MRS. THEO. HILL

The fifteenth annual commencement of the Nemaha high school was held at the opera house last Friday night. The house was crowded and the program was listened to attentively. The orations of the two graduates, "Opportunity" by Miss Bea Seabury, and "Hope," by Miss Grace Jarvis, were both excellent, that of Miss Bea being especially good. The class address of Prof. F. M. Gregg was fine.

Mrs. Chas. Richards, who has been suffering from partial paralysis for several months, was taken to the Methodist hospital at Omaha Tuesday. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ayers went with her, returning the next forenoon. They say she stood the trip well, although she was pretty tired when she got to the hospital. No examination had been made when they left, so they do not know what the physicians think of her condition.

An Elopement
Last Saturday Alvin Cattlett of Aspinwall precinct and Miss Leona Saylor, daughter of Jas. T. Saylor, living near Barada, drove to Rockport, Mo., and were married. They came back as far as Stephen Cooper's, where they stayed over night, and got Steve to break the news to the bride's parents. The mother was very much opposed to the match as the bride is only 16 years old. When the father heard they were he said for them to come home and all would be forgiven. The groom is an energetic young farmer who has a good start in the world. He is now farming in Aspinwall precinct. The young couple go to house-keeping at once. The young people have our best wishes for their future happiness.

More Cool Weather.
We had another cool spell of weather last Sunday and Monday forenoon. Fire felt comfortable most of the day Sunday. Monday morning there was a little ice and considerable frost.

The garden stuff was badly damaged, potatoes, beans, cucumbers, etc., being frozen to the ground. Corn was also badly frostbitten in places.

The church going people were treated to two good sermons Sunday. In the morning Rev. G. W. Ayers, pastor of the Methodist church, took as his text "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." John ix:36. It was a memorial sermon and was one of the best we have heard Rev. Ayers deliver. In the evening Rev. J. W. Sapp, pastor of the Christian church, preached to the young men, showing that God required men to carry on his work here on earth.
