

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Under the strict terms of the Nebraska child labor law, about the only thing left open to a schoolboy bent on earning something in the vacation season is weeding the neighbor's garden or mowing the neighbor's lawn. To boys under 14 years of age, all such occupations as messenger service, doing errands in stores, or even performing such perfunctory service as opening and shutting doors are now closed. Selling newspapers and delivering them to subscribers are still allowed, but that field is already crowded. The law makes it difficult for an ambitious lad to do anything which will bring in money. Of course, the child labor act is an excellent safeguard against subjecting juveniles to tasks beyond their years, but it seems an open question whether Nebraska was in any great need of so drastic a statute. An act prohibiting young boys and girls from working in factories, on the stage or where they are brought into contact with evil associations would meet most emergencies.—Lincoln News.

A Reaper's Race.

Wallace Brundson has been having more than his share of bad luck lately. His farm, which this spring consisted of 56 acres, now contains but twelve and that is fast going.

He had last week as fine a field of wheat as any one would wish to see, but on Saturday the river began cutting in on it. He had been trying to get a machine to cut the wheat but had failed up to that time. About 6 o'clock that evening a machine went into the field and the work continued Sunday morning, but work as they might, they could save only nine out of the thirty acres, the river getting field, wheat and all. On Thursday Mr. Brundson was compelled to begin tearing down his house and barn, and it is feared that the river will get them before they can be removed. If the present rate of cutting keeps on it is thought that the river will get the elevator at Barney, and will tie up the B. & M. until the track is laid on the new grade made this spring.—Peru Pointer.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by All Dealers.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by All Dealers.

The people in Auburn who formerly lived in Brownville, with the cooperation of the Brownville citizens, are arranging for a "home coming" day when the former citizens of the old town will gather once more in that ancient city. Either August 28 or 29 has been talked of, and one of these dates will probably be decided upon. All former citizens of Brownville will be invited to be present.

Fred Rohrs this week announces his candidacy for reelection to the office of sheriff of Nemaha county. Mr. Rohrs has given the county good service for the past six years—four years as deputy and two years as sheriff—and is certainly deserving of a reelection. Of his nomination by the republicans there is no doubt. So far as we have heard, there will be no other candidate in the field for the republican nomination.

Criticised our Hospitality.

The only discordant note concerning Auburn's Fourth of July celebration comes from Nemaha. The Advertiser relates that several of the citizens of that town drove over in the evening to hear the band play and see the fireworks but were disappointed. "However," added The Advertiser, "Auburn merchants were raking in the money." We cannot understand why Editor Sanders, usually so fair, could permit himself to print such jealous remarks, for such they were. Auburn entertained vast crowds during the day, with every feature advertised, and more, too. The Beatrice band played in the city park until 10 o'clock in the evening. There were no fireworks advertised on the program. All the stores with the exception of drug stores, restaurants and one or two grocery stores, were closed afternoon and evening. No merchant took advantage of the day to make money solely. The few places that were open catered to the comfort and enjoyment of the crowd and all who patronized them got their money's worth. That all Fourth of July celebrations are alike can be as truthfully said as "All Old Settler's picnics are alike." Auburn merchants donated over $600 to entertain the guests of the city on the Fourth and no one that came had need to spend a cent for enjoyment or entertainment had they not elected to do so.—Auburn Republican.

The Republican's quotation from The Advertiser is about equal to Auburn's fulfillment of its promises. We said: "Every man there, though, seemed to be reaching out both hands for the visitor's money." This was the kick made by our people who were there. The Republican tries to make it appear we were kicking on the merchants.

"Grand band contest—3 big brass bands—75 musicians." They had two bands, with about 35 musicians.

"Will furnish music day and night in a series of concerts." And the Republican says the Beatrice band played in the park till 10 o'clock, when they left on the excursion at 9, and did not play after 8.

"Grand chorus, soloists and quartettes—athletic contests—theatrical performances"—perhaps this was when that woman was rushing through the crowd after stealing Vera Hall's purse.

"Auburn is the live wire town—something doing every minute always gives more than she promises and advertises"—so the bills for the 4th said. And those who were present say there was very little going on at any time except a constant grab for money.

Wm. G. Rutledge, who seeks the Republican nomination for county judge, is the kind of a man whom the people should heartily welcome in the political field. He is clean, able and of unquestioned integrity and fitness. The people of Lafayette precinct feel an especial interest in this young man since he came here with his parents from Ohio when but six months of age and spent his boyhood days here. He attended school at Brock several years and then graduated from the Utica high school. He graduated from the commercial department of York college and took preparatory work, then went to Chicago and was employed in commercial houses for five years and graduated from the Chicago-Kent College of Law, the law department of Lake Forest University. He practiced law in Chicago one year, and then located in Auburn, October 1905. He is now city attorney of Auburn, and though he has been a resident of Auburn less than two years he has built up a nice practice and won a reputation for careful attention to details and the thorough accuracy of his work. We certainly wish him success.—Brock Bulletin.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS The coat becomes rough; there is a dry hacking cough; the appetite is irregular; sometimes poor, other times craving; the bowels sometimes loose, other times constipated. A yellow mucus collects around the anus. The animal is likely to run down, become thin and poor, the breath generally has a foul odor; the belly may become large, "pot belly." The horse turns up its lips and rubs them against the wall, or licks the manger and shows uneasiness. Worms may appear in such enormous numbers as to invade the stomach and become very dangerous to the animal. Where affected with Thread Worms, which affects the rectum, the intense itching causes the horse to rub its tail against the wall, or to keep switching it constantly.

DON'T LOSE MONEY Horses, colts, and other animals if stunted in their growth; unthrifty and misshapen by the clogging of worms in the stomach and bowels are not worth as much as thrifty, spirited, healthy, glossy coated horses. "Gold Coin Worm Powder" makes extra money for you by keeping your animals free from worms.
