

Orra Colerick returned from Missouri last Saturday.

Rev. Benj. H. Barton, visited his friend J. H. Vanderslice Thursday of this week.

Roy Coulter of Auburn visited Dr. W. W. Frazier from Thursday evening until Friday morning of this week.

It is about dark now when our rural carriers get in at night. The routes seem awfully long the condition the roads are in.

Miss Muriel Barker gave a party last Saturday night at her home, to a number of her friends. Those present spent a delightful evening.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Woodward of Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 26, 1907, a fine girl. Grandpa and Grandma Woodward are now feeling pretty proud.

The friends of Mrs. Geo. Loughrige will be pleased to learn that the cancer from which she has been suffering so long is cured and she is fast gaining her strength.

Elder Boyer of Bethany, Neb., preached at the Christian church last Sunday morning and evening, in place of Rev. Sapp, who was engaged in the meetings at Phebs, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Sanders were serenaded Saturday night by a quartet of young ladies but the editor feels slighted because they never woke him up and he missed all the good music.

Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Sanders returned to DeWitt, Neb., Monday after a visit of five days in Nemaha. From there they expect to go to Helvey, Neb., Thursday and start to house-keeping. Will is Burlington agent at the latter place.

The postmaster recently received orders from the department to charge 35 cents per quarter here after for lock boxes in the post-office, the price heretofore having been 25 cents. The price of the call boxes has not been changed.

R. J. Skeen of Red Cloud, Neb. gave us a pleasant call Monday afternoon. Mr. Skeen had been visiting at Verdon, Auburn, and Nemaha for several days. His wife has been at Verdon for some time, helping take care of a sister who is very sick.

D. C. Holmes brought to this office Tuesday morning a bunch of pear blossoms in full bloom. This is an unusual occurrence, pear trees blooming in October. Perhaps it is caused by there being no fruit this year, so the trees had time and vigor enough to put out extra bloom.

A. R. Titus recently went out in the Uncompahgre valley, Colorado, and was so well pleased with the country that he bought a farm of 108 acres joining Ora Thorp. Albert has been farming in Otoe county for the past four years and has prospered every year. He is not only a good worker but a good manager and is making a success as a farmer and stock raiser.

At a meeting of the republican state central committee, held Monday at Lincoln, Judge Wm. H. Hayward of Nebraska City was elected chairman of the central committee, the vote being 16 for Judge Hayward and 13 for J. Warren Keifer, jr., of Nuckolls county. Frank P. Corrick of Lincoln was elected secretary and Harry C. Lindsey treasurer and financial agent.

Lew Fisher, who came in from California a few days ago, came down to Nemaha last Saturday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Alf B. Kinton, his brother, John B. Fisher, and other relatives and friends.

While on the train Wednesday of last week we met Willie Christy formally of Brownville but who now lives in Holt county. He tells us that he is prospering, has a farm costing $40 per acre that is fine soil, level and good in every respect. He had in five or six acres of potatoes and cleared $60 per acre from them, on $40 an acre ground. Pretty good, that is.

For Still Hunt.

Nineteen members of the republican county central committee held an enthusiastic meeting at the court house Wednesday afternoon and organized for the campaign. It was decided not to have school house meetings but to conduct a still hunt. In the event Judge Reese or any of the state candidates come the local bunch will help out.—Republican.

Our old friend E. A. Bourne, now of Comanche, Indian Territory, gave us a pleasant call Wednesday afternoon. He is the same old Ed as when he used to go fishing with Theo. Hill in the Nemaha river and practice law and dabble in politics at the same time. He still indulges in politics, as he ran for state senator in the recent election, but as the county was overwhelmingly democratic he just ran and that was all.

I. N. Cooper a few days ago received an invitation urging him to go to Verdon to see the widow of his old colonel, Wm. Penick, of St. Joe, who is visiting Wm. Marsh, one of Mr. Cooper's old comrades. Mrs. Penick desires to see as many as possible of the old soldiers now living who were under her husband in the "late unpleasantness." It will undoubtedly be a pleasant reunion, but with many sad features as well.

Mr. Cooper went down to Verdon Wednesday evening, returning Friday morning.

A large shipment of furniture arrived in Talmage recently from Sears & Roebuck, Chicago, that was in a badly dilapidated state. This particular furniture was purchased for the specific purpose of setting a newly married couple to housekeeping, but we are afraid the bride will have some misgivings and lose much of her confidence in man when she views the battered furniture and broken mirrors, and then the breaking of a mirror always presages trouble. Of course the damage occurred in transportation, but there is a possibility of the furniture not being as good as it should. What are they going to do about it? Nothing, only keep it; that's all the way they can do. But it's safe to say they will buy their furniture at home after this.—Talmage Tribune.

Health in the Canal Zone

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Hill Bros., druggists. 25c.

At a republican candidate and committee meeting held at the court house Wednesday there was considerable harmony when the question of campaign funds was considered for quite generally the candidates were not disposed to be held up by campaign managers and cappers. Superintendent Carrington lead in the discussion declaring that what was wanted was a square deal and a clean campaign. He made some invective references to campaigners of past years and said the people had had enough of that kind of campaigning, and he was one who would not stand for it any longer. Hurrah for Carrington! Let the good work go on until we can have an election by the people and not by the dollars wrung from candidates by campaign managers and hoodlums and used (a part of it only) to corrupt the voters and create disrespect for law and distrust toward a government by the people.—Granger.
