

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.
Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

The editor of this family newspaper believes that either Judge Sedgwick or Judge Reese would be all right on the bench. We believe Judge Sedgwick's record while a judge has been a good one, and the same can be said of Judge Reese while he was on the bench. Either will be satisfactory and will faithfully serve the people.

We are informed by parties living in Brownville that there has been a wonderful change in that village since the saloons were closed. People are no longer kept awake at night by the howling and disorderly conduct of drunken men. You cannot convince people there that just as much whiskey is drunk whether they have a saloon or not. They know better.

Athletic Director Pinneo of the Lincoln Y. M. C. A., is preparing an elaborate program of foot races to occur between heats of the horse races at the State Fair, Lincoln, for Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 4th and 5th. One of the events in which this county should participate is the County Relay Race, in which four of our best runners should uphold the reputation of this, the best county of the best state on earth.

The advocates of saloons in Shubert claim that trade is leaving that town because they have no saloons. But we are informed on good authority that the books of the merchants show an entirely different state of affairs. One merchant says his sales are from $100 to $250 per month better this summer than they were a year ago. Other merchants testify to about the same state of affairs. They do not want saloons again.

A Flimsy Charge.

On the request of Mr. Searson a committee of the State Board of Education met at Lincoln, August 10 to investigate a rumor circulated against him by a young woman, a former student at the State Normal school. This young woman and three or four friends, to whom she had told the story last spring, were summoned and appeared before the committee. This young woman claims to have clairvoyant powers through which she could feel the presence of those she did not see and could read their thoughts. She also depended upon another young woman under whom she has been studying psychic-phenomena and under whom she has been reading.

The story told to the committee seemed unworthy of serious consideration because of its unreasonableness and because of the absurd claims which the girl makes. However, apparently not satisfied, she decided to bring an action in the county court at Auburn. Mr. Searson went there and gave bond for his appearance at the next session of the district court. This is the present status of the case.

Mr. Searson's friends, especially those who have heard the story, are firm in the conviction that it is a flimsy tale. It is the opinion of the writer that absolute justice should be done and we know that no fair-minded school man or woman will pass judgment against a man whose character has been so absolutely above reproach, without evidence of a substantial character. Any school man, no matter how careful he may have been, might find himself confronted by just such a charge should he happen at any time to have in his class a foolish, sentimental, hysterical girl.—Nebraska Teacher.

Mason Pleads Guilty to Arson

Tells Story of Being Hired to Burn Barn at Brownville.

Auburn, Nebr., Aug. 17.—A short session of the district court was held yesterday. Judge Raper of Pawnee presiding. Edward Mason, who was indicted for arson by the grand jury at the June term, was arraigned and plead guilty. The charge against Mason was the burning of the livery barn at Brownville on March 18. At the same time John J. Ackerman, the owner of the barn, was also indicted for procuring Mason to burn the barn with the intent to defraud the German Mutual Insurance Co., of Omaha. Mason made a statement of facts in the case, which is substantially as follows: That Ackerman hired Mason and one Joseph Andrews to burn the barn and agreed to pay them for the job the sum of $40. That during the month of February Ackerman made a trip west and the barn was to be burned at this time, but at this time Ackerman had placed the money in the hands of one Ward, a barber of Brownville, and Mason and Andrews refused to pull off the job until Ward paid the money and this Ward refused to do, insisting that the job must be pulled off before the money should be paid. Ackerman then came home and made due arrangements about the money and paid a part of it in advance and then went to Nebraska City and that night the barn was burned. The county attorney swore out a complaint before the county judge, charging Joseph Andrews with the crime of arson in connection with Mason and Andrews was arrested and is now in jail. A preliminary examination will take place today. Ackerman was arrested some time ago and gave bail and his case will be on trial in the September term.

A Former Nemaha Boy Honored.

Having always been a democrat and done much for the good of his party it is no surprise that his party recognized his worth and accordingly nominate such a capable man as John H. Buchenau for clerk of the district court.

