The authorities of Cleveland, O., do not appear to appreciate the efforts of the Salvation Army to advance the piety of the Clevelanders, as the said authorities last Saturday shut up in prison some twenty-six of the Army. These Salvation soldiers, however, do not feel disposed to be shut up in this manner, but like Paul and Silas continue their singing and praying in prison, hoping that by some supernatural power the walls will be thrown down and they be released.

The crazy-quilt is about to give place to the family tree quilt. A very complete specimen of this late wrinkle is the one now on exhibition in Atlanta, Ga. It was gotten up as a family record of the Bowers family, beginning at Polly Bowers, the mother of Job Bowers, and quilted just after the war. It gives a complete list of the children, grand-children and great-grand-children up to the time it was quilted. The squares are cut to represent trees. The first tree has thirteen limbs, with a flower at the top of each limb, and a child's name in each flower. And so on to the fourth generation. The total number at the time the quilt was finished was 244.

The fashionable Chinese quarter of New York city is at present in a perfect flutter of pigtails over the arrival upon American shores of a real Chinese gentlewoman. While a very few Chinese females have been seen in the metropolis of America, they have in all cases belonged to the "washee-washee" class. American notions of the real Chinese lady have generally been taken from tea-trays, fancy boxes, or books upon the Flowering Land. Mrs. Wo Kee, which is the lady's lovely and expressive name, has already expressed her amazement at the size of the most fashionable American boot. Her own lovely and aristocratic little extremities resemble those of a baby—in dimensions, that is to say, if not in symmetry.

SOUTHWESTERN NEBRASKA, and Benkelman in particular, has been prolific of wondrous things recently. What's the matter with this from the Lincoln Journal of Sunday: "A story is told in our dispatches this morning of the fall of a most wonderful visitor, apparently from some other planet, on the prairie near Benkelman in Dundy county, this state. It appears incredible, but we have no hesitancy in vouching for the intelligence of the writer, who is a man that generally knows what he is talking about. The details are given with a fullness and particularity that almost command belief. Unless the alleged facts are greatly magnified or distorted, this unusual object of wonder must be an air vessel belonging originally to some other planet which sailed too far from its orb and after wandering in space has at last been caught by the attraction of the earth and drawn to it. Further investigations will be hastily pursued and awaited with the liveliest interest.

INTELLECTUALITY counts more in the scale of womanhood in America than it does in England, says Mr. Hatton in Irving's book upon his impressions of the United States. "It is easier for a clever woman to excite the admiration of her sex in America than in England. A woman who adorns and lifts the feminine intellect into notice in America excites the admiration rather than the jealousy of her sisters. American women seem to make a higher claim upon the respect and attention of men than belong to the ambitious English women, and when one of them rises to distinction they all go up with her. They share in her fame. They do not try to dispossess her of the lofty place upon which she stands. There is a sort of trades-unionism among the women of America in this respect. They hold together in a ring against the so-called lords of creation, and the men are content to accept what appears to be a happy form of petticoat government.—Henry Irving.

THE TOWN OF McCOOK

In Red Willow County, Nebraska, has been surveyed, and lots in the market, for just one year and has now a population of 1000 people. This point has been designated by the C. B. & Q. as the DIVISION STATION between the MISSOURI RIVER & DENVER, where the principal shops, a 15 stall round house and other R. R. facilities have been located on the Denver Line. A complete system of water works costing $25,000 is just being completed giving all the facilities for comfort possessed of old cities. Lots will range in price from $150 to $500 for business lots, and $50 to $200 for residence lots. The history of points like McCook show an increase of more than three hundred per cent. in from one to five years, and this town promises to be an exceptional chance for investments.
