RHEUMATISM!

Immediate Relief in all Cases by

Dr. Rush's

BLOOD ROOT OIL

Cared of Rheumatism in 2 Hours.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2, 1882.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association:

GENTLEMEN.—I have been troubled with rheumatism for two years. I tried all the best advertised oils and liniments, and many first-class physicians without relief. The last Dr. I visited recommended Dr. Rush's "Blood Root Oil." I purchased a large bottle for fifty cents, and applied it. In two hours I was relieved and now I am entirely well. Its effects are wonderful, and I believe it the only thing in the world which will cure rheumatism.
Truly yours, JOHN HUTCHINSON,

GENERAL NEWS.

THE prohibition amendment in Ohio was defeated by nearly seventy thousand majority.

So severe is the drouth in Mississippi that drinking water commands a premium in Vicksburg, and planters in that region, state that cattle are dying by scores.

THE remains of Dr. Charles Blumenthal, a prominent physician of New York, who died last week, were taken to Washington, Penna., and cremated. Truly, ashes to ashes.

AN engine, manned by an ignorant boy, ran into a passenger train on the Southwestern road, near Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 13th, and seriously injured a number of passengers.

THE secret of the mysterious disappearance of a large number of the prettiest girls in St. Louis is explained. Gen. Sherman has announced that he will live there after his retirement from the army.

THE 1,200 Chinamen who sailed from San Francisco, the other day, took nearly a million dollars of coin away with them. They will be millionaires in the Flowery kingdom, and will spend the balance of their lives in luxurious ease.

CHARLES VANCE, colored, was arrested for larceny and jailed at New Franklin, Mo., Thursday. Friday night the building was fired and Vance burned to death. It is not known how the fire was started, whether by Vance or persons outside.

IT is said that the Nihilists have notified the czar to order his coffin. But this is not business. Fortunately, a man is not compelled to do that, no matter what the stress may be. Those he leaves behind him are charged with that ungrateful task.

"PARSON" POMEROY rises to remark that "that young American beauty, (Miss Chamberlin of Cleveland,) who is courting attention in England, by receiving marked attention from the Prince of Wales, had better come home and have a little Yankee sense spanked into her."

A GRAND JUNCTION, special to the Denver Tribune, of the 13th inst., says: A year ago the wife of H. A. Herrick, a well-to-do ranchman, of this county, left him. Herrick afterwards obtained a divorce and married Margaret Thompson. Mrs. Herrick, Nov. 1 returned, a short time since, and meeting Herrick and his wife, shot and instantly killed his second wife. She was admitted to bail, and commenced proceedings to recover some of Herrick's property. This afternoon, while the sheriff and Mrs. Herrick were at the ranch looking upon some cattle, Herrick shot and killed Mrs. Herrick and then gave himself up to the sheriff. Excitement is intense.

JOHN RUSKIN, whose experience says the Lincoln Journal, has been the plucking of Dead Sea apples, sizes up fashionable love matches easily.

There are no words strong enough to express the general danger and degradation of the manners of mob courtship, which have become of the fashion—almost the law—in modern times; when in the miserable confusion of candle-light, moonlight, limelight—and any thing but daylight—in indecently attractive and insanely expressive dresses, in snatched moments, in hidden corners, in accidental impulses and dismal ignorances, young people snirk and ogle and whisper and whimper and sneak and stutter and fumble and blunder into what they call love.
