We learn that Miss Ada Titus, daughter of Sherm Titus, was accidentally killed Wednesday morning by being run over by a horse, while visiting relatives at Ogalalla, Neb. She was eighteen years old. Miss Ada was a niece of Mrs. Chas. C. Clark.

Notice.

The County Commissioners of Nemaha county, Nebraska, will meet as a board of Equalization June 9, 1908, as provided by the statutes of the State of Nebraska.

W. A. DOOLITTLE,
Chairman.

It is reported that the Nemaha river is the highest at Auburn and above there it has been since 1883. The heavy rain of Wednesday night extended to Lincoln. The fact that the Missouri river is not high will favor people living on the Nemaha bottom near Nemaha, as the water is running out fast.

Fred Crane started for his old home in Perkins county, Nebr., Monday, and after visiting there will go on to Atwood, Colorado, and stay with his uncle, Dr. Gaither. He goes in hopes to benefit his health.

Mrs. Levi Clifton died at her home in Aspinwall precinct Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Clifton had been in poor health for some time. Tuesday afternoon Dr. Frazier, assisted by Dr. Lutgen of Auburn, performed an operation, finding she was suffering from a cancerous affection of the large bowel. She was highly respected by all her acquaintances.

The storm last week broke a big limb off of a shade tree in front of John Watson's home. Jimmy Stephenson tells Uncle John came hobbling out as he was passing and said he would have to get Jimmy to cut the limb up as he was hardly able to get around. Jimmy trimmed up the limb, cut it into wood and burned the brush, and about the time he finished Uncle John came out as spry as a boy. But he had worked Jimmy all right.
