

Mrs. Emery C. Howe of Brownville visited Nemaha friends Thursday.

Mrs. W. H. Barker has been very sick for several days, but is getting better.

Prof. Grundy of Brownville was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday and again Thursday.

People who had not taken their heating stoves down and who had some fuel on hand were in luck this week.

Ed Hanson and Miss Minnie Hanson, brother and sister of Clyde Roberts' bride, returned to Kansas City Thursday afternoon.

We had a fine rain Thursday. It commenced early in the morning and a slow, drizzling rain fell most of the day and far into the night.

Mrs. J. E. Crother enjoyed a call from Mrs. Henry Kleckner, Miss Alma Kleckner and Mrs. John Maddox, all of Auburn, Wednesday.

Edw. E. Lowman, ex-postmaster of Brownville, is making his arrangements to move to Omaha, where he will go into the real estate business.

Mrs. Earle Gilbert went to Lincoln Monday morning to buy goods, and from there went to Fairbury to visit friends, returning Thursday evening.

Miss May Kerker has been sick with the grip this week, but we are glad to learn is getting better. She has been greatly missed in The Advertiser office.

Memorial services were held at the opera house Thursday afternoon. No arrangements were begun until the evening previous and therefore no extended program was arranged. The exercises consisted of singing, prayer by Rev. G. W. Ayers, and an excellent address by Rev. J. W. Sapp.

Dolph Farmer of Lincoln came down to Brownville about two weeks ago to see his daughter, who is staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Diltz. He was taken sick almost at once and in a few days the disease was pronounced smallpox and the house was quarantined. Mr. Diltz, who is postmaster, is boarding at a hotel, and the remainder of the family are staying at home. There is also one or more cases of scarlet fever and some cases of measles in the old town.

Four Generations

Wednesday, May 29, was the 69th birthday of Mrs. J. M. Sanders, mother of the editor of the Advertiser, and on that day she had a photograph taken with her son, granddaughter and great grandson. The four generations are Mrs. J. M. Sanders, W. W. Sanders, Mrs. Nellie Rowen and Clyde Rowen. Mrs. Sanders was born in Ohio, moved to Indiana while a little child, where she grew to womanhood, afterward living in Illinois about three years, where she was married, and in October, 1856 (over fifty years ago) moved to Nebraska with her husband, and has lived here ever since. The son, W. W. Sanders, was born in Nemaha county 49 years ago and has always lived in this state. The granddaughter, Nellie, daughter of Mr. Sanders, was born in Nemaha county. She is 22 years of age and married Sept. 5, 1905, to Alf Rowen. Their son, Clyde Rowen is now nine months old.

Roberts-Hanson

E. Clyde Roberts and Miss Josie Hanson were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanson, Kansas City, Mo., at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, May 28, 1907. Rev. Williamson pronounced the ceremony. Many valuable and handsome presents were received. The wedding was private, only the immediate families being present. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Ole Roberts, Misses Pearle and Lockie Roberts, Ed Hanson and Miss Minnie Hanson took the train for Nemaha, arriving here the next morning. The same day an infair dinner was given at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, in Nemaha. Those present besides the family were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kleckner, Miss Alma Kleckner and Mr. and Mrs. John Maddox of Auburn, Ed Hanson and Miss Minnie Hanson of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Skeen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Skeen of London precinct, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Dressler, Miss Bessie Dressler Marshall Webb, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Long, and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stiers of Nemaha, Miss Rosa Munn of Shanandoah, Iowa, and Miss Rogge of Burr.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts and is a fine young man in every respect. For sometime he has been in the employ of the First National bank of Kansas City. The bride is a very popular lady of that city.

