NEMAHA, NEB

Geo. Kittle, of Sweetwater, Oklahoma, has been visiting friends in Nemaha and vicinity for the past week. George says he likes Oklahoma and has prospered since he went there a number of years ago.

Homer Stokes went to Lincoln Monday, and will take up the work of soliciting members and doing work for the Modern Woodmen of America, having recently been appointed deputy for that fraternal insurance company.

Considerable space is devoted this week to an article on the consolidation of school districts, taken from a publication by the state superintendent a few years ago. Those who are interested in the consolidation of the school districts should read it. It will be followed by other articles along the same line.

The Nemaha schools gave a patriotic entertainment, last Friday afternoon, in honor of the birthdays of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Henry W. Longfellow. The room was crowded with patrons of the school, and all are warm in praise of the entertainment given. Unfortunately the editor was unable to be present on account of sickness.

Sherman May and Chas. Howe attended the meeting of the drainage company at Brock, Monday, taking part in the preliminary arrangements for the straightening of the channel of Nemaha river. The plans and work was left in charge of a committee of five, of which F. E. Allen and Frank Gerlaw are members, and a civil engineer to be employed. Work will be commenced near Brock, and then they will work this way.

Good For Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at all drug stores.

Obituary.

Eulalia Heffman was born in Linn county, Iowa, Dec. 5, 1882, and died in Nemaha, Nebr., Feb. 24, 1908, aged 25 years, 2 months and 19 days. She grew to womanhood in Iowa, and was married March 14, 1900, to Wm. E. Bloom; to this union three children were born, all of whom survive her.

She united with the Christian church at the age of 16, at Central City, Iowa, and has battled her weary way through life supported by Him who is strength to the weak, and present help in every time of need.

She came to Nemaha Aug. 7, 1907, an invalid, and during her lingering illness has made a host of friends who deeply sympathize with the father, mother, brothers and three little children in their sad bereavement.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. W. Sapp, were held at the Christian church, Wednesday, at 11 o'clock a. m. Elder Sapp took the text for his discourse the passage selected by the deceased, John 11:25; "The Master is come and calleth for thee."

Farmers Attention.

The Burlington Route Farm Product Exhibit car will be on the tracks near the depot for three days--March 12, 13 and 14--and farmers are invited to take their wives and spend an hour or two in looking through the car. It contains samples of the wonderful crops grown on irrigated lands along the Burlington Route and also samples of crops grown on irrigated lands west of the hundredth meridian. These lands are in Nebraska, Colorado, Montana and Wyoming. Information and full illustrated literature distributed free.

Ask for D. Clem Deaver, general agent Burlington Route Land Seekers Information Bureau, who is in charge of the car.

The Lucky Quarter

Is the one you paid out for a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They bring you the health that's more precious than jewels. Try them for headache, biliousness, constipation and malaria. If they disappoint you the price will be cheerfully refunded at all drug stores.
