Remember, school opens on Monday morning. Children will materially assist the teachers in putting the school in working order by beginning with the first day.

That "politics makes strange bed-fellows" is a truthful old saw, and that certain associations will sometimes place people in awkward positions is equally true. Well, it will.

It is rumored that the B. & M. has leased the St. Joe bridge, and will hereafter make that their route to Chicago. It is stated that by this route the time from Chicago to Denver is shortened some five or six hours.

We are informed that J. E. Cochran has purchased a lot adjoining the one upon which his house now rests, and that he will move his building on to the same at an early date. The sale was made by H. C. Rider.

The City Restaurant has changed hands, Mr. Goodner retiring to his claim south of McCook, and J. Goodenberger assuming the management and proprietorship. Business is continued at the old stand on Main avenue.

Extensive preparations for feeding this winter have been made by stock-raisers. Thousands of tons of hay, millet, sorghum, etc., have been put in stack, and should the coming winter be a severe one, this preparation will have been a wise provision.

An exchange puts the following "poser": "When should a cow go dry?" That's a pretty hard nut to crack, but while there may be some question as to when they should run dry, they usually go dry after the supply of the lacteal fluid fails at any rate.

J. A. Richardson, who has recently successfully conducted a class in Indianola, is in town with a view of organizing a music class. He will be around to see our people at their houses, and we hope they will give him a hearty support in this important matter.

Call at LaTourette's and see that magnificent Hard Coal Base Burner that he is giving away to purchasers of Heating Stoves. Each purchaser of a heater receives a ticket for the drawing, which takes place January 25, 1885. Parties drawing the stove and not wishing to take it will receive $30 in cash. Don't fail to call and see it.

The sad occurrences of the past week or two cannot fail of setting in motion certain trains of thought that will be productive of future good. Different agencies are at work in this world, and different means are sometimes employed to make clear the duty we owe to our fellow man. As a matter of chivalry—and those who occupy the plains, hills and valleys of this great west pride themselves in its possession—the strong ought to support the weak. Be awake and alert.

If the sterner portion of the denizens of this vicinage have indulged in more than their wonted amount of profanity, this week, we bespeak that "He who knoweth our frame, that we are but dust," will exercise toward them a corresponding degree of charity and forgiveness. All who have been engaged in the inspiring task of joining all-sized stove pipes, and the performance of other duties connected with setting up stoves, will doubtless appreciate this invocation.

School facilities do attract. J. P. Matthews and Mr. Arbuckle of Atwood, Kansas, have purchased lots adjoining Chas. Noble on the north, and will commence the erection of houses, (lumber for that purpose is being hauled on the ground) at once, and move their families here. These gentlemen are of the solid and substantial kind, and will be an acquisition to our town. They have both contracted for houses 28 ft. square. The time will come when McCook will be headquarters for the majority of stock raisers of this section.

On Friday afternoon a large delegation of our people went down to Indianola to attend the county fair. The band, in which our citizens take a very proper pride, accompanied and headed the delegation, enlivening the occasion with some of their most inspiring strains. The boys marched out to the fair grounds and there discoursed some music that received the hearty approbation of those in attendance. In the evening a number attended the ball given in McCarty's Hall by the Indianola band, returning home on No. 1, having enjoyed a very pleasant trip.

The intelligence that Abe Constable had died at Bennett, this state, on Friday morning, was received by many of our citizens, to whom he was personally known, with expressions of sorrow and regret. Mr. Constable was kind-hearted and indulgent, and but for drink—that dread curse that yearly removes from this scene of action so many of those whose qualities of heart and mind are transcendent—might be amongst us, an honored and respected citizen. He was buried at Bennett, where he formerly lived, and where two children, who preceded him into the great unknown, are buried, his wife and daughter from this place being present. The bereaved ones have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Parties entered Geo. Hocknell's residence, Saturday night, with burglarious intent, and after making a complete survey and taking the bearings of things, left the house without, so far as known, disturbing anything. The burglars used parlor matches, the marks made in striking them against the wall showing that they went almost all through the building. Partially burnt matches were even found in the closets. Mr. Hocknell, who was absent at the time, returned Sunday night, and by fixing a contrivance on the door knob ascertained that a second attempt to enter the house was made Sunday night, parties being frightened away by the article placed on the door knob falling to the floor. Apropos we suggest to our citizens the advisability of making preparations for these outlaws against peace and property. They are numerous in this vicinage just now, and unless due precautions are observed the burglaries of last fall will be duplicated. Don't stop to interrogate these scoundrels, but insinuate a load of bird-shot into the adipose tissue of their anatomy without any preliminary ceremonies.

Jackson Tubbs and family arrived from Illinois, Monday. Mr. Tubbs was detained much longer in Illinois than he anticipated, by sickness in his family.

J. F. Forbes returned from his three-week's vacation, Friday, looking rested and refreshed, and at once entered on the discharge of his duties in the train dispatcher's office.

W. J. McGillin of Benkelman and Edwin Wilson of Max, foreman of the New United States Cattle Ranch Co., limited, were in town, Saturday, on business connected with their respective companies.

Messrs. Schumacker and Sherrer, two young men from Cullom, Ill., in the employ of the Illinois Central, arrived in McCook, last week, and spent some little time in our town. Both left on a trip to Denver, Monday.

