A good many Nemaha citizens went to Nebraska City this morning to attend the circus.

Mrs. Ben Parker of Auburn, and the younger children, are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Berger.

Agent Glenn sold 25 tickets for the state fair excursion Tuesday. Not quite so many were sold the next morning.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders, who has been visiting her son, G. E. N. Sanders, in London precinct, returned home Friday morning.

E. H. Knapp is taking the fifteen days vacation allowed to rural carriers. F. E. Hoover, his substitute, is carrying the mail.

The day after the old settlers picnic, one of the ponies Ed Knapp had been driving on the mail route ran a nail in one foot. The pony was doctored but did not get any better, and last Saturday morning lockjaw set in and the pony was killed.

We have received a program of the dedication services of the First Methodist Episcopal church at Bladen, Nebraska, Sunday, September 22, 1907. Rev. M. S. Foutch is pastor. We notice that Rev. A. V. Wilson who was pastor of the church at Bladen for two years, being succeeded a year ago by Rev. Foutch, will preach the sermon Sunday evening, the 22nd. We are pleased to learn that Rev. Foutch is doing good work at Bladen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bamer have this week moved from Iowa Point, Kan., to Daykin, Nebr. Mr. Bamer is in the employ of the Burlington Route and has been the agent at Iowa Point. He will now act in that capacity at Daykin, and the change is a desirable one. Mrs. Bamer was in Tecumseh the first of the week, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cook.—Tecumseh Tribunal.

Mr. Bamer was agent at Brackeen for awhile.

A Fine Bunch of Cattle

A letter from the weekly Live Stock Report of Chicago says that John M. Clark's cattle, shipped Monday, sold on Wednesday's market at Chicago within ten cents of the extreme top. So fine a bunch of cattle were they that the Live Stock Report had a large half tone cut made of the cattle from a photograph and will print it in this week's paper.

We have made arrangements to get the cut and will print it in next week's paper, together with weight of cattle, price, etc.

The Nemaha Schools

A Few Words from the Principal

We are at the beginning of another school year and as each year's work should show marked improvement along all lines we trust that we may secure and maintain this higher standard of excellence. Many improvements are being made by the board for the convenience, comfort and welfare of the children. The "course of study" has been revised and rules and regulations governing the school have been adopted. A copy of the course of study and rules and regulations will be provided each family in the district as soon as printed.

We ask for the hearty support and co-operation of the patrons of the school that the greatest benefit possible may be derived for the children. We cordially invite all to visit the school and observe carefully the work done.

If there are some things requested and required which you do not understand the reasons therefor, come and talk to us about it that there may be no misunderstandings that will hinder the advancement of your children or the cause of education.

MRS. KINDIG, Principal.

Cards are out announcing the marriage on Wednesday, Sept. 4, 1907, of Miss Mosselene Clare Diltz, daughter of Postmaster T. C. Diltz of Brownville, and Chester M. Clark of Lexington, Neb. The many friends of the bride in Nemaha extend heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Postmaster B. H. Bailey of Brock was stricken with paralysis Wednesday and his death is expected. He is an old and highly respected citizen of this county, an old soldier, and has been postmaster of Brock for a number of years.

Health in the Canal Zone

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Hill Bros., druggists. 25c.
