

An dit rains.
 The drouth is broken.
 Garden and flower seeds at W. F. Keeling's.
 Sunday school convention Friday of next week.
 Post card views of Nemaha at postoffice bookstore.
 Ruby harvester oil—the best—for sale by W. F. Keeling.
 The farmers smiled a broad smile over the rain Monday.
 Have patience. We will have warm weather after awhile.
 We sell carpet and linoleum. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
 John Sapp, of Shubert visited his parents, in Nemaha, Tuesday.
 Best photos in southeastern Nebr., at Criley's. So Auburn.
 Mrs. Sarah Roach of Nebraska City orders The Advertiser sent to her.
 Mrs. W. W. Seid went to Auburn Saturday, returning Monday.
 Mrs. J. M. Fuller visited Mrs. Cora Gongwer last Sunday and Monday.
 Mrs. Frank Titus went to Papillion, Nebr., last Friday, to visit relatives.
 Our fisherman are catching some nice fish now; and a good many of them.
 From present appearances hay will be a scarce article in this section this year.
 Will F. Keeling is stepping proud because his cow had twin calves Wednesday.
 H. T. Minick presented Rural Carrier Barker with a sack of nice apples Monday.
 Home grown strawberries were on the market Tuesday for the first time this season.
 Born—Sunday evening, June 2, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, a fine big boy.
 Mrs. A. R. Sayers of Aspinwall precinct went to Kansas City to a hospital Tuesday.
 Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn went to Peru Monday to attend the summer normal.
 Still have a few set of harness left, will sell cheap. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
 J. W. Ponn of Brownville is doing some painting and carpenter work in Nemaha this week.
 A 120 egg Old Trusty Incubator, good as new, for sale cheap. W. W. LIEBHART.
 Clarence Aynes, who has been at Mystic, South Dakota, for some time, returned home Tuesday evening.
 Bees for Sale.
 I have eight stands of bees I want to sell. I. J. JARVIS.
 F. L. Woodward was exercising his white mules and himself Tuesday evening by using a drag on the streets. He was doing a good job.

Try us for fresh groceries. Harrington & Sons.
 Best line of lawn mowers at reasonable prices. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
 See that fine line of bottled pickles at 10c bottle. Harrington & Sons.
 Miss Flossie Waterman of Auburn was the guest of Miss May Kerker from Friday until Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. F. LaFollete, who had been visiting in Lincoln, returned to Nemaha last Thursday.
 C. H. Kindig has rented Mrs. Hill's house, south of the lumber yard, and will go to housekeeping soon.
 Miss Pearl Burns went to Syracuse Saturday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Burgess.
 Jno. W. Ritchey has The Advertiser sent for the next year to his son, Frank R. Ritchey, Yuma, Colo.
 John White has been at Wyomere for two or three weeks, building a house for David Jack of Peru.
 Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover went over to Stella Wednesday to visit some of her Christian Science friends.
 Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Wolfe of Aspinwall precinct, Wednesday morning, June 5, 1907, a big boy.
 Mrs. Cora Crother, Glendyn and Catherine Millicent spent Wednesday with her friend Mrs. Alice Seid.
 Miss May Kerker, Angel No. 1, was able to resume her duties in the Advertiser office last Friday morning.
 Home grown strawberries—fine ones—are retailing at 15 cents per quart, or two quarts for a quarter.
 Mrs. Ann Maxwell expects to start for Pawnee, Oklahoma, next Monday, to visit her son, Alex. Maxwell.
 Misses Blanche, Ruth and Helen Williams of Shubert visited their grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Titus, Tuesday.
 We had a fine rain Monday—a good slow rain that all went in the ground. That night we had another good shower.
 Fly time will soon be here; now is the time to get your screen doors, etc. E. & B. Lbr. Co.
 We learn that Mrs. George Loughrige of Aspinwall precinct, who is in Kansas City being treated for a cancer, is getting better.
 Mrs. Alice A. Minick of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover and other Nemaha friends from Saturday until Monday afternoon.
 Willard H. Dressler came down from Omaha last Saturday evening and visited his father, brothers and sister and friends, returning the next evening.

