

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn
Oil cake for sale by W. F. Keeling.

Theo. Hill of Shubert visited Nemaha friends Monday.

Ruby harvester oil—the best—for sale by W. F. Keeling.

We sell carpet and linoleum.
E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen returned from Syracuse, Nebr., last Friday.

Miss Marie Scott went to Auburn Saturday, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smiley came up from Falls City Thursday morning.

Mrs. Andrew of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. G. W. Ayers Tuesday.

Mrs. C. W. Roberts and Miss Lockie returned from Kansas City Wednesday.

Miss Rose Burns of Shubert is visiting Nemaha friends. She came Wednesday.

John W. Colerick is marketing the finest new potatoes we have seen this summer.

Miss Merle Shephard of Omaha is the guest of Mrs. Frank Dressler. She came Saturday.

Miss Belle Galloway of Auburn came in Wednesday and is the guest of Miss Maude Burns.

Mrs. J. W. Ritchey went to Brownville Wednesday evening, returning the next forenoon.

Still have a few set of harness left, will sell cheap.
E. & B. Lbr. Co.

M. T. Hill and Bertie drove up from Shubert Tuesday to visit friends and see a good town.

Miss Norah Burson went to Shubert Friday evening, returning to Nemaha Wednesday morning.

The rural carriers are making their full routes this week, for the first time since the heavy rains.

Miss Elizabeth Hawxby, who has been attending summer school at Chicago, returned home Monday.

Joe Titus went to Syracuse Saturday to visit his brother, A. R. Titus, returning Tuesday evening.

C. H. Kindig, who has been at Redfield, South Dakota, for a few days, returned home Tuesday evening.

Carl Bennett has rented the house west of N. C. Jarvis' store building and will move in in a few days.

Miss Mae McKinney of Wyoming, who has been visiting Mrs. Harry Hoover, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Mattie Suter of Omaha came down Tuesday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark.

Misses Edith and Lala Hill came up from Shubert Thursday morning to visit their grandmother until after the picnic.

Mrs. A. G. Warren was called to Central City, Iowa, a few days ago by the serious illness of a daughter, and Al is baching while she is gone. He lives mostly on crackers and cheese.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lawhon came in from Auburn Wednesday afternoon and are visiting Mrs. Chas. C. Clark.

Mrs. John Minick and children drove down from their home near Dunbar Tuesday and will remain until after the picnic.

Miss Dillie Webber of Auburn returned home Wednesday after a few days' visit at the home of her brother, John T. Webber.

Dan Bennett has bought of Mrs. Theo. Hill the lot and small house north of Mrs. Seymour Howe's, and will soon move in.

Ed L. Paris and family of Long Island, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Thursday afternoon to visit old friends and attend the picnic.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Marie, who have been visiting at Kansas City for the past three weeks, returned home last Friday.

We understand Lanc Whitten and Miss Inez Chandler, both residents of Aspinwall precinct, were married at Falls City Monday.

John I. Dressler went to Missouri Monday to look after a lawsuit over some land in which he is interested. He returned Wednesday.

Mrs. John W. Skeen and Mrs. F. K. Skeen of Ord, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday, to visit relatives and friends and take in the picnic.

Lemeul Stillwell, living in central Iowa, arrived in Nemaha Thursday on a visit to his brother, Chas. Stillwell, whom he has not seen for twenty years.

SPECIALS

Our Clearing Sale is now in progress. Call in and see the many bargains that we have for you in Summer Goods.

- Good Lawn at 9, 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents per yard
- Ladies' White Canvas Slipper, regular $1.50 and $1.35, at now 98c
- Misses' White Canvas Slipper, size 12 to 2, regular $1.25, now 80c
- Child's White Canvas Slipper, 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 12 69c
- Child's White Canvas Slipper, 6 to 8 59c
- Ladies' Wrapper, regular 85c now 55c
- Persian Lawn in white, regular 25c, now 13c
- Persian Lawn in white, regular 20c, now 11c

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB.

Miss Elsie Hartwig, who has been visiting her brother, Geo. Hartwig, for the past three weeks, returned to her home at Bancroft, Nebr., Monday.

Mrs. Alice A. Minick of Brownville and Miss Alice Hitte of Shenandoah, Iowa, who has been visiting her for several days, drove down to Nemaha Monday.

Mrs. Alice West of Garnett, Kansas, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Mrs. Geo. Yackly. This is Mrs. West's first visit to Nemaha since she left here twenty-two years ago. She came last Friday.

Fred Seabury has rented a house in Peru, near the normal building, and will move there probably next week. Misses Opal and Bea will attend the normal.

E. E. Moore a few days ago sold a fine young Jersey red sow to O. P. Dovel & Son of Auburn. The price was $40. Ed has some fine stock and his prices are reasonable.

Harry Baldwin, Ned Crother, Rolla Morton and Willie Kerker who are working with the Burlington fence gang, came up from Humboldt Thursday morning, to stay until Monday.

Great Closing Out Sale

A Saving of from 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ to 50 per cent on Men's, Youths and Boys Clothing.

Genuine Closing Out Sale of the stock of merchandise in the Vanderslice building still continues, though the auction part has been postponed indefinitely.

A saving of from 50c to $1.00 a pair on Men's Shoes

A big lot of Ladies' and Children's Oxfords at just one-half the former price

The Largest Stock of

Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats, Shoes, and Groceries

in Nemaha is now on the market at unheard-of prices. Are you getting your share of the many bargains? If not, why not? This opportunity of purchasing good reliable merchandise at less than the wholesale price does not present itself every day.

You will pay from one-half to double the price on a great many articles of useful merchandise after this sale is over.

A big cut in Men's Youths' and Boys' HATS

A few Summer Caps at just 1-2 former price

It is a business proposition for you, making you a bigger per cent on your money than you can possibly get otherwise.

H. A. NOBLE & CO.,
NEMAHA, NEBR.

C. W. Sturgeon, Manager.

Highest Market Price paid for Butter, Eggs and Chickens, in Merchandise at lower prices than any one dare make.