

Criley, photographer, Auburn.

We had a good rain last Friday morning.

Cottonwood lumber for sale by A. J. Strain.

Jas. A. Shiveley moved to Nemaha Tuesday.

We had a good shower Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Theo. Hill went to Lincoln Thursday morning.

The German-American picnic at Auburn next Tuesday.

A. R. McCandless is shipping some fine peaches from his fruit farm.

Miss Maude Burns visited Auburn friends from Friday until Sunday.

George Seid and Lemuel Bradley started for Marsland, Nebr., Monday.

S. C. Shuck of Inavale, Neb., arrived in Nemaha, Wednesday afternoon.

John and Ned Crothers are at Shubert this week putting in cement walk.

Mrs. Wes Clark went to Nebraska City Thursday morning to visit friends.

Mrs. H. E. Williams of Shubert visited her mother, Mrs. J. A. Titus, Tuesday.

Croquet is now a lively rival of the game of pitching horse-shoes in Nemaha.

Orra and Mel Colerick went to Johnson Tuesday, returning Wednesday afternoon.

John Slagle, a nephew of Mrs. I. N. Cooper, died at his home in Shubert last Friday.

Mrs. N. B. Cattin and Miss Iva of Peru were guests of Mrs. A. R. McCandless Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Kimmel came to Nemaha Monday forenoon on a few days' visit with relatives.

John W. White went to Omaha Tuesday, where he expects to work at the carpenter trade this fall.

Mrs. Elmer E. Allen, went to Syracuse, Neb., Wednesday morning to visit friends for a few days.

Miss Nellie and 'Gene Russell went to Guide Rock, Nebr., Monday to visit relatives for a few days.

Miss Maud Miller returned to Brownville Monday after a few days' visit with Mrs. E. E. Rumbaugh.

Louie Kerker went to Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday morning to visit a couple of weeks with relatives.

Misses Maggie and Bessie Hacker went to Dundy county, Nebr., last week to visit their brother, Will Hacker.

Mrs. J. I. May went to Hastings, Nebr., last Saturday to visit her grandson, Elza Washburn. She returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sherwood and Miss Ethel went to Dawson Saturday night to visit Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Houtz.

Weldon Shiveley is shipping peaches from his fruit farm in Aspinwall precinct.

The Titus Nursery and F. E. Hoover & Son are shipping large quantities of grapes.

Miss Ethel Chambers of Auburn, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Mabel Hoover, returned home Wednesday.

Kindig & Peabody write cyclone, tornado and windstorm insurance at lowest rates. Loans negotiated at lowest rates.

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Nebraska City district will meet in Auburn September 16.

J. A. Vance of Peru, candidate for fusion nomination for representative, was searching for democrats and populists in Nemaha, Thursday.

Rev. Geo. I. Wright, district superintendent, will preach at the Methodist church Saturday night of this week. Everybody is invited.

Miss Grace Jarvis went to Wash, Nebr., Saturday. She expects to visit at Elmwood, Weeping Water and other places before she returns.

Mrs. L. M. Peabody went to Mason, Nebr., Friday of last week to visit her sister, Mrs. McIninch. She returned Thursday evening.

I am engaged in the barber business, in D. E. Littrell's shop, and would like your patronage and guarantee fair treatment.

S. M. LITRELL.

John W. Colerick subscribes for the Advertiser for himself and also for an extra copy which he has sent to his son, Roy E. Colerick, Nanton, Alberta, Canada.

Misses Vere and Velma Hoover returned home Tuesday afternoon after several days visit with Auburn friends. Their cousin, Miss May Chambers, came home with them.

Hiram Slagle of Auburn visited his sister, Mrs. I. N. Cooper, between trains Monday morning. He had been to Shubert, called there by the death of his son, John Slagle.

Fred A. Crane started for the western part of the state Tuesday to look up a location. His health failed rapidly here, and he expects to make his permanent home in the west.

Dr. O. H. Kent of Seward, Nebr., visited his sister, Mrs. J. L. Knight, Friday and Saturday. His two sons, who have been visiting their aunt, returned home with their father.

Fritz Slagle of Auburn gave us a pleasant call Monday morning. He was on his way home after being at Shubert to attend the funeral of his brother, John Slagle, who died Friday.

H. E. Byram, general superintendent of the western lines of the Burlington railroad system, passed through Nemaha Wednesday morning on train 97. He is inspecting the road in this state.