H. T. Minick got a bad cut on the head last Friday forenoon. He had a cultivator tied to the rear of a wagon hauling to the field and was sitting on the side of the wagon box with his feet on the cultivator tongue to keep it from swinging from side to side. The wagon wheel struck a chunk and this threw the cultivator tongue up and Mr. Minick went over. He caught at the wagon box as he went but this only caused him to light on his head. He must have struck a sharp stone, as a gash an inch and a half long was cut to the bone. This was about nine o'clock and Mr. Minick worked till noon, when he got to feeling so bad that he came to town and had Dr. Keeling dress the wound. It took several stitches to close the cut.

Nothing in the form of a green bug, a pink fly, a pale blue worm or anything else can ruin the wheat in Nebraska. Prosperity has been anchored for another year and rich returns in the golden autumn are absolutely sure.—Lincoln Star.

"The public" wisely says the Kansas City Star, need not expect anything of an encouraging nature concerning the wheat until it hears the cry of more harvest hands or a complaint of a car famine to hinder the movement of the grain.

Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. #### A Letter from

Mrs. David Frazier

ATWOODI Colo., May 23, '07.
W. W. Sanders:

Dear Sir:—We are all well and like the country allright so far. Dave has gained 7 pounds. At that rate don't you think he will soon be a Sullivan?

Since it has quit raining things are growing fast. You can see the beets across the field, or the rows look green and nice, and our oats are fine. We have 25 acres of them and 20 of beets. Our alfalfa is almost ready to cut. We have seven acres of corn listed in. We have had three rains since we came here.

It is well settled along both sides of the Platte river, and the people are very friendly. Sterling, our county seat, is a lively town of three thousand. We think it a lovely town. Everything is on the move. No one is idle.

Dave likes irrigation all right. He says it is no trick at all so far—open the gates and let the water run, then have a man to turn it in the laterals you want it to go in.

Arthur Paris and family are all well and well satisfied and have out a fine crop.

Wishing you and your dear mother well and all our old Nemaha friends, and our children the best luck they can have.

SARAH FRAZIER.

Later—We have had a good rain.

DAVE.

After a certain wedding 23 of their friends (or considered themselves so) met and serenaded for an hour with the hope of meeting the new bride and groom, but they failed to respond to the friendly singing. It was decided to try one more piece and if no appearance was made to give them some instrumental music—the best for the occasion, such as sleighbells, cowbells, guns, dishpans, etc. They seemed not to recognize that it was the friendly act of their nearest neighbors, but it is rumored that the music was mistaken for the grating sound of street cars.

One of the Number.

Notice.

All patrons of the school wishing to transfer their children to adjoining districts for school purposes and all who wish to send children to some high school, taking advantage of the new high school free attendance law, apply to the county superintendent for blanks at once—you may do this by letter or in person. Under the new law all persons transferred to adjoining districts for school purposes must attend and vote at the annual meeting in the district to which their children have been transferred.

My Best Friend

Alexander Benton, who lives on Rural Route 1 Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by Hill Bros., druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

We have received a copy of a song entitled "Rose, Thou Art Dying." The words are by Chas. C. Cross, editor of the Auburn Herald, and the music by Miss Gladys E. Carrington, sister of County Superintendent Geo. D. Carrington. The sentiment of the words is fine and musicians say the music is equally good and fittingly interprets the spirit of the verse. We trust Bro. Cross will not have his rose song meet with the reception accorded John M. Thurston's "Rose, Sweet Rose."

There has been a shake-up in the Auburn Herald office. J. W. Barnhart, who started the paper and managed it until it became one of the best state weeklies, organized a stock company and was president and general manager until in January, when he was put out of both those positions, although he remained an employe of the company. Last week at a meeting of the directors he was dismissed from the Herald force entirely and is no longer connected with that paper except as a stockholder. He still owns one-third of the stock of the concern. Mr. Barnhart has formed a partnership with Mr. Rohmeyer of the Beobachter, and they will operate a job printing establishment. There is a strong probability of their starting a democratic paper next fall.

A Narrow Escape

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that curen the dangerous wound." 25c at Hill Bros., druggists.
