

The last day of school.
Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Cane seed for sale by W. F. Keeling.
T. J. Rumbaugh has repainted his house.
Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.
The hand organ man was in Nemaha Thursday.
Post card views of Nemaha at postoffice bookstore.
Jimmy Jones, from near Howe, was in Nemaha Thursday.
Jos. W. Ponn of Brownville visited Nemaha Thursday.
We sell carpet and linoleum. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
Mrs. Carl E. Sanders returned from Falls City Tuesday morning.
W. H. Morrow, Shubert's attorney, was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday.
Grandpa Lester of Brownville has been a Nemaha visitor this week.
Paper covered books—good ones—only 7 cents at the post-office bookstore.
A. L. P. Thompson went to Kansas City Monday night with a car load of cattle.
Mrs. Elizabeth Murr of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Hoover Monday.
F. E. Allen of Bracken went to St. Joe Wednesday evening with a car load of hogs.
Mrs. Henry Clark, Mrs. John M. Clark and Miss Daisy went to Peru Thursday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Eli Knapp and Mrs. Wm. Paul of Stella visited Nemaha friends Sunday.
Miss Minnie May went to Peru Tuesday morning to attend the commencement exercises.
Ernest Galloway and sister, Miss Belle, of Auburn, drove down to Nemaha Sunday.
New books—both paper covers and cloth bound—just received at the postoffice bookstore.
Charley Smiley, wife and son of Shubert were visiting D. T. Smiley and wife Thursday.
Rev. J. W. Sapp will preach the memorial sermon at Brownville next Sunday morning.
Look over our line of summer dress goods before buying. Harrington & Sons.
Still have a few set of harness left, will sell cheap. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
A 120 egg Old Trusty Incubator, good as new, for sale cheap. W. W. LIEBHART.
Fly time will soon be here; now is the time to get your screen doors, etc. E. & B. Lbr. Co.

WANTED

I want to hire a man by the month to care for an orchard, etc. I furnish house and fuel. JOHN S. STULL, Auburn.

Mrs. Ralph E. Harrington came in from Crab Orchard Wednesday afternoon.
We save you money on shoes. Come in and see. Harrington & Sons.
Best line of lawn mowers at reasonable prices. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
Mrs. N. B. Scrivoner, who had been visiting at Auburn for a few days, returned home Monday.
Miss Florence Denny visited Brownville friends from Saturday afternoon until Monday forenoon.
W. H. Lemon of St. Deroin was a pleasant caller Tuesday morning. He was on his way to Auburn.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh visited Mr. Rumbaugh's brother, A. J. Rumbaugh, at St. Deroin, last Sunday.
P. V. Morton of Omaha came to Nemaha Tuesday evening to visit his cousins, Misses Dora and Cora Morton.
Miss Rosa Munn of Shenandoah Iowa, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Dressler. She came Wednesday forenoon.
J. D. Rainey came in from Auburn Tuesday afternoon to visit his daughter, returning the same evening.
The fifteenth annual commencement of the Nemaha high school will be held at the opera house tonight.
It was uncomfortably warm Wednesday, as well as very windy and dusty—a very disagreeable day.
The outside lights at the Methodist church and the Odd Fellows hall make a brilliant light and can be seen for miles.
John M. Clark had a car of hogs shipped to Kansas City Monday. Ray looked after the loading and shipping.
The republican state central committee of Kansas has declared for Taft for the next republican nominee for president.
G. N. Titus visited his Glen Rock orchard a few days ago and says the indications are good for a fair crop of Winesap apples.
An admission fee of 15 and 20 cents will be charged for admission to the opera house tonight, to the commencement exercises.
John M. Clark came down from Lincoln Saturday but had to return Monday morning to resume his duties as juror in the federal court.
Mrs. Rose Gilbert has had some changes made in her house, changing a bedroom into a bathroom and pantry. T. L. Williams is doing the work.
25 cents buys
3 cans pumpkin, or
3 cans peas, or
3 cans beans, or
2 cans sweet potatoes, or
5 cans sweet corn, or
2 large cans salmon, or
5 1 lb. packages soda.
at Harrington & Sons.