Mrs. C. M. Woodward and Mrs. Wagner of Kansas City, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Woodward, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. L. R. Parriott and Miss Eliza Farson went to Peru Thursday of last week, leaving Lee to back, but he soon got tired of that and followed them to Peru Friday. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Maxwell and Miss Ethel started for Sterling, Illinois, last Friday to visit relatives. It is hoped the change will be beneficial to Mrs. Maxwell's health, which has been quite poor recently.

Wm. Filmer was called to Madrid, Iowa, Tuesday morning by the death of his father, J. C. Filmer, who passed away Monday evening. He had suffered for years from heart disease. He was 69 years old.

Mrs. Theo. Hill a few days ago bought the wreckage left by the cyclone of the house on her place by the lumber yard and on Monday resold the same to Hiram Flock, who will buy a lot and build a house in which to live.

Thursday afternoon of last week, while the first page of the Advertiser was being put on the press, it was accidentally dropped to the floor and about a third of the type "pied." By hard work the paper was out on time the next morning.

Rufus Rowen has had a cement walk laid in front of his property and from the sidewalk to the house. E. C. Crother did the work. We understand the Christian church will have a cement walk put in in front of the church, thus completing the walk on the east side of this block.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Rose Gilbert this (Friday) afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. All members are requested to be present as it is the time for the annual election of officers.

LOUISA STEPHENSON, Sec'y.

The fourth quarterly conference of the M. E. church will be held Saturday and Sunday. Rev. G. I. Wright, district superintendent, will preach at Nemaha Saturday evening and at Howe Sunday forenoon. Quarterly conference at Nemaha at 10 o'clock a. m. Saturday.

Notice to Highlanders

All Highlanders are hereby notified that a meeting will be held next Monday night for the purpose of electing officers and transacting other important business. Every member is urged to be present if possible.

Old papers for sale at The Advertiser office.

Excellent Health Advice.

Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy for headache, biliousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.

'SELZ' SHOES

Fit your FEET and your POCKET-book

A New Shipment of "Peerless" and "College Girl" CORSETS

o o o o o Just In

Jelly Glasses, per dozen, 25c

While they last.

Bring Us Your Produce.

JNO. W. RITCHEY

Both Phones No. 20 NEMAHA, NEB

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sayers of Aspinwall precinct have agreed to live separately hereafter, as they have decided that married life so far as they are concerned is a failure. An amicable division of the property has been made, and they remain friends, while deciding it is best for all concerned that they separate.

E. C. Yont of Brock, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for representative, was getting acquainted with our people Wednesday evening and Thursday forenoon. Mr. Yont is one of the leading men of his community and would ably represent Nemaha county if chosen a member of the legislature. He made many friends while here.

For Sale—One Piano.

Must be sold regardless of cost, to avoid reshipment to factory. Address "Manufacturer" care of The Advertiser.

50 Calling Cards 50c, by mail, at the Advertiser office, send your copy and 50c by mail and we will print and forward you 50 one-line calling cards by mail

C. C. Kite shipped two cars of cattle from Bracken to St. Joe Monday evening, and Harry Hoover shipped a car of hogs from Nemaha at the same time. Both went through with them. They returned Wednesday morning and were not very enthusiastic over the prices received.

F. E. Hoover & Son shipped a car load of peaches to Broken Bow, Nebr., Monday evening. About half of them were Champions and the other half Elbertas. They were all fine peaches and if they do not bring a good price the shippers will be much disappointed. Pat Hoover and J. C. Broady went through with them.

Theo. Smith of Tecumseh this week announces that he is a candidate for the republican nomination for float representative from Nemaha and Johnson counties. Mr. Smith is a man who can be depended upon to represent the people capably and efficiently if elected. He was a member of the legislature in 1893 and made a fine record. We believe no better choice could be made for this position.

WE HAVE MOVED

Into the Hoover building, first door south of Keeling's store, where you will find us selling goods at Lowest Prices.

SEE THESE PRICES

Calicoes from 5 1-2c on down.
Indigo Blue, were 10c, now 8c.
Shoes, were $4.00, now $3.50.
All Shoes cut from 15 to 50 per cent.
Baby Shoes cut 10 to 15 per cent.
Misses' White Canvas Slippers, were $1.25, now 85c.
White Canvas Slippers, were $1.00, now 75c.
A few Canvas Slippers for only 50 cents.
Ladies and Gents Arctics, were $1.25, now $1.
Rubbers, were 60c, now 50c.
20c. can of Oysters, only 15c.

WM. FILMER

Nemaha

Nebraska