

Monday

Will be the last day of the

CLEARING SALE

at

THE NEW STORE

Sales have been unprecedented the past week.

Some Bargains Still Remain

Take advantage of them before the sale closes.

EARLE CILBERT

Both Phones

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

Jas. A. Stephenson moved to Nemaha Wednesday. We are glad to have Jimmie and his family become residents of our village.

Miss Alice Peabody went to Beatrice last Saturday to visit her sister, Miss Grace Peabody, and attend the Scoville meetings.

Miss Leta Baldwin visited her friends, Misses Bea Seabury and Avis Carse, at Peru, from Monday until Wednesday evening.

Brownie spring skates are easy on your feet and cost no more than the common kind.

E. & B. Lbr. Co.

Eli Knapp and Miss Anna Knapp went to Jewell county, Kansas, Saturday, to visit an uncle, returning Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hodkin left for Mystic, South Dakota, Wednesday, where they will run a boarding house for the Auburn Gold Mining Co.

I need money and must have it. Those indebted to me will please call and settle their accounts at once.

W. H. Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sanders of Smyrna, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha last Saturday and visited relatives until Wednesday, when they went to DeWitt for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Grif Davies of Trenton, Nebr., were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp from Friday until Monday. They were neighbors a number of years ago, in the west.

Frank Dressler lost his hat last Friday afternoon, while returning from Auburn on the train. The breeze took his hat sailing and the train wouldn't wait for him to run it down.

Rev. G. W. Ayers closed his meetings at the Methodist church at Howe Sunday night. There was a good attendance and much interest was manifested. There were several additions to the membership of the church.

At the teachers association at Johnson last Saturday a motion endorsing County Superintendent Carrington for the nomination for state superintendent was carried unanimously. The teachers are enthusiastic for Mr. Carrington.

Henry Seid brought back a fiddle from Kansas City last Saturday, and his neighbors are claiming that he traded his shipment of sheep, cattle and hogs for the fiddle. But Henry appears satisfied, so the rest have no cause for complaint.

J. W. Sapp, sr., of Brownville, has been quite sick for several weeks with symptoms of appendicitis, but is now some better. Rev. J. W. Sapp went to Brownville Monday morning, returning Tuesday evening, and Wednesday made another trip with Dr. Frazier.

A surprise party was given Miss Florence Denny Monday evening by a number of her schoolmates. It was intended to have the party at her home but she went home with Miss Neata Merritt after school, so they went there. The surprise was complete. A very pleasant evening was passed.

IT LOOKS NOW LIKE

Comforts & Blankets

will be needed, as winter is yet to come. Now we have these at different prices. Also

Duck Coats and Overshoes

Bring us in your Poultry, Butter and Eggs

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20

NEMAHA, NEB.

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn Public sale Saturday, Feb. 8.

Old papers for sale at this office.

H. Denny has moved on J. A. Stephenson's farm.

Arthur Stevens of St. Deroin has moved to Auburn.

Miss Ida Young returned from Auburn Wednesday afternoon.

C. F. Zook has been confined to the house for a few days with grip.

J. H. Vanderslice went to Crab Orchard Tuesday, returning the next day.

Judge Broady of Lincoln came to Nemaha Tuesday, returning the next day.

Miss Nora Aynes went to Verdon last Saturday to visit relatives for a few days.

Alf B. Kinton called in Saturday and renewed his subscription for another year.

Miss Maude Miller of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh Sunday.

Mrs. E. Duerfeldt called in last Saturday and renewed her subscription for another year.

C. H. Kindig, who went with the excursion to Texas last week, wired that Geo. Seid bought land there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Smiley came in from Wymore Tuesday and will stay in Nemaha for awhile.

School at Shubert was closed less than a week on account of the scarlet fever scare. It opened again Monday.

F. B. Lowe pays for The Advertiser for six months, which he has sent to his mother, Mrs. M. E. Lowe, Craig, Mo.

Taft clubs are being organized over the state. Why not join the procession and organize a Taft club in Nemaha?

Earle Gilbert has just received a car load of Michigan salt, table salt, rock salt, barrel salt, the saltiest salt you ever saw.

R. I. Brown last Saturday paid for another copy of The Advertiser for a year, to be sent to his daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Scott, Summerfield, Kansas.

Misses Nettie Bunn, Maude Hanger and Dora Morton went to Johnson Saturday and attended the meeting of the county teachers association.

PUBLIC SALE

of

Household Goods

I will offer for sale at my home in Nemaha

SATURDAY, FEB. 8th

beginning at 1:30 p. m., my household goods—bedroom set, bureau, bedsteads, bedsprings, mattresses, chairs, rag carpets, dishes, etc.

TERMS OF SALE, CASH.

W. W. SANDERS

J. I. DRESSLER, Auctioneer

STOVES!

On account of the mild fall so far we have too many stoves left on hand, so we will make prices on them to sell them

If you need a stove now or in the near future it will pay you to get one right now.

Remember, Winter is Just Commencing

One 18-inch Ideal Leader base burner	was 844.00, now $37.00
One 16-inch Illinois heater	was 28.00, now 22.00
One 18-inch Prize Oak heater	was 21.00, now 16.00
Two 14-inch Prize Oak heaters	were 17.00, now 13.00
One 15-inch Hardy Oak heater	was 12.50, now 10.00
One 13-inch Rival Oak heater	was 8.50, now 6.50
One 13-inch Boss Oak heater	was 7.50, now 6.00
Two 11-inch Boss Oak heaters	were 6.75, now 5.00

We also have a few ranges and cook stoves, which we will sell at the same liberal discounts. Don't fail to get one of these stoves. They won't last long at these prices.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.