Fountain pens and fountain pen ink for sale at the postoffice bookstore.
 E. C. Crother received a handsome bouquet of violets through the mail Thursday, from a lady friend in Racine, Wis.
 Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Connett of Chillicothe, Ills., visited Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh from Wednesday afternoon until Thursday forenoon.
 Mrs. J. D. Rainey returned to Auburn Sunday, after two weeks' visit with her sister and brother, Mrs. J. Crother and Chas. Clark. Mr. Rainey came in after her.
 Mike Liebhart, wife and granddaughter of Marquette, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Monday evening on a week's visit with Mr. Liebhart's brother, W. W. Liebhart.
 The Nemaha City cemetery association will hold its annual meeting next Wednesday, June 11, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the bank. All owners of lots are invited to be present.
 Miss Elizabeth Hawxby, who is one of the teachers in the York public schools, returned to Nemaha last Saturday to spend the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hawxby.
 J. H. Townley, landlord of the Shubert hotel, died Thursday of last week. He was buried at Prairie Union cemetery Saturday the Masons having charge of the funeral. Several Nemaha Masons attended.
 Sold Frank Helmick a fine farm in Spink Co., So. Dakota, $35 up, every man bought. Fine 640 Homestead Relinquishment for sale, $1500, improved, near a good town in Nebr. KINDIG & PEABODY.
 Plans and specifications for a heating plant for the school house have been submitted to contractors and bids requested. These will be opened and laid before the annual school meeting on the 24th of this month for action.
 Elmer E. Allen now has his house lighted with the "F-P" gasoline lights. This is the kind in use in the opera house, Methodist church, Masonic and Odd Fellows lodges, Earle Gilbert's store and Hill's drug store. It is a fine light.
 Elmer E. Allen, cashier of the Bank of Nemaha, was distributing some cards to patrons last Saturday. On one side of the card was the statement of the condition of the bank, as published in last week's Advertiser. On the other side was "Honor thy Father and Mother, but not Stranger's Checks"—a good motto.

If you are warm or thirsty, drop in to O. E. Houtz's Restaurant and get cool.
ICE CREAM SODAS
 and soft drinks are now ready.

Specials

For Saturday Only!

Men's Dress Shirts, regular 75c, in plain cream, fancy in checks and stripes, in light and dark colors, at 53 cents
 Husher cloth, a padding for under tablecloth, 54 inches wide, regular 45c, at 35 cents per yard
 Ladies' Sunbonnets, all colors, regular 25c, at 19 cents

JNO. W. RITCHEY
 Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

Jacob Shuck received a letter the first of the week from B. D. Hayward, superintendent of the boys' industrial school at Kearney, saying Johnnie was now ready to be paroled. The superintendent says he is a good boy. He says if his father will send the railroad fare Johnnie will be sent back here.

Jacob Montsinger and Miss Bertha Shiveley, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shiveley were married Sunday evening, June 2, 1907, at the home of the bride's aunt, near Shubert. The boys of the neighborhood gave them an old fashioned charivari the next night. The young people have our best wishes for their happiness.

Children's Day Service
 The annual children's day services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. A good program has been prepared. The collection which will be taken goes to the educational fund to assist in educating poor young men and women, especially those desiring to enter the ministry.

Mrs. M. C. Scott received notice a few days ago that her son, Jesse Scott, a member of Co. B., 18th infantry, located at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, had allotted to her $5 per month from his pay. We honor a young man who has this regard for his mother. Jesse is doing well in the army, and recently had an advance of $1 per month in his pay.

Thursday afternoon of last week Frank R. Lowe and Miss Rose Seabury went to Nebraska City, and at 6 o'clock that evening were married at the court house by County Judge Wilson. Mr. Lowe, whose home is in Kansas City, has been in Nemaha for a few weeks, selling stock food. We understand he will continue on the road for awhile at least, his bride traveling with him, but talks of locating in Peru this fall.

Go to the Postoffice Bookstore for your candies.

Mrs. C. H. Kindig has decided to accept the position of principal of the Nemaha schools. She is a fine teacher and we believe the school, under her leadership, with the cooperation of Misses Bellas and Vancamp, will be second to none in the county so far as grades taught here. We trust the school board and the patrons will unite with the teachers to this end.

About two weeks and a half ago Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh and Miss Nora Aynes, while in Brownville, called on 'Dolph Farmer. At this time Mr. Farmer had been feeling bad for a few days, and later broke out with smallpox. Physicians said Mrs. Rumbaugh and Miss Aynes were in little or no danger of contracting the disease, but they quarantined themselves until Tuesday of this week, when they unanimously voted the quarantine raised and are now going where they please. Miss Aynes stayed with Mrs. Rumbaugh and Elmer had to find a new boarding place temporarily.

Sherwin-Williams Paint
Fleck's Stock Food
Little Chick Feed
Cracked Corn
Bran & Shorts
Wall Paper
W. F. Keeling