The letter with the two cent stamp which held such a prominent position at the post office for some weeks since, was sent on its way rejoicing on Monday.

Pat McKillip, of Cambridge, a large land owner, and heavy stockman, was in McCook for several days last week. He was a welcome caller at the TRIBUNE office.

John H. Yager of Hastings was in the city on Saturday and before returning home subscribed for the TRIBUNE that he might be posted in Red Willow affairs.

The room recently occupied by the Bank of McCook is being fitted up for H. Byron, who will occupy it for his jewelry store instead of his present location in the drug store.

For a complete assortment of every thing in dry goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, notions, groceries, etc., Rogers can't be beat. Remember the place and give him a call.

You can send your letters now for a two cent stamp. How this change in the Postal Laws must gladden the heart of the love-sick swain who is separated from the idol of his aspirations.

C. D. Ercanbrack and family have moved out on his "ranch," a mile and a half north of the city, where he has erected a neat little home, and will be comfortably fixed during the winter.

We acknowledge a pleasant visit on Saturday, from Hon. J. W. Dolan of Indianola, and his friend, J. E. Sealey of New York. Mr. Dolan brought his friend up to see the beauties of McCook.

Mr. S. W. Stilgebouer was in McCook on Monday, and made us a pleasant call. He has an announcement in this issue of the paper which will be of interest to the voters of Red Willow county.

Thanks.
The first prize, a $150 Parker shot gun, at Hayden & McCartney's last drawing, was taken by Mrs. Sarah Johnson of Superior, this state, the lucky number being 356. The gun was purchased from the lady by George Chenery of our city.

M. A. Spalding has contracted for a residence to be built on his lots on Madison street, east of J. P. Phelan's. J. F. Collins is the contractor and will do a first class piece of work, his experience with the B. & M. Railway rendering him capable to do so.

Major R. H. Criswell of Indianola, will deliver a lecture under the auspices of the McCook Light-Guard Band on Wednesday Oct. 17th at the Band Hall. Major Criswell has quite a reputation as an eloquent lecturer and will draw a large audience.

Billy Bugby's best girl went away last Tuesday, and the boys at the road house knew Billy was a mourner, and they decorated his engine, coal pick and shovel with crape, and when Billy mounted the engine he was so embarrassed and dumb-founded he could only remark, "We shall meet on that beautiful shore."

The extraordinary growth of McCook in the last year has excited the envy of her neighboring cities, and the Hastings Gazette-Journal lets off some of its spleen by stating in its last Saturday's issue that "McCook comes out and claims the title of the 'Maggie City of the West.'" So gross a misstatement little becomes a reputable paper.

The building of the bridge across the Republican River at this point has been let, and the people who have cause to cross the river can rejoice. The contract has been given to George Hocknell who agrees to have the bridge completed in thirty days. We are glad the contract has fallen into such good hands and the persons who put up their money have the satisfaction of knowing that they will get a good job.

It is a well known fact that rats are not to be seen on the Nebraska frontier till sometime after the country gets well settled up. A few days ago the first rat in this county so far as we have heard, was killed by Mr. J. T. Thurston in his cellar. He thinks it was brought by a prairie schooner which was anchored in front of his house a few days. It seems a pity to kill a pioneer rat, but then the pioneer life is a hard one.—Ord Quiz.

Unexpected but Not Unwelcome.

The handsome little residence of W. F. Wallace on Monday evening, was a scene of festivity that will long be remembered by those whose good fortune it was to be present. Early in the day it was quietly passed around that the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wallace would "surprise" them that evening, and when the shades of night had fallen, in pairs and crowds, they could be seen wending their way to Mr. Wallace's home, bearing with them the toothsome refreshments that invariably characterize a social gathering in McCook. The object of the expedition was realized, for neither the host nor hostess had the least suspicion of what was on the "tapis." The evening passed off very rapidly, and the dancing was continued until a late hour. Messrs. Chenery and Forbes elicited much enthusiasm over some delightful music they produced from the Concertina and Banjo. The friends composing this "Gospel party on Mt. Zion" were: Dr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Meserve, Misses Broderick, Vaughn, and Fisher, and Messrs. V. Franklin, Forbes, Chenery and Kummel.

