.

Nemaha real estate for sale by W. W. Sanders.

The cold weather still continues. It freezes some every night.

Dr. W. W. Frazier returned from Franklin, Nebr. Thursday afternoon.

One of the bills passed by the late legislature provides that all poll tax shall be paid in cash, and reduces the same from $3 to $2.50. Cities, towns and villages are permitted to vote a special tax to be used in making good roads outside of the incorporation. There are many good features in the law.

We understand some of our strong republican friends have criticised us because we commended the good work done by Representative Quackenbush. We believe in republican principles but not strongly enough to make us refrain from giving credit to those of the opposite party who do good work.

John M. Livingston of Nebraska City was in Nemaha Tuesday and drove down to St. Deroin, where he bought E. H. Laukemper's farm and also bargained for Steve Chance's farm. He will be down again in a few days when he will probably buy more of the bluff land. He wants to buy a lot of that kind of land.

Nemaha Post Cards

We have some post card views of "A Winter Scene in Nemaha," the park immediately after a snow storm, the Methodist church and parsonage, and a view of part of the business street of Nemaha, on sale at the postoffice bookstore. Call and see them. They are good.

The editor has been a cripple much of the time for the past week, hardly able to get around even with the aid of a good cane. It is a nerve trouble, something of the nature of paralysis, that affects the back especially. The good feature of it is that there is no pain connected with the lameness, and then he gets out of work.

Representative Armstrong of Auburn was one of the effective workers in the late session of the legislature, and voted right every time so far as we have any knowledge. He was in favor of redeeming every pledge made in the republican party platform last year, and was one of the leaders in the house in that direction.

Evening services at the Methodist church now begin at eight o'clock.

C. W. Roberts has bought of Dr. C. F. Stewart of Auburn the lot on which the jail stands. This lot joins the property of Mr. Roberts on the north, and he wanted it for a garden spot. The jail will have to be moved, but as we have no saloons and are a peaceable law abiding community, we have little use for a jail anyway.

A Plate Shower

Miss Nora Aynes was given a surprise party and a plate shower Tuesday night, that being her 21st birthday anniversary. About twenty of her friends were present and our reporter says they had a delightful time. Miss Nora received a goodly number of handsome plates that will be a pleasant reminder of the happy occasion.

Stella will pay the principal of the schools $90 per month next year and $100 per month the year after, having contracted with the present principal for the next two years. They will pay the assistant principal $55 per month next year. Nemaha has been paying only $50 per month for principal. We will have to pay more or have poor teachers unless we continue to be extremely fortunate. At the present prices our principal gets about the same as a good farm hand.

The "flyer" was over an hour late Wednesday evening, caused by an accident at Lancaster (the penitentiary.) The train struck a team driven by a woman, killing the horses, breaking up the wagon and injuring the woman. The train was stopped, the woman, who was unconscious, was taken on, and the train ran back to Lincoln, where the woman was placed in a hospital. She is badly bruised but Conductor Carson said it was thought her injuries were not serious, being only badly bruised.

When I. N. Cooper went to Kansas City he wore a full beard and moustache. When he returned last week he was smooth shaven, and many of his intimate friends did not know him. On his way here he stopped at the home of his brother-in-law, Hiram Slagle, at Auburn, and neither he nor his wife recognized Mr. Cooper until he had talked with them quite a little while. The next morning after he returned he stopped at A. G. Warren's, one of his nearest neighbors, and asked Mrs. Warren if she could tell him where Steve Colerick lived. Mrs. Warren commenced directing him when her husband came up, and he told where Mr. Colerick lived and just how to go to get there. Neither of them recognized their neighbor. Finally Mr. Cooper thanked them for their kindness and asked Mr. Warren his name. He was told and then said: "My name is Cooper," and not until then did they know him.

One Dollar Cheaper

The cut price is good only during this Bargain Week, and all you have to do is to mail your $2 to The Daily News, Lincoln, Nebr., during that time, and you will receive the paper until May 1, 1908.

The News does not receive any free railroad tickets, and has cut off several traveling solicitors. The Lincoln News keeps in the midst of the fight and wants every man who believes in a square deal on its list.

It's the liveliest, snappiest newspaper proposition in Nebraska and if you become a subscriber at this cheap rate, you will stay with it for a long time to come.
