To the people of Nemaha county:

Ed L. Culver and family of South Omaha came to Nemaha Saturday evening on a visit to Mrs. Culver's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling, and her brother W. F. Keeling. Mr. Culver returned Monday morning.

Harry, Flossie and Helen Parker came in from Auburn Wednesday to visit their grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Berger, until after the picnic.

Dr. W. W. Frazier assisted by Dr. John P. Flack, performed a surgical operation on one of Knapp's horses Monday, cutting out a tumor from one shoulder.

Mrs. Wm. Bridgewater and Geo. and John Sapp of Beaver City, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday afternoon on a visit to their parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp.

Dr. and Mrs. Frazier drove down to Shubert Sunday forenoon and visited friends during the day. The doctor returned that evening and Mrs. Frazier the next morning.

W. E. Hoag was in from Auburn Tuesday shaking hands with friends and letting them know that he was a candidate for the nomination on the republican ticket for district clerk.

W. R. Smith and his mother, Mrs. H. G. Smith, of Brown's Valley, Minn., arrived in Nemaha Tuesday evening on a visit to M. W. Knapp and family. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mr. Knapp.

H. A. Noble & Co., after trying an auction sale for a little over a week, concluded it didn't pay, so will not have any more auctions for the present at least. The auctioneer, C. C. Henriksen, left Monday.

Miss Grace Paris, who for two years has been teaching at Wenatchee, Washington, arrived in this county Thursday of last week, and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Blount. She was in Nemaha Tuesday, greeting her many friends.

Dr. W. W. Frazier is having an office built on the corner lot west of the Odd Fellows building, which he recently bought. The office is 16x20 and is on the east end of the lot. He will build a five room cottage on the west end this summer.

A. V. Farson, sr., asks us to return the heartfelt thanks of himself and family to the friends and neighbors who were so kind and attentive during the long sickness of his wife, and at her death and burial. Their kindness will never be forgotten.

Shelby W. Eustice is a candidate for the republican nomination for clerk of the district court. Mr. Eustice is one of the bright young men of Auburn, clean, honest, energetic, a good citizen, and a man who would make a good official. He stands well wherever known.

Shubert seems to be losing her professional citizens. Last week Dr. Willis moved to the western part of the state, and the first of this week, W. H. Morrow, their attorney, moved to Lincoln. Both these moves may have been caused by the fact that Shubert has no saloon now. There is less use for a doctor and very little for a lawyer in a small town without a saloon.

We received an invitation to attend the chautauqua at Nebraska City Friday of this week as guest of the association. A banquet will be given at the Watson hotel, and in the afternoon Senator LaFollete will make an address. We hate to miss these good things, but can't attend the picnic and the chautauqua both on the same day, so we will have to give up the chautauqua greatly to our regret.

Persons having cows can place same in pasture picnic day.
F. L. WOODWARD.

Carl E. Sanders, who recently moved to Garretson, South Dakota, going into partnership with his brother, John G. Sanders, in the publication of the Garretson News, has bought the interest of his brother in the office. John has accepted a position at Red Lodge, Montana, at a salary of $35 per week. He left for his position Monday night.

Will Discuss London Bonds
The county commissioners will meet at the court house, Aug. 6, to discuss the matter of refunding to the taxpayers of London and Brownville precincts the amount of excess taxes paid for the retirement of the railroad bonds. It is expected that a large delegation of citizens of those two precincts will be present.—Republican.

Bought Merry-Go-Round.
Joseph Bunker and his cousin, Clarence Daugherty, bought from Mr. Darling last Saturday the merry-go-round which has been in town for the past two weeks, and are now operating it. They will go to Nemaha for the old settlers picnic, and to Auburn for the German American picnic. They are hustlers and will make a success of the business.—Peru Pointer.

Judge M. B. Reese made a mistake in the date of the picnic and came down from Lincoln Wednesday evening. He will remain, however, and give the address for which he is scheduled. The judge is being pushed for the republican nomination for judge of the supreme court, and has the endorsement of a large number of the newspapers of the state, as well as many of the leaders in the republican ranks. He will make a strong candidate if nominated.

On August 1st Mr. L. P. Utterback will retire from active connection with the firm of Utterback, Sargeant and Rice Co., but will retain an interest in the firm. He has not decided definitely what he will do but may enter again into the wholesale dry goods line in which he has had many years experience. Mr. C. E. Hill, of Lincoln, for some years past representing the Dolan Mercantile Co., of Atchison in this territory has been engaged to cover Mr. Utterback's former territory and will begin his new duties on August 1st.—Neb. City Tribune.

Mentally Unbalanced.
The trouble which Elmer Robins has been having during the past few weeks culminated Saturday in his being taken before the insanity board, who, on Monday, decided that he was mentally unbalanced, and placed him in the care of his father, with instructions to keep him out of town. On Tuesday morning, however, Elmer came down town in spite of his father, and he was then turned over to Constable Longfellow again, and was taken to Auburn that afternoon. The board then decided that it was best to take him to the asylum, and the sheriff accordingly left for Lincoln with him Wednesday afternoon.—Peru Pointer.

"Regular as the Sun" is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by Hill Bros, druggists. 25c.

Another Fire at Brownville.

Brownville seems to be especially unfortunate with fires lately. Tuesday a large barn and hay shed belonging to a Mr. Kerns, living in the south part of town was burned. The hay shed had been filled with alfalfa hay a few days previously. One load was a little green, but it was thought not enough to hurt. But about ten o'clock Tuesday forenoon there was a loud report caused by an explosion of gases, as a result of spontaneous combustion, and smoke began to roll out. In a short time there was plenty of help, and with liberal applications of water it was extinguished. But later it broke out again and the barn was burned. It contained forty tons of alfalfa hay and about 500 bushels of corn. The barn was worth about $500. There was no insurance.
