Remarkable Rescue

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cure for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00, at Hill Bros. drug store. Trial bottle free.

Death of Mrs. Jesse Ellis

Mrs. Jennie Ellis, wife of Jesse I. Ellis of Brownville precinct, died at the home of her father, A. G. Warren, in Nemaha, Tuesday evening, June 4, 1907.

Mrs. Ellis has been in poor health for sometime, and a few months ago was taken to Auburn and had a surgical operation performed. Recently she grew worse again and arrangements were made to take her to Auburn for another operation. She was brought to Nemaha to take the train but got here too late so was taken to the home of her father, expecting to go the next day. She had a sinking spell during the day, but rallied, and was apparently resting easily. Mrs. Warren was sitting with her and some neighbors were in and as they went to leave Mrs. Warren spoke of Mrs. Ellis resting so well. They stepped to the side of the bed and found she was dead. She had died without a struggle.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church at 2 o'clock p. m. Thursday, Rev. J. W. Sapp preaching the sermon, after which the body was laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery.

The bereaved husband, the three motherless children and the father, have our sympathy in their great affliction.

Jennie Odessa Warren, was born in Linn county, Iowa, Feb. 29, 1876, and was 31 years, 3 months and 5 days old at her death. She was married to Jesse Ellis in the county of her birth May 11, 1892. They removed to Missouri the same year and resided there for seven years, then moved to Oregon, living there a few months. Then they lived in Cedar county, Nebraska, for one year, and almost five years ago moved to this county. To this union were born three children, who are left with the husband and father to mourn her loss.

In the fall of 1894 Mrs. Ellis became a member of the Baptist church and has lived a life true to his Savior and died trusting in his promises.

To the many friends and neighbors who so kindly ministered to us in the hour of bereavement, and those who furnished flowers, we extend our heartfelt thanks.

Iert H. Kuper announces his candidacy for the republican nomination for county treasurer. Mr. Kuper is in every way qualified for the position. He is well educated, careful, honest as the day is long, and a capable man in every way. He has been deputy treasurer for four years and therefore knows all about the work. The people of Nemaha county would be served well if they elect Mr. Kuper treasurer.

The Missouri river has been giving us a touch of high life, as it has been almost banked full for a few days—in fact it has been out of banks in low places. J. C. Broady's farm on the bottom northeast of Nemaha had an abundant supply of water, considerable of the farm land being covered, but it has gone down without doing much damage and the river is now falling slowly.

Mrs. J. B. Stiers

Badly Burned

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. B. Stiers put some fat meat in a pan and set it in the oven to render out the lard. She went on with other work until she noticed smoke coming out of the oven. When she opened the door there was an explosion, the blazing grease being thrown over her and all over the room. Little Flossie Stiers, the granddaughter about ten years old, ran to the well and got a bucket of water and with it Mrs. Stiers put out the fire in the room. She then asked Flossie if her dress was on fire and Flossie told her it was, and so was the celluloid comb in her hair. She went to the well and with the help of Flossie put out this fire. The side of her head and face is badly burned and one finger is burned almost to a crisp. It was a narrow escape from being burned to death.

The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Hill Bros. druggists. 50c.

Webb vs Wheeler. Appeal, Nemaha. Reversed and Remanded. Jackson, C., department No. 2.

It is the actual residence of the debtor, and not his domicile, which determines the status of the parties in attachment proceedings.

The above refers to the suit brought by Marshall Webb to perfect the title to his property in Nemaha. Mr. Webb bought the property from Mrs. Wheeler, who gave a warranty deed. Mrs. Wheeler got it by warranty deed, from Mrs. Carse. The property belonged to Henry Carse, deceased. Mrs. Carse and daughter, Mrs. E. S. McCandless, signed the deed, but Avis Carse, who was an adopted child, was and is a minor, and therefore of course could not give consent to the disposal of her interest. At the time the deed was given by Mrs. Carse the fact that Avis would have an interest was not thought of. When Mr. Webb discovered the flaw in the title he brought suit against Mrs. Wheeler and won in the district court, getting judgment for $600 damages. One point, however, was decided against him, that being whether or not Mrs. Wheeler was a non-resident. Mr. Webb's attorneys contended that she was a non-resident, but Judge Kelligar decided against them. This decision has been reversed by the supreme court. No decision has yet been rendered about damages.
