

Indicates that your subscription to THE TRIBUNE has expired, and that an invitation to renew the same is extended.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

All locals under this heading 10c. a line for each insertion, and same inserted until ordered discontinued, unless time is specified. Bills payable monthly.

Local Intelligence.

Graham Flour at City Bakery.

'Thunder and lightning' at Hayden & Co.'s.

Go to John A. Lee's for sewing machines.

Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines at Lee's.

All kinds of blanks kept for sale at this office.

For the best Flour in town call at City Bakery.

Measles are prevailing in our town to a great extent.

Choice raisins, 10 cents per pound, at Hayden & Co.'s.

If you want cheap pork call at John Farley's meat market.

We call your attention to the card of our new barber which will be found on the first page.

We are requested to announce that Catholic services will be held in McCook on Monday next.

If you want the best flour in town, call at the City Bakery. Samples given to those who wish to try it.

Dr. T. E. Stutzman will make the treatment of the ear and eye a specialty. His card will appear next week.

We have one of the most obliging and best blacksmiths in the valley in our town. He is building up a nice business.

McCook is absorbing quite an amount of the trade of this county. The bridge at that place makes it easy of access.—Atwood Citizen.

We direct your attention to the advertisement of G. B. Nettleton, agent for Challenge Wind Mills, etc., to be found on our eight page.

Our land agents must be doing a thriving business. Now comes R. S. Cooley with an entire new outfit; so much so that his friends recognized him not.

Parties wishing to purchase a first-class machine can be accommodated by calling on John A. Lee, who has the agency for the celebrated Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines.

A fine little bunch of cattle, the property of J. G. Good of Driftwood, were driven up the creek, the first of the week. The number of cattle in this country is being materially increased this spring.

It may require a little of the 'cold, steel letter of the law' to convince some whether those of the village ordinances already passed, are aught else but worthless, but then it may be a good way to test their legality.

N. Burtless appreciates the value of improved stock as shown by his purchase on Monday from I. J. Starbuck of two of the fine Herctords he lately shipped from Iowa. We understand the price paid was $175.00.

There are twenty-four postal clerks in the valley east and west of McCook. Two cars each way, and three clerks to a car. The service in the valley ought to be effective, if the number of clerks is a safe foundation upon which to base judgment.

The cattle boys are having their hands full. The storm last week drifted a large number of cattle from the Republican and the Frenchman over to the Beaver, and the boys are heading them back. The flats are covered with cattle from the north.—Atwood Citizen.

Two new houses are going up on McFarland street, one of which Mr. Rider is putting up. It was confidently asserted in early spring that McCook would contain double the number of houses in the fall, and at the present rate of building it is very probable.

nard Hall are a very convenient arrangement. The lamps are attached to an iron pipe in which the fuel is stored, and by a neat contrivance, the lights may be raised or lowered all at once. They are compact and substantial.

Among the improvements recently made, we notice that H. C. Rider has built a neat fence around his property in West McCook, which is a great improvement to his pleasant home. The money invested in a tasty fence will add more to the appearance of a property than half again the sum put in any other improvement.

An exchange says a superstitious subscriber, who found a spider in a copy of his paper, writes to know if we consider it a bad omen. Nothing of the kind. The spider was just looking over the columns of the paper to see what merchant was not advertising, so that he could spin his web across the store door and be free from disturbance.

The B. & M. company shipped a carload of grass-sod from Kansas City, the first of the week, and have had the section gang putting it down in front of the Eating House at this station. This is the first sodding that has been done in town, and will make a great difference in the appearance of the surroundings of the Dining Hall.

The contract for another residence has been let, and work begun. J. F. Collins is doing the work, and Fred. Vondres of Dorchester is having the house built. The same will occupy the lot adjoining Supt. Campbell on the west, and will be a substantial, well-finished structure, a creditable addition to our handsomely built town.

It may not be understood that the ordinance prohibiting certain animals running at large has not been repealed. Cattle and hogs have been parading our streets, the past two weeks, as of yore. We suggest that there is plenty of work on hand for the poundmaster, and with many others of our people, we would like to see the ordinance enforced. Most of our citizens have planted trees extensively and they should be protected.

Three men were in town, Friday evening, seeking information or a clue which would lead them to the recovery of a horse which was stolen from Cedar Bluffs, Kansas, the day before. The thief was a young lad of 12, who, it is claimed, was led astray by an older associate. They wended their way westward the same evening, in which direction they anticipated the boy had gone.

Six car-loads of stock were unloaded at this station, Sunday evening, and driven into Olcott & Dunbar's yard, where they were fed and remained until Monday morning, when they were driven out on their respective ranges. Sixty-five head of the number were driven down on the Beaver, and one hundred and thirty up on the head of the Medicine. They were the property of three parties, Crawley, Todd and Wiles.

