RHEUMATISM!

Immediate Relief in all Cases by

Dr. Rush's

BLOOD ROOT OIL

Cured of Rheumatism in 2 Hours.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2, 1882.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association:

GENTLEMEN.—I have been troubled with rheumatism for two years. I tried all the best advertised oils and liniments, and many first-class physicians without relief. The last Dr. I visited recommended Dr. Rush's "BLOOD ROOT OIL." I purchased a large bottle for fifty cents, and applied it. In two hours I was relieved and now I am entirely well. Its effects are wonderful, and I believe it the only thing in the world which will cure rheumatism.
Truly yours, JOHN HUTCHINSON,
89 Erie St., Buffalo, N. Y.

GENERAL NEWS.

JUDGE COX has granted a new trial and set aside the $60,000 verdict in the Hallet-Kilbourne case.

THE would-be assassin of M. Ferry is a violent fanatic and not a madman. He has been a frequenter of Anarchist meetings.

WILLIAM and John Jacob Astor, of New York, grandsons of the original John Jacob, are estimated to be worth $70,000,000 each.

A MAN who separated from his wife thirty-five years ago has just returned and has offered to "kiss and make up." A few days prior to the offer the wife fell heir to $150,000.

MRS. ZOE HAYWARD, of Philadelphia, wife of the opera singer, attempted suicide at the Mason house, Baltimore, Sunday. She fired seven shots, one of which took effect in her left breast. The wound is serious. Deserption was the cause.

A GENTLEMAN was promenading the street with a bright little boy at his side, when the little fellow cried out, "Oh, papa, there goes an editor!" "Hush! hush!" said the father, "don't make sport of the poor man—God only knows what you may come to yet!"

THE attendance on the fat stock show in Chicago, last Saturday, was the largest in its history. The blue ribbon went to "Black Prince," a polled Angus animal just imported and hurried through by express to enter the contest. The remaining days will be for sweepstakes and butcher contests.

ANNA DICKINSON has dropped Hamlet's knee-breeches and proposes to don the overalls and blouse. It is announced that she will take the lecture field for the Knights of Labor. She probably expects to realize more money out of these knights than she did out of the knights of the sock and buskin.

MARY CHURCHILL has returned to St. Louis with her father, who found her employed in an insane asylum at Indianapolis. Mary has been "mysteriously" absent since the 1st of August. It is a sad reflection on St. Louis that Mary should prefer to live in an insane asylum than in that city. It makes Chicago smile to think of it.—Peek's Sun.

EVERYBODY knows Bill Nye, the humorist, by reputation, at least. Cerebro spinal meningitis has been wrestling with him for many months, and Bill has had a tussle to keep out of a coffin. His illness compelled him to sever his connection with The Laramie Boomerang, and to resign his postmastership at that place, and move to another locality in hopes of once more regaining his health. He is now at Hudson, Wisconsin. In a private letter to a newspaper friend in Omaha he says: "I have decided that my duty is plain. It is to keep moderately quiet for a year anyway. I've good offers from St. Paul to Portland, and from San Francisco to New York, including Chicago and Detroit, but this year I'll write a few sketches per week at mighty good figures and get the balance of my North American spine into shape. Then I'll see what I can do for a steady thing, whether I'll lecture or go to horse-trading. I am comfortably fixed here, within twenty minutes' ride of St. Paul, with a dozen trains a day each way, two being Chicago trains. My health is greatly improved since I crossed the Missouri, and last week I heard with much joy that my candidate for the Laramie postoffice had been appointed, though 99 out of a possible 100 at Laramie said when I came away that it could not be done."—Bee.
