

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

The question of keeping the children fairly presentable during their play hours is always doubly difficult in the summer. Half an hour's romping in the garden will soil and rumple any frock, until it is only fit for the tub, so all sensible mothers devote a large share of the summer's outfit to strong, easily ironed dresses in which their little ones can play in peace." Thus says the authority on "Practical Clothes for Little Girls" in the July number of the New Idea Woman's Magazine, and common sense is the keynote of her article.

The President's Name

It is indeed strange that the name of a man who has been written about as much as President Roosevelt should still be mispronounced by so large a number of people. And stranger is it that the pronunciation which is farthest from right is the one most frequently heard—as though it were spelled Rusevelt.

A Washington writer says the President took a few minutes "off" the other day to explain the pronunciation of his name to a visitor. He spelled it out thus: "Ro-zie-velt." "It is more nearly Ro-za-velt than it is Ro-zie-velt," the President explained, "but if I should syllable it that way for you and you should follow my spelling in an effort to convey to others the historically correct pronunciation of my name somebody would be sure to give the broad sound to the 'a' and make it 'Ro-zah-velt,' so that it is safer to use the diphthong 'ie' in order to avoid worse confusion. So, remember that in my name the double o is just o, the s is z and the e following the s is short a."—Lincoln Star.

Hints in Using Telephone

From the Brooklyn Eagle.
The art of telephoning is still an accomplishment that few people regard as a necessary part of their education. The way to use the transmitter is to place the lips within half an inch of the mouthpiece and speak in a considerably lower tone than you ordinarily use in a face-to-face conversation.

The reason for this is simple. Just behind the mouthpiece is an aluminum diaphragm backed with a very thin sheet of hard carbon. Between this sheet of carbon and the point of contact of the wires is a space filled with finely powdered carbon.

The sound waves of the voice make the aluminum diaphragm vibrate and this in turn affects the carbon sheet, which stirs the granulated carbon behind it.

The electrical current that is passing through the carbon power feels all these vibrations, however slight, and reproduces them in the receiver and the other end of the line, setting in motion sound waves corresponding to those in the transmitter.

If you shout at the transmitter the vibrations may be so violent as to result in only a confusing jumble at the other end of the wire. Besides, loud talking through a telephone is distressing to the listener, who, you must remember, gets the full volume of sound very close to the ear.

If you hear a telephone man talking by wire you will notice that he draws his words a little—not enough to make conversation noticeably slow, but sufficiently so that one word is started on its way before another can tread on its heels.

Clipping words, which is sometimes done under the impression that it gives them a sharper sound, is a mistake. Even for talking over considerable distances the voice should be lowered in telephone conversations.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or the Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Shoop's Restorative sold by All Dealers.

Poorly Paid Teachers.

Wymore Wymorean: That teaching is an underpaid profession there can be no doubt, and the wonder is that it is possible to find enough people to fill the positions. The average monthly salary for the common schools of Nebraska is $44.07 and the average for the high schools is only $53.38. Any effort upon the part of school directors to increase salaries should be commended.

The Missouri river, which cuts queer capers when it is on a bender, is still doing some eccentric stunts in the neighborhood of St. Deroin.

That precinct is already small enough, but the insatiable appetite of the river is still further causing a diminution of its area. It commenced cutting into the Van Osdel place some months ago and is still at it. The fine peach orchard and the grove of trees have all tumbled into the river and only a few trees remain to mark the spot that was once a pretty piece of ground.—Republican.

State Holiness Camp Meeting

The thirty-sixth annual camp meeting of the Nebraska State Holiness association will be held at Epworth Lake park, Lincoln, Nebraska, June 14-24. The managers of the camp meeting have made special arrangements to make the meeting this year the very best in its history. Rev. Joseph H. Smith, of California, and Rev. H. C. Morrison, of Louisville, Ky., two of the most successful camp meeting leaders in the United States have been secured to do the preaching and C. E. Rowley and wife, from Ohio, will be leaders in song. Good board for 50 cents a meal can be had on the ground, and lodging can be had for those who do not care to tent. Information may be had by addressing Rev. W. H. Prescott, 1210 O. St., Lincoln, Nebr.

Democratic papers very generally were very much incensed last fall when it was indicated in the republican press of the capital city and generally that Chairman Allen of the democratic state committee was a railroad attorney and that the democratic committee had access to the books and records of the railroads. Indeed this was so apparent, when they gave the number and date of issue of a pass presented to Governor Sheldon, though the same had never been used, that the burden of proof immediately shifted to the democratic committee, which was utterly unable to clear itself. Now comes the publicity feature of the anti-pass law, passed by a republican legislature, and shows that, at least on the Missouri Pacific, Mr. Allen is a pass holder. He is in possession of a pass issued to him as an attorney for the Missouri Pacific. This in itself is legitimate. It is only interesting—and otherwise—that Mr. Allen, his friends and even his relatives, including Mr. Bryan, should have denied that Mr. Allen had any railway connections whatever.—Grand Island Independent.

Geo. D. Carrington, jr. has been county superintendent for over three years. During that time he has worked hard for the interests of the schools of the county, and has never hesitated when he saw anything that needed doing for fear it would be unpopular. He has enthused the teachers and inspired the school officials until the schools are now far ahead of anything in the past. He has not spared himself in the least, but has always been a hard worker, visiting every school in the county at least once a year and when occasion required many times. He has helped and encouraged young teachers, advocated reforms, and kept the schools up to the highest standard possible. Under his supervision the Nemaha county schools have been made the best in the history, and Mr. Carrington has more than a state wide reputation as an educator.

Yielding to the solicitation of many friends, Mr. Carrington has consented to be a candidate once more for this office, and his name will be before the republican voters at their primaries. We do not believe he will have any opposition.

"DEAR SIR: My driving mare got the heaves so bad I offered her for sale for $15.00 and could not sell her. I have used Gold Coin Heave Powders on her for two months and now I wouldn't take $125 for her. I highly recommend your Heave Cure."
ANTON WATZKE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS The coat becomes rough; there is a dry hacking cough; the appetite is irregular; sometimes poor, other times craving; the bowels sometimes loose, other times constipated. A yellow mucus collects around the anus. The animal is likely to run down, become thin and poor, the breath generally has a foul odor; the belly may become large, "pot belly." The horse turns up its lips and rubs them against the wall, or licks the manger and shows uneasiness. Worms may appear in such enormous numbers as to invade the stomach and become very dangerous to the animal. Where affected with Thread Worms, which affects the rectum, the intense itching causes the horse to rub its tail against the wall, or to keep switching it constantly.

DON'T LOSE MONEY Horses, colts, and other animals if stunted in their growth; unthrifty and misshapen by the clogging of worms in the stomach and bowels are not worth as much as thrifty, spirited, healthy, glossy coated horses. "Gold Coin Worm Powder" makes extra money for you by keeping your animals free from worms.