"Oh, my neighbor over there a mile or so away takes it, and I get it from him," is the answer we receive sometimes when inquiring whether a man takes THE TRIBUNE. Now wouldn't you feel more comfortable if you had your own paper to read? "I wish so-and-so would take the paper; we don't get to read it ourselves before our neighbor is after it," is another saying we sometimes here.

This from the Salem, Richardson county, Neb., Index, indicates that a former editor of THE TRIBUNE has found a more lucrative business than publishing newspapers: A. Bruce Cofroth, cashier of the Bank of Salem, has invested in a fine steed and a new buggy and will take nobody's dust on the drive this season. He will probably name the animal "Hic" in honor of his former name "Old Hickory."

One of our Southside farmers says that one of the most promising indications of prosperity he has noted is the presence of Kentucky blue grass to the height of three inches, at this time of the year, on old breaking, it being a natural growth at that. Kentucky blue grass spreads rapidly and makes its appearance much earlier in the spring than buffalo grass, and our stockmen will hail its appearance with rejoicing. We hear from every quarter of more extensive preparations for farming than Red Willow county has ever seen before. The test will be thorough this year, and present indications were never better.

A large stock of wall paper just received and for sale cheap. S. L. GREEN.

ought never to be advanced in extenuation or mitigation of another man's crime. The fact that there are existing in our midst more flagrant violations of ordinances is reason good and sufficient not that the violation by one man be condoned, but those knowing of other violations should make complaint.

The Gilman, Ill., Star has the following to say about the Wilcox Bros. of that place who arrived in McCook, last week, and who purpose opening up a stock of general merchandise in our town: "Wilcox Bros. have been loading their cars this week preparatory to going to Nebraska. They expect to start to-day or the first of next week, and their families will follow in a few days. We are confident that we voice the sentiments of this entire community when we say, we regret to lose these two live, young, business men and their families, and we all wish them a full realization of their expectations in their new home."

The New Richmond, (Ind.,) correspondent of the Star, published in a town in Indiana, has the following very terse and befitting paragraph concerning John W. Plunkett, Esq., recently proprietor of the Churchill House, of whom THE TRIBUNE kept our people pretty well informed during his sojourn among us: "John W. Plunkett has returned from the far west, with his hymn book under his arm." The editor of the Star seems to have had the honor of a visit from Johnnie, and after injecting the editorial bug into John's ear, and enlightening his mind on sundry other points, he delivers the following from the right shoulder: "John W. Plunkett has found time to call around with wrath perched high on his marble brow inquiring by what right the Star published the fact that he was living in adultery with a woman in a quiet town out West, while his faithful wife whom he left behind, believed he was mining in Colorado's auriferous fields. John went away with a bug in his ear. He will not sue for damages in criminal libel right away."

A young man was brought in from Stratton, Thursday afternoon on No. 46, in a pretty demoralized condition, from having in some way come in contact with the train. Reports of train men and of the injured man conflict. The former state that he was stealing a ride, and had taken a dangerous position on the trucks of No. 39, and was injured in getting on or off of the same. The young man claims he was struck by the train which he failed to hear, while walking on the track. At all events he was injured in some way severely, his right leg being badly jammed up and his back received painful cuts and bruises, for which he is now having medical attendance at the B. & M. Dining Hall. He was in the employ of the B. & M., in the blacksmith shop at Plattsmouth, and was on his way to Denver, where he has a brother. He paid his way to McCook, and being desirous of seeing the country, took a tie pass from here to Denver. No great mathematical mind is required to calculate whether of the twin were the more economical: Paying for his passage, or traveling on a tie pass.

The suit of the city against L. R. Jerome, Jr., familiar to our people under the style of "the dude," for violating the ordinance of our village by disorderly conduct and disturbance of the peace, by riding through our streets at a reckless gait, yelling, and doing the cow-boy act generally, was dismissed by the Squire on Monday morning, after two days had been consumed in the trial of the case, and two juries had failed to agree. This case attracted the attention and was the subject of much remark and criticism, favorable and unfavorable, severe and mild, as such occurrences are wont to call forth. J. E. Cochran was defendant's attorney, and J. B. Jennings appeared for the city, and the case was hotly contested from beginning to end. The case first came up for trial Friday afternoon, which, with the ensuing night, was occupied in hearing the evidence and addresses of counsel. The jury failed to agree, and the next day and night were given over to its consideration, and the second jury failed to agree; and were discharged. The failure to convict is attributed by some to the insufficiency of the ordinance, while a score of other reasons are given. At all events the thing has miscarried, and the city will have to pay the costs.

