The wind Monday night broke down four telephone poles south of town, belonging to the Farmers and Merchants Mutual Telephone Co. A large apple tree on the farm occupied by F. L. Collin, belonging to John E. Lambert, was blown up by the roots. The tree was a large one and must have been planted thirty-five or forty years ago.

A Wonderful Happening
Port Byron, N. Y., has witnessed one of the most remarkable cases of healing ever recorded. Amos F. King, of that place says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured a sore on my leg with which I had suffered over 80 years. I am now eighty-five." Guaranteed to cure all sores, by Hill Bros. Druggists. 50c.

Dressler-Munn.

Willard H. Dressler of Omaha and Miss Rosa Munn of Shenandoah, Iowa, were married at the home of the groom's father, John I. Dressler, in Nemaha, at 7 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, June 26, 1907. Rev. J. W. Sapp performed the ceremony.

Only relatives and a very few intimate friends were present.

After the ceremony and congratulations a fine supper was served.

The bride was dressed in cream colored net over white silk, and the groom in the usual black.

The groom was born and grew to manhood in Nemaha precinct, and has a host of friends here. The bride during her visit here of a few months has won the friendship of all who have made her acquaintance.

The newly married couple leave for Omaha today, where they will go to housekeeping at once.

Miss Eliza Farson returned to Peru Monday.

Dr. Cap Reed Graves of Peru was a Nemaha visitor Thursday.

W. W. Hackney of Lincoln, a former old time Brownville merchant, visited Mrs. W. H. Hoover a short time Thursday afternoon.

Ivan Hadlock of St. Joe returned home Friday of last week after a few days' visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadlock.

Mrs. Dan Maxwell, teacher of Class No. 5 of the M. E. Sunday school, gave the members of her class a reception at her home north of Nemaha Thursday of last week. Those present spent a delightful afternoon with their teacher.

Last Notice

For the last time notice is given to all parties not to lariat any stock on streets or allow same to run at large in village limits. No further warning will be given, but stock found lariat on streets or running at large will be put in the pound.

J. H. LITRELL,
Street Commissioner.

The Charming Woman

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at Hill Bros. Druggists. 50c.

First we worried about drouth; then we worried about the cold rain; now we're worrying for fear there won't be trains enough to carry our crops to market.—
Norfolk News.

Elmer E. Allen and Chas. Richards went to Omaha Wednesday morning, returning that evening, and bringing Mrs. Richards back with them. She has been at the Methodist hospital for a few weeks. She is some better and is not suffering much, but is not able to walk any.

We learn that although Miss Jessie Smith had been engaged as teacher of the Maple Grove school, at the meeting Monday night a vote was taken and it was decided to hire another teacher. Miss Maud Hanger of Lincoln has been engaged. There has been some trouble in this district during the past year, which we trust will now subside.

Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. Higgins, Ninth street and First corso, Rev. H. L. House united in marriage Edward B. Squires and Miss Edna Higgins, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The bride is a well known and popular young lady having made this city her home for many years. The groom is a popular young man and employed as a messenger for the Adams Express company. The News joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness in their new life.

The above clipping is from the Nebraska City News. Mrs. Squires is a sister of Mrs. Ben Colerick and has a number of friends in Nemaha. The wedding occurred June 5.