Fountain pens and fountain pen ink for sale at the postoffice bookstore.
Miss Maude Burns went to Auburn Sunday and the next day went to Syracuse to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Burgess, for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parriott and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Parriott went to Peru Tuesday afternoon to attend the normal commencement exercises.
The Maple Grove school, two and a half miles northwest of Nemaha closes today with an entertainment. Miss Jessie Smith is the teacher.
Mrs. M. J. Hoover and Mrs. J. D. Rainey of Auburn came in to Nemaha last Friday to spend a week with their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. E. Crother.
Walter Starry, who lives in Oklahoma but who has been in Auburn for some time, was shaking hands with old Nemaha friends Thursday of last week.
H. R. Howe of Auburn gave us a pleasant call Tuesday afternoon. In company with W. H. Bousfield he had been to Shubert returning by way of St. Deroin and Nemaha.
Miss Roxie Parker and Harry of Auburn visited their grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Berger, Friday and Saturday. Miss Roxie is one of the graduates of the Auburn high school this year.
A. A. McNinch of St. Joe has been visiting relatives in Nemaha county for several days. He was the guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Ritchey, Thursday afternoon.
Geo. N. Sanders of London precinct says he is going to have a fair crop of Winesap, Jonathan, Missouri Pippin and Ben Davis apples, a good many plums, and some peaches.
The firm of F. L. Woodward, Charley Hunt, and the white mules has dissolved partnership, and Charley is no longer a member of the firm. Phil Shuck takes his place.
Mrs. Laura Black, a sister of V. P. Peabody, and her son-in-law, Alex Sloan, of Unadilla, Nebr., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peabody from Saturday evening until Monday.
While in Kansas City last week F. L. Woodward had a long visit with Rabe Elliott. Rabe's many old friends in Nemaha will be pleased to learn that he is prospering. He fed a large number of cattle during the winter and was in Kansas City with the last shipment. He owns a nice home in Pawnee, Oklahoma. Rabe buys stock and is said to be making money.

If you are warm or thirsty, drop in to;
O. E. Houtz's Restaurant and get cool.
ICE CREAM SODAS
and soft drinks are now ready.

THIS WEEK
We will call your attention to our line of
NEW SHOES
These are made by SELZ, SCHWAB & CO., who are the largest makers of good shoes in the world. We do not hesitate to recommend them to our customers because they always give satisfaction in wear and comfort.
Do not forget us for Dry Goods and Groceries. Our line is clean and up-to-date.
JNO. W. RITCHEY
Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

MILLINERY
Three new invoices of new and stylish goods. Call early for first choice.
MRS. THEO. HILL
Alva Buell says if Job suffered as much with each boil as he has with the one on the back of his neck, and never complained, he certainly had all the patience he is given credit for.
On Monday evening a surprise was given at the home of Mrs. Sherman Merritt in remembrance of her thirty-third birthday and a fine supper was served. About sixty were present. All spent a very happy evening.
C. H. Kindig went to Auburn Monday and from there a day or two later to Lincoln. He was assisting in getting a lot of land seekers started for South Dakota. About ninety left Omaha Tuesday for the promised land.
Owing to being invited to preach the memorial sermon at Brownville Sunday there will be no preaching at the Christian church at 11 a. m. Services in the evening at the usual hour. Subject "Men in the church." J. W. SAPP.
Notice.
NEMAHA, Neb., May 20, 1907.
Notice is hereby given that I will not pay any debts contracted by my wife Maud Minick she having left my bed and board without just cause.
M. T. MINICK,
Nemaha, Neb.
A number of our base ball enthusiasts went to Peru Tuesday and Wednesday to see the games. They were a disgusted lot of fellows when they returned, and roast the teams playing and the umpire to a finish. The first day the game was between the Peru team and the Fort Crook team, and the umpire made a present of the game to the Peruvians. But neither team played good ball.
Marshall Webb, Elmer E. Allen, August Quiller, Geo. Yackly, J. H. Littrell, Fred Hoover and Rufus Rowen went to the Nishna river in Missouri Tuesday to enjoy themselves fishing for a few days. They took tent, cooking utensils, etc., and expected to have a grand time.
While at the depot Wednesday afternoon we had the pleasure of meeting our old friend Rev. Peter Van Fleet, D. D., who for the past six years has been missionary in Porto Rico. Dr. Van Fleet was on his way to Nebraska City. He promised to visit Nemaha before his return and deliver a lecture. He has a large collection of curios that will be exhibited at that time. Dr. Van Fleet was presiding elder of this district for six years and has many friends here who will be glad to meet him again.
Sherwin-Williams
Paint
Fleck's Stock Food
Little Chick Feed
Cracked Corn
Bran & Shorts
Wall Paper
W. F. Keeling