Wesley Johnson, an aged resident of Auburn, who is one of the old timers in the county, died at the home of Geo. Coulter Saturday night. His wife is very feeble and it is thought cannot live long.

E. L. Paris and family of Long Island, Kas., arrived in Nemaha Thursday of last week and are thoroughly enjoying themselves visiting old friends. Ed says it is a little dry where he is, or has been, but he is doing pretty well.

Mrs. Martha McNown, mother of Frank L. McNown, a former teacher in Nemaha, died at her home in Peru early Saturday morning, aged 76 years, 11 months and 15 days. She had been a resident of Peru since 1863.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Skeen of Eskridge, Kansas, arrived here last week, on a visit to old friends of Mr. Skeen, and to attend the old settlers picnic. They were the guests of Mr. Skeen's sister, Mrs. C. W. Roberts, several days.

Miss Pearl Burns complains that we never mentioned the fact that she was auntie to the "finest twin babies in Nebraska," born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burgess of Syracuse July 5. We humbly apologize, but we knew nothing of it.

Carlo, the black dog belonging to the livery barn, was killed by the merry-go-round on picnic day. He was investigating the machinery when it started up and he was run over and killed. Carlo was a favorite and his untimely end is regretted.

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Dressler went to Springfield, Nebr., last Friday evening to attend a reunion of the Dressler family, a number of relatives being present from Pennsylvania. Forty-two relatives were present. Among them was an uncle of Mr. Dressler's who is 88 years of age. He has been living in Kansas but is going back to Pennsylvania to spend the remainder of his days. Mr. and Mrs. Dressler thoroughly enjoyed the reunion. They returned Monday.

We are a little late with The Advertiser this week, on account of picnics and sickness in the family of Miss May Kerker, our principal compositor.

We had a heavy rain Wednesday night, accompanied with a hard wind and much lightning. The rainfall was two and a quarter inches. A number of trees were blown down and branches broken off. C. L. Russell's hay shed was broken into and part of it blown away.

Notice for Bids

Bids will be received until Aug. 20, 1907, at 6 o'clock p. m., for janitor of the school building. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the school board.
 A. R. MCCANDLESS, Sec'y.

On Tuesday there was a pleasant gathering at the poor farm. R. I. Brown, the superintendent, invited the Clark and Paris families and immediate neighbors to a picnic gathering, and of course they responded. Forty-three were present beside the Brown family. A delightful day was passed.

Some weeks ago The Advertiser said that Will Parriott had said he would not be a candidate for county judge. We did not make this announcement to injure Mr. Parriott's chances in any way, but because we were so informed. However, Mr. Parriott is now a candidate for the nomination on the fusion ticket, scrapping with Fred G. Hawxby for that honor.

A New Store.

Wm. Filmer, the merchant prince of St. Deroin, has decided to locate in Nemaha. He has rented the corner store building owned by N. C. Jarvis and recently vacated by Wm. Snelling, and will put in a stock of groceries and dry goods. He went to Nebraska City Tuesday and bought his groceries. They arrived Thursday evening. He will move his family up at once and will then go to St. Joe and buy his stock of dry goods.

We understand Mr. Filmer will continue the store at St. Deroin.
