W. H. Barker stepped on a spike that extended through a board on the Fourth of July, running it in the side of his foot over an inch. He treated it with liberal applications of arnica, and bound fat meat on it, and it gave him little trouble.

We are informed that the change for the better in Brownville since the saloons have been closed is very noticeable. There is not near so much carousing around at night nor so many drunks. Of course there is drinking—probably some bootlegging—but the change since the saloon has been closed is very marked.

The residence of B. Mellott, at Auburn, was burned on the Fourth, with virtually all its contents. Mrs. Mellott was getting dinner when the gasoline stove exploded. Mrs. Mellott and two daughters were the only persons in the house, and before help could arrive the entire house was ablaze. The loss was about $4,500, which is not nearly covered by insurance.

Miss Fern Adamson was watching the fire, seated in a buggy a block from the burning building, when an ember lit on her waist and it caught fire, burning her clothing entirely off from her waist up, and severely burning the young lady.

Long Live The King! is the popular cry throughout European countries, while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by Hill Bros. Druggists. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

R. V. Muir, the veteran prohibitionist of Brownville, is receiving a great many congratulations over the victory of the anti-saloon people in their fight against that evil in Brownville. Mr. Muir for many years has fought the saloon in season and out of season. He has been abused and persecuted, ridiculed and scoffed at, but kept on the even tenor of his way, and finally has achieved at least a temporary victory. So he can well feel proud of the final result.

M. S. McIninch, the attorney in the case, has also done a good work in the face of almost insurmountable obstacles. He has been true to his constituents and never wavered. He has studied the question of licensing the saloon thoroughly and has given good service to the advocates of anti-license.

The Charming Woman
is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at Hill Bros. Druggists. 50c.
