Elmer E. Allen went to Lincoln Wednesday morning to attend a meeting of the bankers' association.

Llewellyn Williams of Ord, Nebr., visited his friends at Nemaha and Shubert last week, returning home Monday.

C. H. Kindig has bought of F. L. Woodward a quarter of a block south of V. P. Peabody's home and will build a good house on it.

Andrew Aynes returned home Thursday evening of last week, after a week's visit with his daughter, Mrs. F. K. Skeen, near Ord, Nebr.

Miss Marie Hoover, who has been in New York City since last fall, arrived in Nemaha Tuesday and will spend at least part of the summer here.

A traveling man ventures his reputation as a weather prophet upon the prediction that this week is the last of the rainy season. We hope so.

Dr. W. W. Keeling, W. W. Seid, W. W. Sanders and M. W. Knapp drove to Brownville Wednesday afternoon to attend the funeral services of R. T. Rainey.

Mrs. Chet Sedoris, who has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp, started for Beaver City, Nebr., Wednesday evening. Mrs. Sapp went with her.

T. F. Woods, living on the old Seymour Howe farm, moved out Saturday evening. The water was almost in the house again and still rising and he thought it best to move out before it got too high.

Passenger train No. 97 was over three hours late Thursday. There was a slide on the track between Nebraska City and Peru and a work train had to clear the track before other trains could make the trip.

D. M. Davies, optician, will be here next Tuesday.

M. T. Hill and two daughters, Misses Edith and Lala, drove up from Shubert Monday.

D. M. Davies, the optician of Falls City, will be at Nemaha next Tuesday. See him if needing any work in this line.

W. W. Sanders went to Verdon Monday night and visited with his son, W. F. Sanders, until the next afternoon, when he went to Falls City to attend the Methodist district conference. He returned home Wednesday morning.

The damage to R. I. Smith's house by the lightning two weeks ago amounted to about $90. It was insured in the county mutual and the loss was paid in full. Bob did not put in a claim for the damage to his feelings caused by the scare.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Venrick of DeWitt, Nebr., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Minick between trains Monday forenoon. They went to Verdon Saturday evening to visit their daughter, Mrs. W. F. Sanders, and were returning home Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Seid and Miss Hettie drove to town a few days ago and when going home one horse got down in the water that was over the road near the Nemaha river. M. W. Knapp, Wes Clark and others have had horses get down there. The road has been washed out in deep ruts.

Clyde Kinton had a bone broken in his right foot and the flesh badly bruised by a horse falling on it Sunday. He is now taking it as easy as possible while his father plows corn, but would a great deal rather work than loaf under the circumstances. He will be crippled for some time.

Miss Minnie Barnhart of Brownville was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Sapp from Saturday until Monday afternoon. Miss Barnhart is a teacher in the schools at Louisville, Nebr., and was there when the cyclone struck the town. She says more damage was done in Nemaha than in Louisville.

At the regular meeting of Hope lodge No. 29, A. F. & A. M., last Friday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

- W. W. Sanders, W. M. W. E. Seid, S. W. J. I. Dressler, J. W. Alfred B. Kinton, Sec'y. F. L. Woodward, Treas.

We notice a good many people coming in from other towns to fish. We have also noticed that after trying their luck awhile they invariably hunt up our local fishermen, and after a few minutes' talk some money changes hands, and they go back home and show with pride what a nice string of fish they caught.

Rev. G. W. Ayers went as far as the Missouri Pacific crossing on the freight train last Saturday and from there walked to Howe, filling his appointments there on Sunday. The next day he went to Falls City to attend the district conference but was called home Wednesday morning to hold the funeral services of R. T. Rainey of Brownville.

The corn is not suffering from drouth as yet. It fact, it can stand several days of dry weather without serious detriment.

If you need spectacles and want to be correctly fitted by a competent man, call on D. M. Davies at the hotel next Tuesday.

Mrs. Laura Campbell of Humboldt and Mrs. Lydia Collirs of Kansas City, Mo., were guests of Mrs. J. E. Crother Wednesday.

Mrs. S. E. Fuller handed us a notice some time ago of the death of Mrs. Frank W. Irish at her home in Alliance. The item was mislaid. The notice, which was taken from an Alliance paper, did not give the date of her death, and Mrs. Fuller did not know it. Mrs. Irish, whose maiden name was Ida B. Wills, was well known to many of our citizens. She leaves a husband, an infant child, a mother, three sisters and a brother to mourn her loss.

W. V. Steuteville, who for the past two or three years has been principal of the public schools at Kimball, Nebr., was on the afternoon train Friday on his way to Brownville to spend the vacation. He stopped at Lincoln on his way home, took the examination for admission to the bar, and was admitted to practice in this state. He has been reading law during his leisure time while teaching. He will teach another year, having been engaged as principal of the schools at South Sioux City, Nebr., at a salary of $125 per month.

Rev. J. W. Sapp has sold his residence property to G. F. Rider. But he doesn't intend to leave Nemaha, as he immediately bought a lot off the north side of Uncle Henry Clark's property and a strip 22x120 feet off the south side of Rufus Rowen's property, the two pieces joining, and will build a neat cottage thereon, similar to the one he is now living in. He will begin building as soon as he can get the material together and the carpenters to work. The price paid for the property sold was $1400. Mr. Rider is to get possession by Sept. 1st.

Edgar W. Gates and Miss Fannie Noyes, both of Lincoln, were married at Emanuel M. E. church at 8 o'clock p. m. Tuesday. The church was profusely decorated with ferns and flowers. These young people were present at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark last Christmas. The groom is a son of Rev. Geo. M. Gates, well known to many of our citizens. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Frank Maxwell. Both are very popular young people. May they have a long life of happiness together.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Maxwell, Miss Wilma and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the wedding of Edgar W. Gates and Miss Fannie Noyes, but had all sorts of bad luck and did not get there until after the wedding was over. They came in early to take the 7 o'clock train, but that was so late they could not make connections at Nebraska City for Lincoln, so they went to Tecumseh on 97. The train to Lincoln was over four hours late and they did not get there until 9:30, while the wedding was at 8 o'clock. They returned home Wednesday.

Monday morning, while waiting for the train from the south to arrive, people at the depot had their attention attracted to fish playing around in the water east of the track. After watching them for a little while the temptation became too great for Sam Gillespie to resist, so he got a club, waded out in the water, going in waist deep, and knocked a fish senseless. He waded out with the fish, which was a carp and weighed 17 1-2 pounds. In a short time the water was filled with men and boys armed with gigs, pitchforks, guns and clubs, but not many more fish were caught.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever coffee substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real coffee is in it either Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for coffee. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. Sold by all dealers.

Old papers for sale at this office.
