Both Phones No. 20

NEMAHA, NEB.

We received a letter from J. J. Alexander, of Frankton, Ind., a few days ago. Mr. Alexander says to "tell the people of Nemaha and vicinity that they are still remembered by me." He says times are fairly good there. Cosn is a little late.

Otto Barker who has been visiting and working for his Uncle, C. F. Barker, near Hartington, Nebr., returned home Wednesday night. He informs us that his uncle was married Monday. Mrs. Gertie Galbraith, who has been visiting her uncle, expects to return home the first of next week.

The Fuller farm of 80 acres, southwest of Nemaha, was sold at referee's sale last Saturday. Dan Maxwell was the successful bidder, paying $5066 for it—$63.33 an acre. Most of the farm is rough, but there is a good orchard on it, and the price is low in comparison with the way farms have been selling. Dat will not move on it but will rent it.

Monday was the fourth anniversary of the marriage of E. H. and Eva Knapp, and Ed invited us to dinner. It is needless to say that we accepted, and in company with Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Knapp, Mrs. M. A. Curtis, Carl Bennett, Ruth, Imogene and Jefferson Knapp we sat down to a splendid repast. It is our "private opinion publicly expressed" that Ed was a fortunate man when he persuaded his wife to say yes to his pleadings.

Nemaha had the appearance of a railroad town Monday morning. Train 128 left here about 7 o'clock. In about an hour the engine and coach for the stock extra came in from the north, and while this engine was at the tank taking water a work train came in from the north. The stock extra took four cars of cattle shipped by John M. Clark and went back north. The work train, in charge of Conductor Hohaus, took on board the Nemaha section men and went on to Verdon to work on the track that was washed out sometime ago.

The Holiness Church of Christ is holding a ten days' camp meeting in the park, beginning last night. They have a large tent and a number of ministers are present—Bros. Orr of Thurman, Iowa, Lane and Force of Bellevue, Nebr., Rumbaugh of Shubert, Shafer and Vice of St. De-roin—and others are expected. Everybody is invited to attend the meetings.

John M. Clark shipped four car loads of fine cattle from Nemaha Monday morning. At Brownville seventeen or eighteen more loads were shipped by Messrs. John Bath, Thos. Bath and E. C. Magor, the whole making a train load. A crew came down from Nebraska City and went to Chicago with them. Mr. Clark and Ray went with the train from Nemaha.

Joseph Thompson of Talmage, Neb., paid us a pleasant visit Tuesday. Mr. Thompson is an old settler, coming to this county in 1856. In 1861 he married the daughter of Uncle John Shuck, living then in Nemaha, but afterward moving on the farm at present owned by August Quiller, west of Nemaha. Mr. Thompson expects to move to the state of Washington soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowell have our best wishes for a happy married life.