A young man was brought in from Stratton, Thursday afternoon on No. 46, in a pretty demoralized condition, from having in some way come in contact with the train. Reports of train men and of the injured man conflict. The former state that he was stealing a ride, and had taken a dangerous position on the trucks of No. 39, and was injured in getting on or off of the same. The young man claims he was struck by the train which he failed to hear, while walking on the track. At all events he was injured in some way severely, his right leg being badly jammed up and his back received painful cuts and bruises, for which he is now having medical attendance at the B. & M. Dining Hall. He was in the employ of the B. & M., in the blacksmith shop at Plattsmouth, and was on his way to Denver, where he has a brother. He paid his way to McCook, and being desirous of seeing the country, took a tie pass from here to Denver. No great mathematical mind is required to calculate whether of the twin were the more economical: Paying for his passage, or traveling on a tie pass.

And again. A very severe accident befell Taylor Ganes on the Frenchman, Saturday. He was returning home with a load of barbed wire, and in putting on the brake, while going down over a bank, the bank gave way, and he was thrown to the ground, the heavily loaded wagon passing over his leg, breaking both bones of the same, producing a compound fracture which will require time to bring out all right.

Now comes a case of self-murder from the Driftwood. The unfortunate principal in the sad tragedy was a man by the name of Bitner, who lived up the creek about eighteen miles from McCook, in Hitchcock county. We are not acquainted with any facts going to show why the man became tired of life, and determined to end his existence, but the circumstances connected with the case, as related to us, seem to leave no doubt but that it was a clear case of suicide, although rumors were afloat to the contrary. The weapon used was a rifle, and the ball entered the side and came out at the back. The man's body and clothing were both much burned, indicating that he placed the muzzle to his side and leaning over pulled the trigger. He also left a letter addressed to his brother in which he stated the action he intended to take. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect that he came to his death by a gun shot self-inflicted.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

member to sign their names to communications, and to refrain from personalities of an unpleasant character. We desire to have your names, not for publication, but merely for our own private use, and the same will remain private property. Send us in the local items from your neighborhood. We are pleased to give them space in our columns.

At the adjourned school meeting held Monday night, the proposition of Capt. Phillips of the Lincoln Land Co., offering block 20 to school district 17, gratis, was accepted by a unanimous vote. This block is just across the street from block 5, which would have cost the district over $700. So this disposes of the matter of site, and the $4,500 will be put in the building alone. Two different plans of buildings were examined by the meeting, and the matter was handed over to the Board of Directors and the building committee, who will proceed with the building as soon as the bonds are issued and negotiated. The intention is to begin the erection of a $6,000 building, finish as much of the same as the money in the treasury will permit, and finish the building in another year. This will afford room for the school children of our town for a year or two and will be in keeping with our style and general get up.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

Our subscribers along Red Willow and Beaver creeks are complaining of irregularity in receiving their papers. Now we wish our patrons to understand just where the responsibility lies. During the entire time we have been conducting THE TRIBUNE the paper has been mailed in the postoffice at McCook every Thursday evening, without one failure. The papers are sent from this postoffice every Friday morning, and should reach our subscribers on both the Willow and Beaver on Friday evening. We have made inquiries of different postmasters on these creeks, and they are of opinion that either the mail carriers leave before the mails are distributed, or else the mails are not prepared at Indianola in time for the carriers. We hope we will have no further cause of complaint in this matter. It is evident that the paper ought to reach these points EVERY Friday evening, and these numerous miscarriages are deplorable.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

John W. Maiken, Indianola's hardware man, was in town, Monday.

James M. Morris, Benkelman's flourishing merchant, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Stevenson, wife of Principal Stevenson, arrived in McCook, Saturday.

Mrs. G. W. Daniela is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Vina Wood of Hamburg, Iowa.

James John, William Selby and Joe Vest of Cambridge were registered at the B. & M., Monday.

Wm. Sweet, D. F. Lanphar and A. E. Merritt, are recent arrivals from Illinois. They hail from Gilman.

Register Laws went down to Hastings, Tuesday, as a delegate to the District Convention which met in Hastings on that day.

Charles Dillon of Cullom, Ill., a carpenter by trade, arrived in town, Monday. He has gone to work for Contractor Collins.

Mrs. W. H. Smith of South McCook is mother of a fine 9-pound boy, who made his first bow to the admiring family Tuesday at 12 M.

Dr. Stutzman of Hillsdale, Ill., son-in-law of Dr. Boyle, is the latest addition to our corps of physicians. The doctor arrived last week.

J. E. Cochran went to Oberlin, Kansas, Sunday, in order to be in attendance at the District Court before which session he has important business.

C. A. Fredericks and wife, H. A. Fredericks and Mrs. J. A. Lester, all of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were in town a number of days of this week in quest of land.

