

Knapp & Son broke a colt last Tuesday, which they will add to their livery stock. They also traded one of their teams to Norman Mead for one of his teams, and have that team in the barn.

Chas. Thompson thinks that Col. Harding and Frank Titus can't be beat as auctioneer and clerk for a sale. The Thompsons are well pleased and thank these gentlemen for the success of their sale.

Messrs Bomer and Johnson, of Imperial, Nebr., were visiting their friend, Geo. Lindsey and family, the first of the week. They are real estate men and had been attending the state democratic convention from Dundee county.

E. E. Allen and Mrs. Nellie Titus went to Omaha, Monday morning, to bring Mrs. E. A. Minick home, if she is able to travel. Mrs. Minick has been in the Methodist hospital for several weeks and is now improving quite fast.

J. H. Linn, of Lincoln, came down to Nemaha Saturday, to look after his farm before going to Bellfontaine, Wash., where he and his family will go for a year for the benefit of their daughter, Leta's health. He returned home Wednesday.

A. L. P. Thompson, wife and son took the afternoon train from Nemaha to their home at Shenandoah, Iowa, on Wednesday, after several days visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Thompson came down to look after his sale, which was held on Tuesday.

The members of the A. K. club were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. O. E. Houtz and Miss Minnie May, at the Park hotel, last Friday evening. Forty-one guests were present; the evening was spent in playing social games and conversation; elegant refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. Arthur Tidrow and baby, who have been visiting at the homes of her sisters-in-law, Mesdames Geo. Yackley and F. L. Woodward, returned to her home at Kansas City last Thursday. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Yackley, who will also visit her mother in Garnett, Kansas, before returning home.

Last week Scott Colerick hied himself down to Fort Scott, Kas., where, on last Saturday, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Ella White, of that place. They arrived home Sunday evening, where they will be at home to their friends after April 1. This estimable couple have been acquainted with each other for a good many years. The Advertiser joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

A man can take a newspaper. It is the cheapest thing he can buy. Every time a hen clucks and has laid an egg, his paper is paid for that week. It costs less than a postage stamp. It comes to you rain or shine, calm or stormy. No matter what happens it enters your door a welcome guest, full of sunshine, cheer and interest. It opens the door of the great world and puts you face to face with people and its great events. It shortens the long evening. It is your adviser, gossip and friend. No man is just to his children who does not read the newspaper, and the failure of a man to provide the local papers for his wife should be constitutional grounds for divorce.—Ex.

Collin-Rowen

Married at the home of, and by Rev. J. W. Sapp, on Wednesday evening, March 11, at 8 o'clock, Mr. Harry Rowen to Miss May Collin. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present.

The groom is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Rowen, and has lived in Nemaha and vicinity all of his life, and is a young man of sterling quality. Harry is a number one young man, and is very well liked by all who know him.

This was quite a surprise to the people of Nemaha. The Advertiser joins with their many friends in wishing them a long prosperous and happy life.

Died at his home in Riverton, Sunday morning at 6:15, Robert Leslie, after an illness of a year or more of sarcoma of the head. The funeral was held at the Christian church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the presence of one of the largest congregations that has assembled in our city on an occasion of this kind in years. The funeral sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Pallister, and an excellent sermon it was. His death has been expected for weeks, but when the end came he passed away very suddenly and without a struggle. He leaves a widow and four little girls, several brothers, a sister and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He was tenderly laid to rest in the Riverton cemetery, where three young sons are buried. The Modern Woodmen of which he was a member were out in goodly number, and paid due respect to the departed neighbor. The family have the sympathy of everyone in this their hour of deepest grief.—Sidney (Iowa) Journal.

Robert Leslie is a brother to Reece Leslie.

Business at the Nemaha depot is increasing so rapidly that Charley Glenn says if it keeps on increasing he will have to get an assistant.

Jimmy Titus and Dr. Frazier drove down to Shubert Wednesday evening, the doctor going on professional business, and Jimmy went along to take care of the doctor.

One of the largest crowds that has attended a sale in this part of the country, for many years, was in attendance at the A. L. P. Thompson sale, last Tuesday. It netted him $3,500, and it all comes from judicious advertising. Good advertising and plenty of it is what makes a sale.

Evan Clinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fisher, died at their home Friday evening, March 6, of heart failure, aged three days, and was buried in the Nemaha cemetery, Saturday afternoon. This is a sad blow to Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, as it was their only child. They have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

Wednesday, the streets of Nemaha got a good dragging. The Collins boys, from south of Nemaha, and Perry Rowen and John Webber, and John Knapp and Jesse Long were in with drags, and the merchants had a drag on the streets all afternoon. The streets, as well as the roads leading into town, are now in the best of condition.

$100.00 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of gripe or acute Cold that a 25 cent box of Preventics will not break. How is this for an offer? The doctor's supreme confidence in these little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—Preventics—is certainly complete. It's a $100. against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And Preventics, remember, contain no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were always broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 48 Preventics 25 c. Dr. W. W. Keeling.
