

Ex-President Cleveland Dead
Ex-President Grover Cleveland died at his home at Princeton, New Jersey, at 8:40 a. m. Tuesday. He had been in failing health for several years, suffering from stomach, heart and kidney trouble. This leaves the nation without a living ex-president.

An Eclipse of the Sun

There will be an eclipse of the sun next Sunday. The eclipse will be only partial. In this section of the country about two-thirds of the sun's face will be obscured and from the beginning to the end will last about one hour, beginning about eight o'clock in the morning. Get your smoked glass ready.

An Old Bedspread

Mrs. T. J. Rumbaugh has a white linen bedspread that is 145 years old. It was made by her grandmother, given to Mrs. Rumbaugh's mother, and at her death was given to Mrs. Rumbaugh. Her sister, Mrs. H. Denny, has a coverlid that is the same age and which also belonged to her grandmother. Both are remarkably well preserved and of course these ladies think a great deal of them.

Several of our citizens have bought additional town lots recently. Elmer E. Allen bought two lots west of his place and north of Marshall Webb's. Geo. Yackly has bought four lots in the northwest corner of the block he is living in, this giving him the west half of that block. W. W. Liebhart buys one lot joining his home on the south. W. E. Smiley buys two lots south of his property on the hill. C. F. Zook buys two lots joining his property on the north, this giving him all but one lot in the west half of the block.

The Auburn Herald finds fault because Leekins was tried for forgery. He was charged by Nat Titus with forging names to orders for $2,200 worth of nursery stock, on which he secured $600 in commissions. We imagine if an agent for the Herald company would send in forged orders for $2,200 worth of job work and secure $600 in commissions on the same, the editor of that paper would not consider it tomfoolery and a waste of the public money for the county attorney to prosecute the man, even if the jury should disagree and fail to convict him.

A Bad Accident

Mrs. Harry Cole, living near St. Deroin, met with an accident Tuesday forenoon that came near proving fatal. She was driving in a buggy when the horse became frightened and backed off a bridge on the county line northeast of Shubert. Horse, buggy and driver fell about fourteen feet to the ground. The buggy fell on Mrs. Cole, the horse kicked her on one side of the head, almost severing the ear, one knee was badly wrenched, and she sustained other severe injuries, but it is thought she will recover if no unforeseen complications ensue. Mrs. Cole is the mother of Mrs. John Webber and Mrs. Burl Curtwright.

Weak women should try Dr. Shoop's Night cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses. My book "No. 4 For Women" contains many valuable hints to women, and it is free. Ask Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. to mail it. Ask the Doctor in strictest confidence, any question you wish answered. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is sold by Dr. W. W. Keeling.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling have been Married Fifty Years

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling celebrated their golden wedding last Monday, June 22, 1858, the doctor, who was then a young man of 26, got a carriage and with his bride, Miss Mary R. Speers, Dr. Holmes, father of D. C. Holmes, and Mrs. Lillie White, drove up to the home of Judge Whitney, who lived where Harve Starry is now living, two miles and a half north of Nemaha, and the judge married them. They lived here until in 1862, when they moved back to their old home in Indiana. In 1891 they again made their home in Nemaha and expect to spend the balance of their lives here.

The celebration of their golden wedding was a very quiet but a very enjoyable occasion. Three sons and a daughter, two daughters-in-law and five grandchildren were present—John R. Keeling of Shelbyville, Ind., Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Keeling of Springfield, South Dakota, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Keeling and four children of Waldron, Ind., Mrs. Ed L. Culver of Omaha, and Ruth Keeling of Stanberry, Mo. The only other guests present were Rev. G. W. Ayers, wife and two children and W. W. Sanders.

Rev. Ayers read a chapter in the bible and offered prayer, and then in a few remarks spoke of the regard felt for the doctor and his good wife in Nemaha, and of the hope that they would be spared for many years longer.

The doctor and Mrs. Keeling were each presented with a fine leather covered rocker, by their children, and the grandchildren presented Mrs. Keeling with a silk umbrella with gold mounted handle.

The dinner was well worthy of such an occasion. Much of it was prepared by Mrs. Keeling, who has few superiors as a cook. If necessary we can prove this by the doctor.

A Runaway Boy

Monday afternoon J. I. Dressler drove out to his farm, crossing the Nemaha on the lower bridge. He noticed a boy about ten years old sitting on the railing of the bridge across the creek at the stone house, and seeing that he was a stranger he stopped and questioned him. The boy finally acknowledged that he had run away from his home, which was in St. Joe, but was trying to get back. Mr. Dressler told the boy to come to town and he would see that he got as far as Falls City. That evening Mr. Dressler went to the depot and found the boy waiting. He paid his fare to Falls City and placed him in charge of a man who said he would see the boy got through to St. Joe. All the clothing the boy had on was a shirt, pair of overalls and a cap. He had waded in water and was wet nearly to his armpits. He didn't have a cent of money.

We received a post card Monday from Mrs. J. W. Monteith of Champion, Nebr., saying they were not receiving The Advertiser regularly. We regret this as much probably as do our subscribers, and of course blame the mail clerks for it. But we will try and write a little plainer, for strange as it may seem, some of the mail clerks complain that our handwriting is at times not quite as easily read as print. But as the papers are miscarried just as often when some one else directs them, we feel that we are not altogether to blame.

Mrs. John E. Lambert Seriously Hurt in Runaway

Thursday afternoon Mrs. John E. Lambert and Miss Hettie Seid drove to Shubert. When ready to start home they drove to a watering trough and Miss Hettie jumped out to unrein the horse. It became frightened and ran away, throwing Mrs. Lambert out. A terrible gash was cut in one cheek, her scalp was badly torn, and she sustained other serious if not fatal injuries. She was carried to the office of Dr. Shook and everything possible done for her.

Mrs. Mollie Hoover came in from Auburn Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Crother and her mother, Mrs. Mollie Hoover, went to Brownville Thursday afternoon.

An Ancient Sale Bill

A sale bill printed in Pike county, Mo., sixty-two years ago, has been handed us for publication. It reads as follows:

To stop any pain, anywhere in 20 minutes, simply take just one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Pain means congestion—blood pressure—that is all. Dr. Shoop's Headache—or Pink Pain Tablets—will quickly coax blood pressure away from pain centers. After that, pain is gone. Headache, neuralgia, painful periods with women, etc. get instant help. 20 tablets 25c. Sold by Dr. W. W. Keeling.

Land For Sale.

800 acres located in Lincoln county, 8 miles southeast of North Platte, 2 1-2 miles from Bignell, the new town on the prospective line of the B. & M. This land is all fenced and in pasture. 70 acres broke and fenced separate and in crop; five room house, good cellar, water in the house, good well, cistern and tanks, water in the barn; barn for 12 horses, cow sheds for 50 head of cattle. The land is selling, and is as good land as any in the state of Nebraska. A bargain at $15 per acre. This land will sell for $35 per acre in the next 5 years.

North Platte, Nebr

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effects of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Dr. W. W. Keeling.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and ailing hearts. It builds; it strengthens; it off-ers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with
