We congratulate the people upon the appiness and prosperity that has come to them as a result of republican policy and republican legislation. Wages were never so high, nor producers so well compensated for their products as now. Men were never so well housed, clothed and fed, and have never before had more contentment of mind than during the years since republican policy has been enacted into law. We congratulate the President and the Army on the satisfactory progress made army on the satisfactory progress made in the Philippines in surpressing the in-surection and establishing order, and we unqualifiedly endorse the policy of our government therein. Our flag is in the Philippines and there it will remain until such time as the American people may deem it expedient or proper to give the islands a free and independent government, such as it has just given Cuba. The American Army has taken up the work of maintaining authority in the Philippines, and while we deplore and severely condemn any instances of cruel ty which may have occurred, we rememper our soldiers are fighting a barbarous and treacherous foe which has inflicted most revolting and inhuman atrocities upon its prisoners. It is the Nation's Army drawn from every section of our country, knowing no politics nor creed, out fighting the Nation's battles under the Nation's Flag; and we resent with indignation, the recent democratic efforts to drag its honor in the dust and cast reproach upon its fair name We congratulate the republican party for the faithful fulfillment of the pledge made at its national convention of 1900, to give the oppressed Island of Cuba