To the Public.

I have opened out a small stock of Fancy Groceries in the postoffice building, where I will be pleased to meet my friends and customers. Resp'y,
J. P. ISRAEL.

A BOLD BURGLARY.

Last night, burglars got their work in on the safe of Hayden & McCartney, the safe of H. Byron, and the money drawer of S. L. Green. Both safes were cut open at the rear by an axe or chisel, and a hole to admit a man's hand made. The contents were then extracted. The loss at Hayden & McCartney's was less than fifty dollars, the burglars leaving checks to the amount of $75 on the floor. The loss to Byron was much more severe, as all his fine jewelry, watches, etc., were taken, but what it will amount to he cannot approximate at this writing. After going through Byron's safe, the burglars turned their attention to the money drawer of Green's drug store, and made a haul of about $20. They also turned on a keg of sherry wine, and one of gin, letting them run. The loss of wine was about five gallons, but of gin quite small. The deed was a bold one, and it is a wonder the noise was not heard.

An Unfortunate Man.

For several days last week, C. H. Fletcher, his wife, and four very bright children were guests of the B. & M. Dining Hall in our city. Mr. Fletcher came from Michigan and was on his way to take charge of the station at Barr, Col., the change being caused by ill health, and with a hope that the rare atmosphere of Colorado would be beneficial to him. After remaining in McCook several days, Mr. Fletcher and family, went west on No. 39, Saturday, and that evening while crossing the tracks at Akron, with two of his children in his arms, he was struck by an engine and had a leg cut off. The evening was very foggy, and in hurrying across to the other side of the track he failed to see the switch engine coming down the track, which striking him, knocked him backwards, catching the one leg. The children escaped injury.

LOST.

On or about the 3d of Sept. between Sterling and Camp Sheridan, Hastings, Neb., a red moroco wallet pocket book containing ten or fifteen dollars in $5 bills, a bank book with the Bank of Sterling, Neb. Also several promissory notes and securities of considerable amount, the payment of which have all been stopped and can be of no use to any one but myself. Any one returning the papers can retain the money without further questions, or I will give a reward of $15 if a return of the entire loss is made. Address,
K. A. MOORE, Sterling, Neb.

All Aboard for the Fair.

The McCook Light Guard Band and a number of our citizens will go down to Indianola, to-morrow, to take in the county fair. A special train will leave at 8 o'clock in the morning and return at a seasonable hour in the evening. For this accommodation the gratitude of our people is due to Mr. A. Campbell, Assistant Superintendent. Business men can by this arrangement take their families and enjoy the recreation without being away more than one day.

HEART DISEASE!

CURED BY
Dr. Rush's Regulator.

FOR HEART TROUBLES.

Win. G. Osgeobry, the well-known safe manufacturer of Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Newark, and Atlanta, Ga., says:

OFFICE OF OSGEOBRY'S IMPROVED SAFES, 17 S. Broad St. New York.

ATLANTA, GA., October 11th, 1883.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association:
Dear Doctors:—The three bottles of "Dr. Rush's Regulator" I ordered were received by express last week. I have taken nearly one bottle and am thoroughly satisfied with the result. For over ten years I have been troubled with sharp pain at the heart. My physician, upon examination, pronounced it enlargement of the heart and was unable to give me any relief. The trouble grew worse until I had become convinced that I could not be cured. While in New York City, last week, I called upon one of the most prominent physicians there, who charged me $25 for an examination and then recommended "Dr. Rush's Regulator." Knowing you to be a regular Medical Association, and not a patent medicine scheme, I ordered the three bottles. I have not been troubled since I commenced taking it, but shall continue to take the entire three bottles so as to obtain a permanent cure. You have my sincere thanks.
I am, gentlemen, Very respectfully,
Wm. G. OSGEOBRY.

Dr. Rush's Regulator

has never failed to give relief. It has been used successfully for years in soothing the most stubborn cases of heart difficulties. A positive cure for palpitation, fluttering and fluttering of the heart. Price, $1.00 per bottle, six for $5.00. Sold by druggists, or sent direct to Dr. RUSH'S MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, New York, N. Y., U. S. A.