Mr. Buchenau is a western product and is as gritty as its sands. He was born on a farm in Nemaha county, Nebraska, September 10, 1878. Received his first education in the public schools of Lincoln, Nebraska. Afterwards attended high schools in Idaho and also Nebraska. He was also a student at the Nebraska State normal.

He came to Oklahoma in December, 1899. Taught school his first year in Rogers District No. 50, and was afterwards assistant principal of Arapaho public schools for three years.

As an educator he is considered among the best and from pioneer days until the present time Mr. Buchenau has been of that class of citizen that has helped to bring Oklahoma and Custer county to its present high standard.

For three years Mr. Buchenau has been in the abstract business at the county seat of Custer county, Arapaho, and is known for his good business qualifications and many excellent traits of character.

The democratic party could not have selected a better man to represent them in this district as clerk of the court.—Tribune, Thomas, Oklahoma.

John's Nemaha friends are pleased to read the above warm endorsement. He has their best wishes for success.

Grandma Culp in Lincoln

Although more than 100 years of age, Mrs. Elizabeth Culp will this morning attend church at the East Side Christian church and raise her voice in reverent worship of the God she has served for eighty-three years. Mrs. Culp resides with her son, John W. Culp at 2410 Vine street. She will be 101 years of age on September 15.

This morning, the Rev. Z. O. Doward of the East Side Christian church will have an "Old Folk's Day" more than twenty-five aged persons being expected. But the oldest guest will be Mrs. Culp, the oldest person now living in Lincoln. Mrs. Culp has been a member of the church since 1824 when she joined the Presbyterian faith. In 1873 she joined the Christian church and has retained her membership since. She expects to help celebrate the centennial year of the church, 1909.

Mrs. Culp was born in Schuylkill, county, Pa., September 15, 1806, in the days when the United States proper did not extend west of the Allegheny mountains. Ohio and Kentucky were then the scenes of fierce conflicts between the Indians and the hardy pioneers. Nebraska was unknown to the white man save the few traders who had canoed up the Missouri river in search of furs.

Mrs. Culp moved to Illinois at an early day and more than fifty years ago again moved to the west, settling in Nemaha county. There she lived until recently, when she took up her home with her son in Lincoln. She is the mother of five boys and four girls. Her oldest son is a grizzled veteran of the Civil war. He is spending his days in the soldiers' home at Milford. Two other sons enlisted in that war.

When Mrs. Culp joined the Christian church, she was baptized in the Missouri river. The ice was a foot thick and the black current was running like a mill race but she declares, today, that that heroic baptism was the best act of her life. After immersion, she rode a mile in her wet garments, the day being bitterly cold.

Mrs. Culp eats and sleeps like a child. She is an entertaining talker and conversation with her is enlivened by jest and laughter. Although thirty years past the allotted three score and ten years, she seems in excellent health. Among the other guests at the East Side Christian church today will be a man of 94 years, and a woman 87 years of age and a great many more than 70 years of age.—Lincoln Star.

No petitions were filed from this precinct for any precinct officers. The attorney general has ruled that no nominations can be made by writing in names, but many good lawyers differ with him in this decision.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by All Dealers.

Wm. G. Rutledge is a young attorney for whom we have heard nothing but praise. He is gaining a good practice in Auburn and is proving successful. He is a candidate for the republican nomination for county judge and those who are acquainted with him assure us that no mistake will be made if he is elected to that important position. He will look carefully after the duties of the office and is well qualified to attend to the many and varied duties.

Frederick Mayer, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner, came to this county thirty-five years ago, buying a farm two miles west of the present village of Howe, where he has lived ever since. He is one of the substantial German farmers of this county, a man of the highest integrity, of good judgment, good business ability, and who will, if elected, look carefully after the interests of the county.

See his announcement on the last page.

Shelby W. Eustice, who is a candidate for the nomination on the republican ticket for clerk of the district court, is a young man of high character and has proven himself an efficient worker in whatever position he has been placed. He has a host of warm friends who are working hard for his nomination to the position to which he aspires, and if nominated and elected he promises to put forth every effort to prove to the people that they have made no mistake in selecting him for that office—and that he will do this we haven't any doubt.
