

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES G. BLAINE, OF MAINE.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, JOHN A. LOGAN, OF ILLINOIS.

Republican State Convention.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are invited to send delegates from the several counties to meet in convention at Omaha, Wednesday, August 27th, 1884, at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for five presidential electors. Also, for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Attorney General, and such other business as may be presented to the convention.

The counties given below are entitled to representation as follows:—being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hunt, Regent of the University, giving one delegate-at-large and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and the major fraction thereof: Dundly, 1; Hitchcock, 2; Frontier, 2; Red Willow, 4. It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which proxies are given. Omaha, Neb., May 22, 1884. GEO. W. E. DOHRSEY, Chairman. S. B. COLSON, Secretary.

THE TRIBUNE takes great pleasure and satisfaction in placing at the head of this column the names of JAMES G. BLAINE and JOHN A. LOGAN, the Republican nominees for the offices of President and Vice-President of these United States. We can think of no stronger or more popular men than the "Plumed Knight" of Maine and the "Black Eagle" of Illinois, and that they will lead the Republican party on to new victories and fresh laurels is assured. This consummation will not be attained as some of our more enthusiastic brethren imagine, without an effort, but it will be after a hotly and closely contested campaign, that victory will perch upon the Republican banners, which will be nobly borne by Blaine and Logan.

BLAINE and LOGAN, we believe, will suit the Republican voters of Red Willow county.

THE Republican Valley Echo is now under the sole management of Editor Crane, his partner retiring. We wish H. M. ample returns for his endeavors in the field of journalism.

THE Brush Lariat comes to us this week, with a new and attractive head. The Lariat, by the way, is one of the neatest and best papers in every respect that comes to this office. But the editors must own a mine in connection therewith.

THE death of Gen. Babcock is more than usually tragic in connection with his pending nomination to a higher rank in the army. It puts a sad and sudden end to the controversy. His memory dead will be treated more kindly than his person living, and tardy justice will come around and take a melancholy look at his tombstone.

EVENTS do not in these days occur very rapidly in Egypt and the Sudan, and the future is impenetrable except by the slow march of time and circumstance. Why the Mahdi does not push things is a conundrum, to be answered, probably, because he cannot. England does not wish to do so. Egypt is powerless, and Turkey wants the pay of a hiring for attending to its own business. The world should at once dam the Nile and convert the whole region into a vast inland sea, thus getting rid of a perpetual nuisance.

THE more the ticket—Blaine and Logan—is canvassed, the stronger does it appear. Either of the men would reflect honor upon the country in the chair of chief magistrate. They represent the best and highest phases of American manhood. It embraces the highest order of talent and the most determined fidelity to conviction. It comprises the strongest business ability and the closest acquaintance with the details of government. What more could we ask?—Lincoln Journal.

THE Journal has had frequent occasion to refer with hopefulness and pride to the grand section of our state known in general terms as the Republican Valley. It has been but a little while since it was opened to settlement, and for years it was the victim of disadvantages and hostile circumstances. Many lost their faith in it, and hundreds of settlers relinquished their hold upon it and came away. But for five straight years fortune has smiled upon the hardy and energetic pioneers who stuck bravely to the country. Now they are in prosperous circumstances. They are on the threshold of that stage of development where the log or sod farm house bursts its chrysalis shell and develops into a white frame with green window blinds and an upstairs for the boys and hired hands. Stock grazes on every hill. Churches and school houses abound. Bustling villages surround every railroad station. Crops are the best at this date anywhere in the northwest. The face of the country is surpassingly lovely. The valley has established the fact that it is equal to any section of the state, and that it never deserved the suspicion and dread with which it has been too much the fashion to regard it. It should be looked at by every business man of the state, its resources weighed and its future estimated. It is peculiarly bound to Lincoln by geographical proximity and business ties. We would like to have every citizen of Lincoln see it for its full length, and see it now in its brightness and beauty. The B. & M. authorities can well afford to make an excursion at nominal rates, to go out one day and return the next. A thousand people would go, if tickets were made good to return on any train for a week, and nearly as many if they had to come back on the same train. We would be pleased to see this magnificent section placed on exhibition.—Journal.

THE recent explosions of dynamite in the heart of London, to the injury and danger of innocent people, is of a barbarism that must be suppressed by the decent and patriotic Irish leaders, or the cause of Ireland's independence will be hopelessly lost. No sensible and intelligent people can endorse these outrages, which seem to have been prompted more by a childish desire for display than anything else. It may be in accord with the romance of doge days in Venice or the accomplishments of more modern nihilists, but it is ignoble and cruel. The sooner it is abandoned the better for Ireland. The men who plot such murderous warfare are unfit for the blessings of civilized government, and the day that sees them at the head of Irish affairs would be the saddest and most fateful of ten centuries of melancholy history.—Journal.

THE crop outlook this month in Nebraska is fairly good. Grain and corn are in slightly larger area than last year. Both are somewhat later. Some small grain is exceedingly fine, but the average is about that of former years. Corn is free of weeds and in good condition, but the stand is not uniformly what could be desired. Tame grass is in almost double its former acreage, and is doing remarkably well. Only within the last three years, since The Journal began a crusade in that behalf, have the capabilities of our section for grass been understood and believed in. Live stock is in fairly good condition. There were considerable losses last winter, due in many cases to insufficient feed and shelter. Altogether the agricultural prospects are good enough.—Journal.

THE English papers express some considerable surprise and dissatisfaction with the nomination of Blaine, the London Times going so far as to say that it will end in the dissolution of the republican party. It is pretty safe for the republican or Union party to do just what the English and the democrats do not want it to do. The principal objection to Blaine is his anti-free trade ideas and his position when secretary of state in the matter of the Peru Chili controversy and the claim some American set up. The republican candidate's position in this regard is invulnerable, American, and will be approved by the people. The voters will also look upon his vigorous foreign policy with favor.

Among the important measures that will engage the attention of the House this week is the bill to repeal the pre-emption and timber-culture laws. The pre-emption law was gotten up for the benefit of speculators, and the timber-culture act was passed in the interest of land sharks.—Bee.

THE record of the court of inquiry in the case of Gen. Swain, judge advocate general of the army, reports the facts as developed by evidence, and concludes as follows: "The court of inquiry is of the opinion that while it is not prepared to say that any specific act developed by the evidence is actually fraudulent, yet evidence does show that a series of transactions discreditable to any officer of the army, especially demands the severest condemnation when engaged in by an officer holding the high position and the peculiar relations to the administration of justice in the army, held by Brigadier General Swain." The secretary of war laid the report before the president to-day, and it was decided to order a court martial for the trial of Swain. The detail for the court will be made in a few days.

THE history of crime does not furnish a parallel to the atrocity perpetrated near Duluth last Saturday. The wife of a farmer had first been outraged and then shot twice in the head. Her body was thrown across a log, the bowels cut open and flesh cut from the limbs in the most wanton and cruel manner. The account of the crime is hardly to be believed. It is nearly as incredible as the alleged murder is inhuman.

ILLINOIS and Maine clasped hands in 1860, when Lincoln and Hamlin were nominated, and again in 1884 Maine clasped hands with Illinois in the nomination of Blaine and Logan.

OSCAR WILDE is married. He will shortly appear minus his flowing locks, for good and sufficient reasons with which the blessedness of us are well acquainted.

In the outcome the New York and Massachusetts political dudes cut a very small figure in the Chicago convention.—Kansas City Journal.
