TO-MORROW is Washington's birthday.

A BILL reducing the postage on newspapers has passed the House of Representatives.

THE victim of the latest lynching in Colorado was a quack doctor, who killed one of his patients with one of his prescriptions.

SENATOR HARRISON, of Indiana, has introduced a bill for the admission of Dakota. That bill will probably never get beyond the committee room.

CONGRESS has appropriated $200,000 more to the relief of the Ohio flood sufferers. This makes $500,000 appropriated for the purpose. The surplus in the Treasury can be devoted to no better purpose.

If the False Prophet had stretched out his long arm and gathered in Baker Pasha, who that remembers the dirty scoundrel's own attack on a defenseless girl imprisoned in the same compartment with him, would waste sympathy on the dirty dog?—Bee.

THE Blue Hill Times has been sued by parties of that town for libel, the damages being laid at ten thousand dollars. The suit has been instituted in the district court.—Gazette-Journal.

We were fearful lest "the neat typographical appearance" of the Times would get Bro. Watkins—a into trouble.

In view of the numerous deaths from alcoholism in Omaha, the Republican urges "that it is high time that laws now in existence be enforced." In that case every saloon in the state would be closed within 30 days. No saloon keeper can stand the pressure of our existing laws—if enforced.

THE Arapahoe Pioneer has discovered the post mortem fact that Wendell Phillips was a "singing pilgrim." "Known to fame," says the same authority, "throughout the world for the grandeur of his gospel singing, he has left the weary paths of worldly toil, to join the angels in the heavenly chorus of 'peace on earth and good will to men.'" Where did the editor of the Pioneer come from?—Republican.

FITZ JOHN PORTER is freely and wildly denounced as a traitor by hundreds of editors who do not know the difference between a military order and an order for a clean shirt. His action on the fatal 29th of August may have been reprehensible, but on the next day he made a gallant fight. At Gaines' Landing and at Malvern Hill he covered himself with glory. At the latter place he stood like a breaker between the demoralized army of McClellan and the rushing tide of victorious rebels. He was the hero of the bloodiest battle of the war, and the one that first taught rebels how union soldiers could fight.—Topics.

BISMARCK is going to send back the resolution of Colonel Tom Ochiltree expressing the regret of the United States at the death of Herr Lasker, and our sympathy with Germany in her great bereavement. Bismarck would have been better satisfied with a resolution offering him and Emperor Billy our congratulations. When the old Chancellor shuffles off the mortal coil let's look out for a resolution that will please him, if Col. Ochiltree happens to be on the floor of the House.

The resolution will be transmitted to Congress with the Chancellor's certificate of its rejection, in a few days, according to the dispatches, and the London Times expresses the opinion that it will make things hot, as the United States will not be inclined to let the thing drop there. It is to be hoped that the House will stand up stoutly at the back of Colonel Tom. His resolution is all right, and the German wing of our free and unfettered population will be pleased to know that the American people are not ashamed of their admiration of the democratic orator of the Reichstadt.—Journal.

Commissioners' Proceedings.

CLERK'S OFFICE,
Indianola, Neb., Feb. 9, 1884.

Board of County Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Present, Henry Crabtree, E. J. Allington, S. L. Green, Commissioners, and C. D. Cramer, Clerk.

On motion, the clerk was instructed to order four 3-quire justices' dockets. Consideration of the question of the amount of damages to John G. Eaton & Bros. and C. D. Phelps, for establishing a public road through their lands was taken up:

On motion, consideration of same was postponed until next meeting. Sealed bids for publishing legal notices and commissioners' proceedings were opened and considered.

F. M. KIMMELL'S BID: Will publish commissioners' proceedings at one cent per line; legal notices at one-fourth legal rates, or 25c. for first insertion, and 10c. for each subsequent insertion. Resp'y.

G. S. BISHOP'S BID: I will publish commissioners' proceedings, and all legal notices for the year ending Feb. 1st, 1885, FREE. Re-spectfully,

On motion, G. S. Bishop's proposition was accepted.

On motion, it was voted that sealed bids for painting offices and court-room may be filed in the clerk's office any time previous to 12 M. Saturday, March 22, 1884, when all bids so filed will be opened and considered by the Board.

The clerk was instructed to notify Assessors to attend session of the Board to be held Saturday, March 22, 1884.

It appearing to the Board that Frees & Hocknell were not assessed on their stock of lumber in the town of McCook for the year 1883, and that they desired to be assessed, as omission to be assessed was not their fault; the Board ordered that Saturday, March 22, 1884, is hereby appointed a day for said Frees & Hocknell to show cause why said omission should not be supplied, and their names and property entered on the tax list, and if no cause be shown to the contrary, the Commissioners will assess said property and tax on same will be collected as provided by law.

On motion, the Board adjourned to meet Saturday, March 22, 1884.

C. D. CRAMER, County Clerk.

CARRICO COINGS.

Snow lies on the ground to the depth of two inches, and more is coming.

Eastern Hayes county can boast of only one school and that is a private one. J. W. Dyer returned home to his father's ranch on Blackwood, this morning.

Rumor says six thousand head of cattle will be brought near the head draws of Red Willow and Stinking water from Eastern Nebraska, this spring.

L. C. Richards of Lincoln arrived at the Red Willow Cattle Co.'s ranch near Carrico, two weeks ago. He shipped to Culbertson one or two car loads of meal and grain which they are engaged in hauling now. Mr. Richards is one of the five that form the company. They put on the range last summer twenty-five hundred head of cattle bought in the eastern part of this state and Iowa. They are doing well so far for homesteaders. Poor cattle he gathers and drives to his Spring Creek ranch to be fed hay and meal.
