

Miss Minnie May went to Peru Wednesday morning, returning in the evening.

The long wished for rain came Thursday night, much to the relief of every one.

Mrs. J. P. Cohoe of Auburn came in to Nemaha Wednesday afternoon, going on to Brownville the next morning.

Miss Grace Else of Shubert is attending the Nemaha school. She is staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smiley.

Mrs. Geo. Hartwig left Thursday morning for a visit with relatives and friends at Fremont, Wakefield, Hooper, and Bancroft, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lafollette of Lincoln came down to Nemaha last Saturday evening and visited his sister, Mrs. Dr. Frazier, returning this morning.

Little Nita Dillon of Peru, came home with Miss Minnie May Wednesday evening and will visit her for a week. She is only three years old.

G. N. Titus was elected state delegate by the republicans last Saturday, to go to Lincoln and assist in making the state platform. The members of the state central committee will then be chosen.

Rev. G. W. Ayers will preach his last sermon before conference Sunday evening. It is expected that he will be returned to Nemaha and Howe for another year. His return has been requested.

Rev. G. W. Ayers was called to Howe last Saturday to conduct the funeral services of Mrs. Sarah A. Taylor, who died at Auburn Thursday evening as a result of a broken hip she sustained about ten days previous. She was over 80 years old. She had lived in Howe for about 20 years and was buried in the cemetery at that place.

Colonel T. J. Majors of Peru was recently granted a pension. The colonel has always said that he would never apply for a pension until the law was passed giving every old soldier a pension, and he kept his word. When the service pension law was passed he made application under it and was promptly allowed $12 a month. The colonel thinks he can now get along without worrying so much over provision for old age, as he thinks his pension, with what he can get together on the side will keep him and his wife.

A Noble Tree

T. J. Hall of St. Derooin says the finest shade tree he has ever seen, and he has traveled extensively, is a white elm tree at the old town site of Hillsdale, about six miles southeast of Nemaha—on land owned by John H. Morehead of Falls City. It is a magnificent tree, with limbs extending seventy-five feet each side of the tree, making a circle of shade 150 feet in diameter and 450 feet in circumference. The tree is about three feet in diameter at the base, about fifty feet in height, and very symmetrical.

Wm. G. Maxwell appears to be a frequent victim of runaway accidents. A few days ago he drove a young horse to his 53 acre farm, where there was a hay baler at work. He led the horse up to the baler and he didn't get scared, but just then one of the workmen fell off the baler almost under the horse's feet. The horse wheeled and started to run, knocking Billy down, the buggy running over him. He sustained some severe bruises and has had a stiff neck since. The horse started for home, ran into a telephone pole and broke loose from the buggy, and ran on with the broken shafts dangling at his side. He was caught without any trouble when he got home.

The county commissioners appear to be "up against it" this fall. They have a lot of work to do in building bridges, repairing roads, etc., but can't get men to do the work. The railroads are paying $1.75 a day for laborers, in some cases $2, and $4 a day for men with teams. At the canning factories men can make from $2 to $3 per day. Farmers are paying big wages for help, from $1.75 to $2 per day and board in many cases. Everybody that will work is busy, and the commissioners find it impossible to get men to do the work that is necessary to be done to keep the roads and bridges in good condition. They have the will and are willing to spend the money but simply can't find the laborers.

Fifty Years Old.

The editor is fifty years old today. For half a century we have endured the trials and tribulations and enjoyed the blessings of this life, and so well satisfied are we that we would like to have at least fifty years longer lease of life. With the exception of about a year when our parents lived in Pawnee county, in 1863-4, we have always lived in Nemaha county, being born six miles northwest of Nemaha, near the old Fairview church.

We got what little education we have in Nebraska schools, learned the printers trade in Brownville, married a Nemaha county born girl, and expect to spend the remainder of our days in Nemaha county.

We first made our home in Nemaha in 1880. The railroad had built here the fall before and was then building on west.

David Tourtelot kept a general store in a small frame building where J. H. Vanderslice's store building now stands. Wm. Drain carried a stock of boots and shoes, hats, clothing, etc., in the Minick building, and Will Willing had a stock of hardware in the other room. John S. Minick was in the opera house building, Titus & Williams on the corner where the Advertiser office now stands, and Eli Terry where Keeling's drug store now is. J. J. Bender had a stock of drugs in the building owned by M. T. Hill when it burned down. Peter and Ad Kerker had the meat market. J. P. Crother had the harness shop. A lumber yard was on the corner north of the Vanderslice building. Dr. L. M. Foster and Dr. B. Bell Andrews were the physicians. Jim Rees had the livery barn about where Dr. Frazier's new office now is. Nemaha then had three saloons, all three being located in buildings between the barber shop and the corner south.

Dave Morton and S. A. Huntington were the blacksmiths.

The Christian church had just been built, and the Episcopal church stood on the edge of th-bluff east of Mrs. Hoover's residence. Theo. Hill and Henry Carse were the grain buyers.

Levi Johnson was the landlord of the hotel. James A. Titus was the postmaster.

Hogs Dying

Some of our farmers south of Nemaha are losing their hogs from some kind of hog disease. Steve Cooper, who has lost the most of any, says his hogs began to get sick about a week ago. He then had 125 head. Now he has only 20 head left and some of those are sick. It does not act like hog cholera. The hogs appear to have fever. They eat very little and only slop, but drink water very frequently. Some of them are now recovering after being sick three weeks, but the most of them die, especially the young hogs.

Mr. Cooper values his loss already at $600.

J. H. Seid has lost about 40 head, and A. B. Kenton and L. D. Rogers have sick hogs but have only lost one each at the last report.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend
