Cottonwood lumber for sale by A. J. Strain.

Isaac N. Cooper returned from Kansas City Tuesday.

Miss Minnie May returned from Rockport, Mo., Monday.

It can rain these days just as e-a-s-y—no trouble at all.

Much corn has been washed out by the recent heavy rains.

Passenger train 97 was about two hours and a half late Thursday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crother went to Auburn Monday, returning Wednesday.

Kindig & Peabody write cyclone, tornado, and windstorm insurance at lowest rates.

C. P. Barker is not feeling well and Otto went out with the mail yesterday and to-day.

Mrs. Frank Frazier came up from Falls City Wednesday morning and is visiting friends.

If you want an up-to-date job of painting or paper hanging see J. S. Hadlock. Leave orders at Keeling's.

Among the graduates of the Peru normal school this spring are Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn.

Geo. E. Dye came up from Shubert on the early train Monday morning, going on to Auburn on train 98.

Commencement exercises will be held at the opera house to-night. A small admission fee will be charged.

Misses Opal and Bea Seabury returned to Peru Monday morning, after a few days' visit with Nemaha friends.

Nemaha people are now very nervous when a storm comes up, and the man with a good cyclone cave is very popular.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lafollette, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. W. Frazier, returned to Lincoln Monday.

Glass! Glass!
For all sizes call on Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co.

Nemaha has had late frosts, freezes, a cyclone and floods, and yet we are going to have lots of fruit of all kinds.

David Burns came in from Beatrice a few days ago and has been helping get the telephone lines straightened out.

Delbert Webb and Willie Kerker went to Omaha Tuesday. They may stay there if they get a position to their liking.

Judge H. A. Lambert came in from Auburn last Saturday, called here by the death of his father, Wm. Lambert of Aspinwall precinct.

We are under obligations this week to the Auburn Republican for cuts of some of the Nemaha buildings wrecked by the cyclone.

The freight from the west laid over at Nemaha Wednesday night on account of the dangerous condition of the track between here and the city.

The rural carriers have not been able to make full trips all the time for the past week on account of high water, slides, washouts, etc.

J. M. Burns drove up from Shubert Sunday night, returning the next day. He brought Charley along, the latter taking train 98 for Beatrice.

Miss Vera Minick of Syracuse, Nebr., visited her aunt, Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, from train time Monday afternoon until train time Tuesday forenoon.

Saturday of this week is Memorial day, and consequently a legal holiday. The rural carriers will not make their trips. The postoffice will be closed except at mail time.

Wm. E. Smiley and the insurance company have come to an agreement. Mr. Smiley, who had his house insured for $850 and his barn for $150, against fire and tornado, accepts $850 in full for his claim, and gets what is left. He will proceed to rebuild the house at once.

W. T. Crane called in Monday, paid his subscription to May 3, 1909, and also paid for an extra copy for a year, to be sent to his son, F. A. Crane, Atwood, Colo.

Rev. J. W. Sapp gave us an item of news Wednesday. He said for us to tell the people it had rained so much in Texas that the Gulf of Mexico was under water.

If you want to buy wall paper, either high grade or low priced, call on J. S. Hadlock. Sample books furnished on request. Prices of wall paper from 3 cents per roll up.

Two loads of fishermen drove over from Stella Monday but it began raining about the time they got to fishing, so they drove to Nemaha, ate their dinner and then started home without any fish.

We met John Kempthorne at Auburn Tuesday. He stepped off the train as we were getting on to return home. He says he will be down to see the Nemaha folks. He is living in Perkins county.

John M. Clark and Miss Daisy came down from their Glen Rock precinct farm Monday morning, driving to Peru and coming down on the train. John went back on the afternoon train. Miss Daisy will remain until after commencement.

Ed Knapp saw a small cyclone or tornado Tuesday about noon, when he was at John B. Stotts's farm on the county line. Fortunately it did not strike the ground though it got close enough so Ed felt the heat and smelled its breath.

Postcard views of the Cyclone ruins in Nemaha on sale at the Postoffice. Five cents apiece.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore died Wednesday night, May 27, 1908, from an attack of whooping cough, aged about two years. The funeral will be held to-day at 10 o'clock, at the home, conducted by Rev. J. W. Sapp. The bereaved parents have our sympathy.

Mrs. Cora Swan and Mrs. Daisy Randall of Auburn and Mrs. Sarah Chamberlain of La-Crosse, Wis., surprised their mother, Mrs. Julia Frazier, by coming in to visit her Tuesday. Mrs. Swan and Mrs. Randall returned to Auburn Thursday.

The Falls City train did not run for two or three days the latter part of last week on account of a sink in the track between Brownville and Peru and a washout at Salem. Passengers, mail, express, etc., on the Holdrege train were transferred around the sink. The train from Falls City got through Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Combs of Dawson county, Nebr., visited old Nemaha friends Monday evening and Tuesday forenoon. Lon is farming about seven miles from Lexington, his postoffice being Darr. He is doing well, we are pleased to learn. Mr. and Mrs. Combs would gladden President Roosevelt's heart, as they have eight children, the oldest daughter being nineteen and the youngest six months.

Mrs. Mary Chambers was called to Auburn Sunday night by the serious illness of her son, W. S. Chambers, who had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs. Mrs. Chambers, who for the past six years has been making her home with her son-in-law, F. E. Hoover, will probably make her home in Auburn hereafter. She will be greatly missed by Mr. Hoover and children.

Miss Daisy Clark was quite badly injured about two weeks ago. She jumped on her Shetland pony in the yard on her father's farm in Glen Rock precinct, intending to ride down to the barn. The pony ran under a wire clothes line which struck Daisy in the mouth, cutting and bruising lips and gums and throwing Daisy off backward, rendering her unconscious for awhile. She was considerably bruised.

Notice.

The County Commissioners of Nemaha county, Nebraska, will meet as a board of Equalization June 9, 1908, as provided by the statutes of the State of Nebraska.
W. A. DOOLITTLE,
Chairman.

Rev. G. W. Ayers preached the baccalaureate sermon at the Methodist church Sunday night. On account of the rain the church was only fairly well filled. The sermon was a fine one, full of excellent advice not only to the graduates but to all young people. Special music was furnished by members of the choirs of both churches.

Sam Gillespie and Jimmy Curtis went out in the country Tuesday after a load of corn. Coming back three chickens got on the corn in the edge of town and the boys drove on to the barn with them, but the owner followed them in and claimed her chickens, and came near whipping the boys for not driving them off the wagon.

Nemaha camp No. 6064, M. W. of A., at their meeting Tuesday night initiated Bert Ogg and Glenn Harger, and installed the following officers: B. I. Colerick, V. C.; S. Cooper, adv.; W. W. Sanders, clerk; J. H. Seid, banker; L. S. Colerick, escort; Ernest Alexander, sentry.

A meeting will be held Friday night, when several candidates will be initiated.