Mrs. Highland of Red Cloud has been visiting Mrs. W. S. Perry during the past two weeks. Mrs. Perry gave an enjoyable evening party for her guest, last Thursday.

G. W. Daniels went to Chicago, the first of the week, where he will assist Mr. Menard in the selection of the large stock he will put in his new building, the first of May.

S. E. Hoge, one of the B. & M.'s steady and reliable "kings of the road," recently purchased a pair of dun ponies, which, with some trimming-up, will make a fine little team.

M. H. Kavanagh, E. L. Phares, Samuel Pollock and Commissioner Allington, all of Danbury, were in town Monday. Mr. Phares made final proof of his claim and the other gentlemen were his witnesses.

Dr. Hewitt, of Friendville, arrived in McCook, Saturday, and was the guest of E. H. McCormick during his stay in our town. The doctor is interested in a ranch near Atwood, Kansas, to which he made a visit while here.

T. S. Bosley has rented his house and furniture to Mr. Stevenson, who will occupy the same, the last of the week. On Friday, Mrs. Bosley and sister, Mrs. Lewis, who has been visiting the former, leave for Fairmont, where they will spend some time.

Misses Mary Roberts, Sarah Roberts, Sarah Hogan and Mary Melia, are the names of the young ladies who arrived from Gillman, Ill., last week. They purpose conducting a restaurant or boarding house in the building until recently occupied by Rider & McPherson as their office.

Rev. Hicks of Osceola, Neb., and Mr. Leavenworth of Indianola, drove up from the county-seat, Monday. Rev. Hicks is Financial Agent of Bellevue College of this state, and has been visiting Mr. Leavenworth at Indianola, and came up to meet old friends and acquaintances at this place.

W. F. Wallace, J. F. Forbes, Fred. Harris, E. M. Kendall, and Master Norman Forbes, all of our town, went down to the county-seat, Saturday afternoon, to hear the Georgia Minstrels, who held forth at W. H. McCartney's Hall, Saturday night. All returned on No. 1, except our dashing clerk, who is evidently impressed with Indianola—or one of her fair ones.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

THE TRIBUNE would like to see our business men follow the bright example of Indianola's business men in the way of advertising. We are receiving good patronage from a number of our business men, and none at all from a considerable number of others, who support us with promises, and rely on the advertising of others to bring trade to our town. This is a poor business principle. Show a little more enterprise in this direction.

PATTERSON — FLEISCHACKER — On Saturday evening, April 19th, 1884, Squire Fisher officiating, Henry Patterson to Susan Fleischacker, both of McCook.

Our prowling paragrapher arrived on the scene of action a few minutes subsequently, and our Esquire was still considerably perturbed and faint from the effects of an attempt to pronounce the bride's name, maybe.

"DELIGHTFUL."

No Medicine Can be Compared to Marsh's Golden Balm.

"Last month I took a severe cold. I coughed terribly and could not sleep nights. I had a druggist prepare me some cough syrup, but it did me no good. I then tried MARSH'S GOLDEN BALM and was cured at once. It is a delightful remedy."—Henry L. Cook, Sedalia, Mo.

"I have used many cough remedies in my family, but none that could possibly be compared to MARSH'S GOLDEN BALM."—F. E. Anderson, Leavenworth, Kansas.

"Please send me six dozen MARSH'S GOLDEN BALM. Everybody likes it and all call for it."—M. W. Wilson, Druggist, Burton, Mo.

MARSH'S GOLDEN BALM, the famous throat and lung medicine, and MARSH'S GOLDEN BLOOD & LIVER TONIC, the great blood purifier and liver corrector, are for sale by S. L. Green, Druggist, McCook. Large bottles 50 cents and $1. 46.

BUSINESS POINTERS.

Locals under this head 5c. a line for each insertion. Bills payable monthly.

We have just received a handsome assortment of calling cards.

Great bargains at Hayden & Co.'s. See advertisement on eighth page of this issue for bargains.

NO FILLING in DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder; and when this is considered, it is the cheapest powder in the market. A single trial will convince you. It is made of Grape Cream Tartar and Pure Bi-Carb. Soda, only. Sold by Hayden & Co.

Blank Deeds, Real Estate Mortgages, Leases, Bills of Sale, Bond for Deed, Quit Claim Deeds, Contracts for Building, Mortgage Deeds, Release of Mortgage, Official Bonds, Soldiers Discharge Petition for License, Notes, Receipts, etc., at THE TRIBUNE office.

Dr. Hewitt, of Friendville, arrived in McCook, Saturday, and was the guest of E. H. McCormick during his stay in our town. The doctor is interested in a ranch near Atwood, Kansas, to which he made a visit while here