If those that subscribed to the Old Settler's Association to secure a band and free attractions will kindly call at the bank and settle as quickly as convenient it will be appreciated.

J. M. Burress of Auburn was shaking hands with Nemaha friends last Friday afternoon, and informing them that he was a candidate for the republican nomination for county treasurer.

You may need a new suit or a pair of shoes and you can save money by buying them in the Vanderslice building.

Elmer Dovel of Auburn came down to Nemaha Tuesday and started the work of putting the heating plant in Elmer E. Allen's house. He returned to Auburn that evening. Alva Rogers is bossing the job.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rumbaugh and son of Phillipsburg, Kansas, visited his brother, T. J. Rumbaugh from Friday until Wednesday, when they returned home. They will probably buy property and move to Lincoln.

Mrs. M. E. Flack started for Chase county, Nebr., last Saturday, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Strobridge. She will probably remain for some time. Before leaving she subscribed for The Advertiser for one year to be sent to her daughter.

The fourth quarterly meeting of the Methodist church will be held at Howe next Sunday, July 28, at 11 o'clock, when Presiding Elder Wright will preach and communion will be administered. Quarterly conference will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Wes Clark went to Aspinwall Tuesday and raised the cable of the ferry at that place while a new post was put in. The post on this side had rotted off, letting the cable settle, making it dangerous for boats to pass. It is now fifty feet above the water on this side, giving ample room for the passage of boats.

J. S. Hadlock of St. Joe came up to Nemaha Wednesday and will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadlock for a few days. Sherris is engaged in painting and it is a little dull in that line of business just now.

Will Cummings, who has been clerking for Harrington & Sons and Noble & Co., returned to his home in Crab Orchard Monday. Will made many friends during his stay here and will be greatly missed, especially among the young people.

Miss Henrietta Snow of Chicago arrived in Nemaha last Friday on a visit to her half-brother, John C. Boyd. This is their first visit for twenty-three years, and they are heartily enjoying it. Miss Snow for the past eight years has been an employee of Sears, Roebuck & Co.

T. L. Williams is putting in the bridge by J. H. Seid's farm, and other bridges will be put in as fast as possible. So many bridges were washed out that the commissioners are finding it difficult to get men to do the work necessary. They are rushing the work as fast as possible.

Mrs. Chas. Richards, who has been crippled with rheumatism or paralysis for some time, unable to walk, was taken to the poor farm last Friday. She will have better care there than she could get at home, as they are in destitute circumstances and have been supported since her sickness mainly by charitable people of the town and by help from the county. It is a sad case as Mr. and Mrs. Richards have always been hard working people.

Monday evening Mrs. Ben Baldwin and Mrs. Fred Seabury took a buggy ride, driving a young horse of Ben's. When they returned they got out of the buggy and Leo Baldwin and Earl Kerker were going to drive the horse to the barn, but it became frightened and ran before they got in, running through the trees, tearing the top off the buggy and otherwise damaging it, and breaking up the harness. The horse was not hurt.
