

Mrs. Helen Matthews came down from Omaha Thursday evening.

Agent Glenn sold sixty tickets to Brownville Thursday. A great many drove up.

At the primary next Tuesday the polls will be open from 12 noon until 9 o'clock p. m.

Brownville's "Homecoming" was a great success in every respect. It will be made an annual event.

J. W. Smith, who has been at home sick with malaria for about two weeks, returned to Peru Friday morning.

We are a half day late with the paper this week on account of the editor running away Thursday to attend the Brownville picnic.

When you step into your booth to vote next Tuesday, look down the line for Kuper's name, and make a cross there just for conscience sake. X

J. N. Smith, who moved here three or four weeks ago, from Belleville, Kas., did not tarry long, but moved to Marysville, Mo., Thursday.

Elder Boyer, pastor of the Christian church at Shnbert, was in Nemaha a few hours Monday. The elder lives at Bethany and was on his way home.

Ed Sanders of London precinct started for Harrisburg, the county seat of Banner county, Nebr., Wednesday, to take charge of the school of that place.

An extra train ran from Nebraska City to Tecumseh and return Sunday. Agent Glenn went out to Tecumseh with it and visited with Agent Drysdale for awhile.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders went to Brownville Thursday afternoon and from there to the home of her son, G. E. N. Sanders, in London precinct, where she will visit for a week or two.

Clif Fankell of Stella stopped in Nemaha over night Friday. He says he stayed just to make a horse trade, but we believe it was just to get another good meal from Mrs. M. W. Knapp.

Mrs. Ellen Flack is now a resident of Auburn. She recently bought property on Maxwell street, two blocks south of the Athens school house, and went out Wednesday to take possession.

J. M. Alread of St. Deroin was in Nemaha a few hours Tuesday afternoon on his way home from Council Bluffs, Iowa, where he had been for two weeks attending revival meetings.

The following is said to be a popular refrain in Brownville: "Said old Obidiah to young Obidiah, 'I am dry, Obidiah, I am dry!' "Said young Obidiah to old Obidiah, 'So am I, Obidiah, so am I!'"

Miss Nora Aynes has been installed as clerk in the postoffice and angel in the Advertiser office. Miss May Kerker quit last week, after having worked in the Advertiser office and postoffice for almost three years, and Miss Grace Peabody, who has worked in both offices for over a year and a half, will leave us this week to go to Beatrice to attend business college. So we have two new angels—Misses Alice Peabody and Nora Aynes.

Miss Bessie Dressler and Bert went to Auburn last Friday and the next day went to Omaha to visit their brother, W. H. Dressler, until Thursday.

A. H. Gilmore, president of the Gilmore-Armstrong Co. of Auburn, died at noon Thursday. Mr. Gilmore was one of the old time merchants of Brownville, was county treasurer four years, and one of the leading citizens of Auburn.

Seid's corn sheller had to quit work awhile last Friday on account of bumblebees. The machine was at Robt. Jones' when the men who were scooping corn disturbed a nest of bumblebees in the corn crib. They had to quit work after a lively fight, while some of them were stung, and before they could do any thing the engine had to kill the bees with steam.

We turned the office over to the angels Thursday and went to Brownville on the 6:40 train in the morning and stayed until the 7 o'clock evening train. We enjoyed every minute of our absence, visited with friends we had not seen for years, forgot all about the paper and the post-office, and had a general good time. We will tell about Brownville's great "Homecoming" next week.

Shelby W. Eustice is one of the brightest young men of Auburn. He has been studying law and conducting a real estate and loan agency, is justice of the peace, has a good knowledge of law, is a nice penman, will keep all records in the best of shape, is courteous and accommodating, and if selected as clerk will undoubtedly give the very best of satisfaction. Vote for him next Tuesday. AUBURN.

Opening of School Postponed

The school board has decided that it is for the best interests of the school to postpone the opening until one week from next Monday. By that time it is hoped the heating plant will be installed, the dirt hauled out of the yard, possibly new seats put in the intermediate department, and other necessary work done, and the school can start off in good shape.

The Titus Nursery seems to be hoodooed so far as fires are concerned. A couple of years ago the office building and contents were burned, and a few months later a barn went up in smoke. A few days ago it was discovered that some time recently a cow barn had been struck by lightning—just when is not known. The barn has a tin roof and where there was a nail the tin had been melted and a hole made about the size of a quarter. The two boards forming one corner had been knocked off. A groove had been dug in one board near the top of the barn, and several holes made in other boards lower down. The barn was not in use and fortunately had no hay in it or it would undoubtedly have burned.

A Humane Appeal

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St. says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Hill Bros. drug store. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

Last week W. H. Ressler of Bedford precinct sold his fine farm of 160 acres to D. Harmes, jr., for $135 per acre. It takes a rich man to buy a farm in Nemaha county now, and the price is constantly soaring.

Mrs. Mary Richards, wife of Chas. Richards, died Wednesday forenoon, at the poor farm, where she had been taken a few weeks ago. Several months ago she became afflicted with what some physicians pronounced paralysis and others a form of rheumatism, losing the use of her lower limbs. After being treated here for some time she was taken to the Methodist hospital at Omaha and stayed there awhile but with little benefit. After her return to Nemaha she was taken to the poor farm where she could get better care than her aged husband was able to give her. Four days before her death had another stroke of paralysis and was entirely helpless and unconscious until her death. She was buried in the Nemaha cemetery Thursday, funeral services being held at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. G. W. Ayers.

Fred. G. Hawxby has not Been a Continous Office Seeker.

The fusion friends of Fred. G. Hawxby desire to call the attention of the voters to the fact, that while F. G. Hawxby was a representative to the legislature from the district one term, he refused to accept the nomination as a candidate for reelection.

In 1901 he was tendered the nomination for the office of County Judge but refused the honor, preferring to have some actual experience in the practice of law before attempting to hold the office of either County Judge or County Attorney.

Mr. Hawxby assures the voters that if nominated and elected to the office of County Judge, he will be governed by the principles of equality before the law, equal rights to all and special privileges to none.—Granger.