Senator Dolan, J. W. Maiken and Major Criswell of the county-seat were in town on business, Monday. The Senator does not appear to have lost any flesh by spending sleepless nights over Rosey's absurd pronouncements.

Presiding Elder Johnson, and Rev. Bartley of the Benkelman charge, were welcome and pleasant callers at this office, Monday. Rev. Johnson has just recently entered upon the discharge of the duties of presiding elder of the Republican Valley district, and is making a rapid circuit of his territory. He preached to a necessarily small audience (the seats having been removed to the school house) in the church, Monday evening, and will again address our people in the Opera Hall, to-night.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

The third annual meeting of the Red Willow County Fair was held at Indianola on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. The grounds were in about the same shape as they were last season, with the exception that another building had been erected in which to exhibit the fancy work that the ladies and others might bring. The race course, corrals, etc., were repaired, and arrangements made for a larger display than last year.

The best features of the fair was the display of vegetables, and in this line Red Willow county can challenge the world. If there is any spot on this terrestrial sphere where can be grown larger and finer beets, potatoes, tomatoes, parsnips, carrots, onions, pumpkins, cabbage, pop corn and field corn than was exhibited by Messrs. Fitch, Hotze, Buck, Helm and others, we would like to hear of its location. All who examined the display of vegetables were unanimous in the verdict that they had never seen anything better in that department. And Bodwell's Beaver beats, weighing as they did, as much as 32 pounds, were mastodonic.

STOCK EXHIBITS.

The exhibits made of stock were very fair for a new country, where the breeding and raising of blooded stock is of recent date. The Spring Creek Cattle Co. had two pens of Herefords and Short Horns that averaged well. Senator Dolan also had a large bunch of Short Horns on exhibition from his fine herd. J. F. Helm of the Willow was on hand with a fine lot of Herefords and Short Horns that gave indications of excellent handling and feeding. Mr. Helm exhibited some sleek, fat cattle. I. J. Starbuck had a number of Holsteins there; also two blooded bulls of the Holstein and Hereford strains, that are amongst the best in the county. A. E. Lang, who is engaged more particularly in raising blooded stock, exhibited a small bunch of his excellent stock. Royal Buck and Chas. Hotze each had a bunch of fine grade calves at the fair that attracted considerable attention. Mr. Buck also a handsome premium colts. Mr. Hotze exhibited a number of brag milk cows. Thos. Clark entered a magnificent yearling horse that was especially commented upon. There were other exhibitions of stock that had been taken away before our reporter was on hand, that were worthy.

J. M. Edmiston of Lincoln, State Agent of the Union Central Life Ins. Co. of Cincinnati, is in town this week, and has paid Mrs. Aelia Lee, Two Thousand dollars, the full amount of a policy her husband, John A. Lee, (recently deceased) held in said company, payment being made nearly two months before the claim was due. Mr. Lee had paid but one year's premium, as policy was taken October 16th, 1883. Had he lived until the age of 51 he would have drawn the two thousand himself, (policy being an endowment) his full payment in that event would have been one thousand and ninety dollars. Mr. Edmiston has a large list here among our business men, and is increasing it each trip. His company is the only Regular Life Co. in the State of Ohio, and one of the most prosperous and prudently managed in the country. They issue policy upon the most approved plans, their specialty being endowments at regular life rates. We believe our citizens appreciate this solid and honorable company and will continue to patronize it.

We use Leis' German Baking Powder and prefer it to any we have ever tried, and we have tried them all. Can also say the same thing of their Fruit Etracts. [Signed] A. S. McCULLOCH, Steward Kansas Deaf and Dumb Asylum, Olathe, Kansas. This certainly speaks in high praise of the Leis German Baking Powder. You have only to give it a trial to fully indorse the above. Sold by C. H. Rogers.

Teachers' Association. The Red Willow County Teachers' Association will meet at the School House in Indianola on October 7th and 8th, 1884, commencing on Friday at 1:30, P. M. and closing at 12 M. on Saturday. Let all teachers attend. The public is respectfully invited. Oct. 6, '84. C. L. NETTLETON, Pres.

Old Settlers' Meeting.

Pursuant to adjournment from July the 4th a meeting of old settlers was held on the fair grounds on Saturday, October the 4th inst., and on report of the committee, a constitution and rules for an Old Settlers' Society was adopted. Residence in Red Willow county from 1872 to 1877, both years inclusive, was fixed as the qualification of membership at present, to be opened and extended at any time as the years roll on. Royal Buck was the first President for the current year, R. H. Criswell Secretary and E. S. Hill, Treasurer. There are to be twelve Vice Presidents, one from each township in the county, only a few of which can be filled at present. All residents of the county from 1872 to 1877 inclusive are requested to call at the office of R. H. Criswell in Indianola and register their names in a book to be provided for that purpose. There will be appointed a committee on the political history of the county and on natural history and antiquities, collections of curiosities to be made, and a museum of minerals and fossils to be established. The first meeting will be held about the first of June, 1885, at the call of the President and Secretary.

Perego & Moore's success explained at Metropolitan Drug Store.

THE young men of this free and independent satrapy—who do not manipulate "the ribbons" in the capacity of family coachman—and who are desirous of committing civil suicide, will have to be expeditious about the matter. As a towering climax to the "tales of woe" that have been going the land over, per the associated dispatches, comes the startling intelligence that a coachman, has eloped with two girls, and coming from the Buckeye state the report must needs be true.
