

Moving picture entertainment at the opera house Monday and Tuesday nights.

A laugh from start to finish at the moving picture entertainment at the opera house next Monday and Tuesday nights.

Mrs. E. C. Hodkin of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Nemaha this morning on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Minick of Dewitt arrived in Nemaha Thursday evening, on a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Allen.

Keesler's moving picture company evidently give a good entertainment or they would not stay two nights in a town. At the opera house next Monday and Tuesday nights.

George M. Howell, an old resident of Howe, died at his home in that place Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1907, from a complication of diseases, after a long illness. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. G. W. Ayers, were held Wednesday.

George Madison Howell was born June 9, 1838, in Munsey borough, Tycoming county, Pa. He moved from Pennsylvania to Mason county, Ill., where in 1872 he was married to Mrs. Rebecca Gatline. To this union ten children were born, all of whom are now living excepting one who died in infancy. In 1876 he moved to Howe, where he has since resided.

In 1898 he became a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and in 1905 brought his letter to the M. E. church at Howe. He died in the triumph of the Christian faith.

Prot. C. A. Jones, the Auburn piano tuner, while working in this locality the past few weeks, was called upon to tune many pianos, which had recently been gone over by a fellow who had represented himself to the owners as an experienced, efficient and professional tuner, but whose work on the pianos was such that Professor Jones had to be called to put them in satisfactory shape. Professor Jones gives the names of some of these owners as follows: Henry Fishburn, John B. Stotts, Louie Brisby, M. T. Hill, Geo. Lampert, Billie Williams, Dave Helmick and Mrs. Bergsma of Shubert; Mrs. Lloyd Morris, Misses Grace Higgins and Grace Hodge. A year or so ago a fake piano tuner and organ repairer worked Stella and vicinity, leaving the instruments in worse condition than when he began, and that time as at present Professor Jones was called upon to "straighten out the stranger's undoing," thus entailing a double expense to the owner.

Professor Jones has lived at Auburn for years and makes trips to the surrounding towns several times each year. He does not come here seeking all the work he can get on that particular trip and never expecting to come back because of such poor work that no one would employ him for the second time. On the contrary, he is ever careful, correct and painstaking in the treatment of pianos and organs and he never leaves a piece of work until the instrument is in the best possible condition.—Stella Press.

Prof. Jones will be in Nemaha the remainder of this week and perhaps part of next week. If your piano needs tuning see him.

Elder Samuel Gregg of Fremont, state evangelist, started a protracted meeting at the Christian church Thursday night.

Keesler's moving picture entertainment will be in Nemaha next Monday and Tuesday and is said to be the finest of the kind ever showing in this section. They are at the new opera house in Auburn this week. They carry $1000 worth of films. Go Monday night and see it.

The Election in Nemaha

There was very little work done in Nemaha last Tuesday in rustling voters or trying to advance the interests of either party or any candidate. Every thing passed off quietly. A small vote was cast, only 174 voters exercising the privilege of casting a ballot. The tickets were never scratched so much. Straight tickets were few. The following is the result:

Supreme Judge—Reese 84; Loomis 74.

Regents—Anderson 89, Coupland 89; Millard 80, Sundean 80.

Railway Commissioner—Clarke 88; Lichty 94.

District Judge—Pemberton 86, Raper 94; McCandless 77.

County Clerk—Black 68, Teare 103.

Treasurer—Kuper 82, Young 90.

District Clerk—Beveridge 80, Langford 90.

County Judge—French 76, Parriott 99.

Sheriff—Rohrs 112, Jones 61.

County Superintendent—Carrington 121.

County Commissioner—Cumings 88, Kite 86.

Assessor—Blessing 87, Mestre 81.

Road overseer—Strain 35, Stanley 70.

W. W. Sanders and S. C. Lawrence were elected Justices of the peace and Ben I. Colerick and F. L. Woodward constables.

We did not get the full vote in this precinct as no one copied it from the poll books Tuesday night, and the election board sent both poll books to the county clerk.

Health in the Canal Zone

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Hill Bros., druggists. 25c.

THE RESULT

The Fusionists Elect Three and the Republicans Six

As usual, a mixed ticket was elected in Nemaha county, the republicans electing the treasurer, sheriff, county superintendent, assessor, coroner and county commissioner, and the democrats the county clerk, district clerk and county judge. The following are the majorities received:

County clerk—Teare (dem) 329.

Treasurer—Kuper (rep) 40.

Clerk district court—Langford (dem) 190.

County judge—Parriott (dem) 376.

Sheriff—Rohrs (rep) 756.

County commissioner—Cumings (rep) 190.

County assessor—Blessing (rep) 93.

Carrington, for superintendent, and Fritschel, for coroner, both republican nominees, had no opposition.

Nebraska Stays Republican

M. B. Reese is elected judge of the supreme court by a plurality of about 20,000. The regents are elected by probably a little larger plurality.

Travis, democrat, was elected district judge in the Cass-Otoe district over Root, republican. Paul Jessen is the present judge.

Douglas county elected every republican candidate by good big majorities. Lancaster county did likewise.

Richardson county elects the entire democratic county ticket.

Otoe county elected a democratic county clerk, county judge and district clerk. The republicans elected the treasurer, superintendent, sheriff and assessor.

Johnson county goes republican with the exception of sheriff.

Tuesday's Election

San Francisco elected the anti-graft good government city ticket by a big majorities.

Massachusetts elected the entire republican state ticket.

Maryland went democratic by about 7000.

The result in New Jersey is in doubt.

In Rhode Island the democratic candidate for governor was elected. The legislature is republican, insuring the reelection of United States Senator Wetmore.

Kentucky elected the entire republican state ticket, but the legislature is democratic on joint ballot, and Gov. Beckham will probably be elected to the United States senate.

New York city elected the Tammany candidates. In Brooklyn the republicans won out.

Tom L. Johnson, democrat, was reelected mayor of Cleveland, Ohio. Cincinnati went republican.
